

We Have Much to Be Thankful For

Thanksgiving day this year finds America the favored land of all the earth. No wars or overwhelming catastrophes of nature disturb our prosperity and happiness. Therefore, let us forget for the moment our trifling woes and unite as a nation in giving thanks for our many great blessings.

Bank of Cottage Grove

True Value

COMFORT and SATISFACTION are the only basis of value in a pair of spectacles or eye glasses.

APPEARANCE also is important from an esthetic standpoint.

COMFORT SATISFACTION APPEARANCE together with SERVICE and twenty years' experience are the VALUES that go to make my glasses so much appreciated by those who are wearing them—and at no greater cost than for the ordinary kind.

D. J. Scholl

Optician-Optometrist Factory on Premises Cottage Grove, Ore.

Tales of the Town

An 8-pound daughter was born Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Peayburn.

A. C. Anderson was in North Bend on business the latter part of last week.

Christmas tree lighting sets at the Electric store.

Mr. and Mrs. Georg Bjorset returned last Thursday from their honeymoon trip to California. They crossed the line to Tia Juana, Mexico. They are making their home in the Omer apartments.

BAZAAR

at M. E. Church, Dec. 5

Buy your Christmas presents at fancy work and apron booths. Candy, rummage and harvest home booths.

Chicken Supper from 5:30 to 7 o'clock, Fifty Cents

A C-T-C tire free if you can find another tire that will outwear it. Nelson's Service Station sells C-T-C tires—an "Oregon product."

William M. Dreese has been appointed administrator of the estate of Henry J. Dreese, who died November 18, 1923, leaving property of the estimated value of $2700. R. Y. Porter, D. P. Caldwell and Walter Pentico were appointed to appraise the property.

Have your pictures framed now for Christmas at Graham's Picture Shop.

Miss Bertha Cox and her niece,

Oh! Girls!

SEE OUR WEST WINDOW THIS WEEK—WE ARE GIVING AWAY TWO LARGE TALKING DOLLS!

This is your chance of getting a real nice doll for Christmas free.

The one guessing the correct number or nearest correct number of bars of soap in our window will receive the largest doll. The next will receive the second size doll.

One guess with each 5 bars of White Wonder soap.

Dolls will be given away Saturday, December 8, at 8 o'clock p. m.

Smith-Short Grocery

THE STORE THAT APPRECIATES YOUR TRADE

Mrs. Merritt Eddy has undergone an operation for the removal of her tonsils.

Mrs. G. E. Ganne and children arrived Saturday from Kelse, Wash., for a visit at the home of Mrs. Ganne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Rentele.

Large $1.10 box Hy Tone stationery for 89c. A special offering for Remember week, December 1-8. White Pharmacy.

Mrs. Alice Nute, of Grants Pass, was a week-end guest of Mrs. D. C. Bosley.

M. P. DesLarzes has received word from his son, Leon DesLarzes, formerly of this city, that they have bought a ranch at Orange, Calif., and expect to make their home in that city.

For Sale—Ford truck, 1923 model, Brainard & Hall. n29c

Ed Spriggs, of Canby, spent the week end here at the homes of his brothers, John and Clint.

Bert Hawley, a resident of this city 23 years ago, now of Crook county, visited here the fore part of the week.

Miss Flossie Cox, attended a Christian convention held at Saguinaw Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

I can give you perfect eyesight without glasses. Satisfaction guaranteed or your money back. Dr. H. A. Hagen. n29fc

Mrs. Amelia Phelps left the fore part of the week for Tillamook to be at the home of her son Lester for Thanksgiving day.

Pennington & Orr have bought a Fordson donkey and have it at work in the woods at their mill on the Coast fork.

Thanksgiving dance tonight in Armory. Military Club.

Charles Spray, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Spray, of this city, who is employed in the United States naval hospital, Puget Sound, Wash., is ill with measles. He and Harry Skilling, who is also employed there, had planned to be here for Thanksgiving, but due to Charles' illness they will not be home until the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Dema Stillwell arrived Saturday to visit during the week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. F. E. Dickson.

Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Ellsworth were here from Peoria the latter part of last week on business.

