Every leader is a follower of someone.

A woman will do as she pleases even if she really doesn't want to.

Things that have happened usually do not seem of such importance as they did beforehand.

A level-headed man is, of course, evenly balanced.

Unto he who "knocks" shall be given all that is coming to him.

A winner by unfair means is a big loser in the long run.

The man with tight boots has a kick coming.

The itch for office and scratching the ballot go hand in hand.

Things that a person couldn't find in the light have a most perverse way of getting under his feet in the dark.