Used cars at Nelson's Service Station: 1917 Dodge touring, all new tires, $300; 1918 Ford sedan, $225; 1922 Grant six roadster, new tires, $400; 1919 Grant six touring, $200; 1918 Chevrolet touring, $175; 1917 Maxwell, with special equipment, $100; 1918 Maxwell touring, $150; 1914 Ford touring, $70; 1915 Maxwell, $60.

M. C. Bressler, who recently purchased the Knowles & Graber furniture business, has bought the Ernest Purvance property on Third street. The sale was made through J. E. Spray.

W. W. McFarland and Glen Smith were up from Roseburg Tuesday night for the wrestling match.

Special bargains in Vacuum Sweepers at Wynne's Electric Shop.

C. F. Skelton, of Umpqua, in company with Pastor Hammer, of Roseburg, passed through here Thursday last on the way to Eugene to attend the district quarterly meeting of the Free Methodist church.

Frank Sly and Wilson Hubbell are repairing the building at Fifth and Main occupied by Powell & Burkholder.

I have several real bargains in city property; also good farms, small or large. J. F. Spray. n29fc Elvin C. Spray has been appointed administrator of the estate of Mabel Spray, who died November 6, 1923. J. F. Spray, S. S. Lasswell and K. K. Mills were appointed to appraise the property.

Mrs. Sarah E. Kerr visited the fore part of the week in Eugene with her daughter, Mrs. Edna V. Sullivan.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hughes, who had been residents of this city for two years, left Friday for Portland, where they expect to make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Harkleroad and children left Saturday by motor for Los Angeles to visit at the home of a sister of Mrs. Harkleroad.

Corney's Place—in the rooms over Powell & Burkholder's store.

Miss Byna Seydell, of Portland, visited last week at the home of her great-aunt, Mrs. S. E. Markley.

Dan Parker, arrived Friday from Dunsmuir, Calif., to visit until after Thanksgiving with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Parker. He attended the Oregon-O. A. C. game in Eugene Saturday.

Special this week at Nelson's Service Station, a 1922 Grant six roadster in fine condition and good tires, only $400.

Thursday morning to visit until after Thanksgiving at the home of her mother, Mrs. Clara Burkholder. She will leave this evening for Corvallis, where she has accepted a position in the office of the Benton county agricultural agent.

If you don't own a Vacuum Sweeper now is your chance to get one of the best makes; below cost while they last—at Wynne's Electric Shop.

Miss Loretta Miller and Winfield Clarke, O. A. C. students, who attended the Oregon-O. A. C. game at Eugene Saturday, came on to Cottage Grove and spent the week end with Miss Miller's aunt, Mrs. C. A. Bartell.

Monroe's delivery will call for and deliver shoes for Goff's Shoe Hospital. n29fc

Mrs. Fred Bennett leaves this morning for North Bend to be with her mother, Mrs. Thomas Bomar, who will undergo an operation for appendicitis Saturday.

The David Sterling family are spending Thanksgiving with relatives in Brownsville.

89c buys $1.10 box Hy Tone stationery during Remember week, December 1 to 8. The White Pharmacy.

Mrs. Gladys Jackson went to Mount Angel Tuesday and brought her daughters, Margaret and Dorothy, who are attending school there, home for Thanksgiving.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Boyd, of Medford, are spending Thanksgiving here with relatives.

Military club Thanksgiving dance tonight in Armory.

Gust Brunston, who left here several weeks ago, has returned from Saskatchewan with a party of eight, all of whom expect to make their homes here.

G. E. Sweet, of this city, was elected Hyastee (vice-grand) by the Orientals at a meeting held in Eugene Saturday evening.

Why should you buy dad suspenders again this Christmas when you can buy something for his car? We have a beautiful line of Christmas presents for the car. Nelson's Service Station.

Mrs. Fred R. White, a niece of J. Q. Willits, died at 5 o'clock yesterday morning at her home in Portland.

George Smith, of Los Angeles, is establishing a paint shop in the old Long building on Tenth street.

November subscription special. Sentinel, $1.75 during November.

Scott Martin, who recently received his discharge from the navy, visited during the week with relatives here.

Galloway writes insurance. Lyle Wynn and Henry Laey, of Weed, Calif., who were en route to Washington, visited last week at the Willis Mattox home.

Special prices now on stand frames and framed pictures at Graham's Picture Shop.

Miss Enid Vench, former resident, and Miss Jessie Jerzyk, the latter of Rainier, where she is employed in the newspaper office of J. P. Vench, but who was attending the homecoming festivities at the university, stopped here Friday while on their way to Sutherland. Miss Vench visited briefly with relatives and friends here.

Come and see Nelson's Service Station about that splendid offer on C-T-C tires—the offer that has startled the world.

Kenneth Hunter, of Moscow, Ida., who is attending the Eugene Bible university, arrived yesterday to spend the Thanksgiving vacation at the home of his cousin, A. A. Richmond.

Dry Cleaning. C. G. Laundry. Mr. and Mrs. Ben Marksbury, of Portland, were guests over the week end at the homes of Mr. Marksbury's brother and sister, G. M. Marksbury and Mrs. O. M. Miller, and Mrs. Marksbury's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Longfellow.

Sanford for Signs. Woodson Brothers received another carload of Fords Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. V. T. Randall spent the week end in Portland at the home of Mr. Randall's brother, Marvel.

Why pay rent when you can own a home for the rent? See Spray, 105 Main street. tfe

Mrs. A. R. Stevens, who had been visiting at the William Baker home, returned Monday to her home in Portland.

Mrs. Claude Plaster left Wednesday of last week for a visit in Roseburg at the home of her sister, Mrs. Barton Hellwell.

Christmas tree lighting sets at the Electric store.

Mrs. Katie Hannigan arrived Wednesday from Portland and went to Lorane to spend Thanksgiving with her father, John O'Brien.

Jack Lemon, who is in the navy, was home on a furlough during the past week.

Rock Springs Wyoming coal. City Transfer. Storage. o29tf

Charles Trembley has bought the Mary Weston place on Silk Creek.

H. H. Hill, of Portland, has purchased the Henry Johnson place at Saguinaw and has moved there with his family.

Money to loan on city or farm property. J. F. Spray. aug3tfe

Peter Deardorf left Tuesday for Walla Walla, Wash., to spend the winter with his children who live there.

George McClellan, electrical superintendent of the Mountain States Power company, was here Monday from Albany on business.

Be thankful for Military club dance tonight in Armory. Miss Audrey Murphy arrived yesterday from Eugene to remain until after Thanksgiving.

Galloway for insurance, 511 Main. A Thanksgiving program will be given this afternoon at the Cedars school house. A basket dinner will be served after the program.

Remember Remember week and remember to get $1.10 box Hy Tone stationery at 89c upon which to remember Mother, Family, Friends. White Pharmacy.

Mrs. J. F. Knox and daughters Aileen and Irene went to Portland yesterday to visit at the home of Mrs. Knox's mother, Mrs. M. S. Smith.

A marriage license has been issued to Samuel B. Kern and Elmira M. Sterling, both of Cottage Grove.

Dr. W. J. Miller, eye, ear, nose and throat specialist, of Portland, will be at the Hotel Bartell in Cottage Grove one day, Saturday, December 8, where he may be consulted by those desiring work in his profession, including testing eyes and fitting glasses. n29dc

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Groves left Thursday for Oakland, Calif., to spend Thanksgiving at the home of their son Alta.

Upstairs pool, billiard and card room; also lunch and bowling. Corney's Place—over Powell & Burkholder store.

Word has been received here that Mrs. Ben Groff, of Prineville, who was seriously ill, is now getting along satisfactorily.

Stewart for good plumbing.

A daughter was born Wednesday morning to Mr. and Mrs. George Boyd.

It's time you were shopping for Christmas presents for the car. Nelson's Service Station has a wonderful stock to select from.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Titus and children and Mrs. C. A. Kurre and daughter Dorothy have gone to Portland to spend Thanksgiving and will remain until Monday. The Titus family will visit Mrs. Titus' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hood, and Mrs. Kurre and daughter will visit at the home of Mrs. Kurre's son, Ernest.

Plan on bringing the family to the Gray Goose for Thanksgiving dinner; 1 to 8 o'clock. Price, $1.00 a plate.

Mrs. Helen M. DeLong left Tuesday for Portland to spend Thanksgiving at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Gerald Woods.

Omer Apartments

offers you a home that is NEW, CLEAN MODERN

Two and three-room apartments with bath, hot and cold water, steam heat, electric ranges and lights. You should see these. Inquire of

C. J. KEM

Kem's for Drugs

We wash. Our wives don't. Cottage Grove Laundry. tfe

W. E. Goode, brother of Mrs. W. E. Burckett, of Divide, who is elder of the Free Methodist church in McDoyle, Calif., has been here this week holding a quarterly meeting in the church.

PHOTO CALENDARS FOR CHRISTMAS GIFTS AT GRAHAM'S PICTURE SHOP.

—in some places it's summer all the time.

—we never note any difference in climate.

—we're just as busy this time of year as any other time.

—there's a reason.

—West Side Garage.

HEBRON.

(Special to The Sentinel.) Nov. 27.—Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Kimble and W. L. Kimble motored to Eugene Friday.

The Frank Geer family have moved onto the Witte place near London.

Several from Latham and from Eugene attended the Thanksgiving dinner and program at the Hebron church Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Powell and children visited Sunday at the home of Mr. Powell's brother, E. W. Powell, at London.

DELIGHT VALLEY.

(Special to The Sentinel.) The Hugh Nixon family motored to Newport Friday, spent the week end with Mr. Nixon's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nixon, who are wintering there, and returned home Sunday.

Miss Eleanor Nixon and Miss Fern Hays spent the week end in Eugene.

Mrs. J. A. Joll and son Frank were among the week-end visitors in Eugene. They attended the Oregon-O. A. C. football game Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Horn attended a meeting of the Orientals in Eugene Saturday evening.

Lionel Haight spent the week end in Eugene attending the U. of O. homecoming.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Mattock, of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Ira Beid-

Help Your Moulting Hens

THINK of the amount of hen energy, vitality and red blood required to grow thousand feathers—the average plumage! A moulting hen needs good health—good appetite—good digestion.

Dr. Hess Poultry Pan-a-ce-a helps poultry through the moult and starts pullets and moulting hens to laying. It contains tonics for the appetite, tonics to aid digestion. It tones up the dormant egg organs. It contains iron that gives a moulting hen rich, red blood and a red comb. No disease where Pan-a-ce-a is fed. By all means feed your moulting hens Dr. Hess Poultry Pan-a-ce-a.

We handle the Dr. Hess Line. Call on us. Ostrander & McQueen

Tell us how many hens you have. We have a package to suit.

Dr. Hess Instant Louse Killer Kills Lice

Home Builder's Special!

FOR 10 DAYS ONLY

5-foot bath, complete $88

Vitreous China Tank Toilet FOR $88

18x21 inch Lavatory, complete $18.50

20x30 inch White Enameled Roll Rim, one piece $18.50

sinks

The above are first class and guaranteed in every way.

The "FIXIT" SHOP

of Cottage Grove, were Sunday guests at the E. J. Sears home.

The Ben Jackson family, of Walk or, were dinner guests Sunday of Mrs. Lawrence Montith.

Mr. and Mrs. Thayer and children, of Roseburg, spent Sunday at the Omer Jackson home.

The Roy Murray family, of Eugene, were supper guests Sunday evening at the E. J. Kent home.

Reginald Haight left Monday for a week's visit at Portland and other points down the valley.

E. J. Kent has his house, barn and chicken house wired for electric light and is waiting for the power company to put in a transformer.

THE CEDARS. (Special to The Sentinel.) Nov. 27.—A Thanksgiving program will be given at the school-house Wednesday evening by pupils of the school. A supper will be served following the program.

J. W. Sears came down from the Bohemia district to spend Thanksgiving with his family.

Curtis Vench, of Halsey, spent the week end in the neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Ashby returned Wednesday from a visit in Portland.

Priority Again. The elevator boy was green at the job. Two passengers, a man and a woman, got on at the street floor.

"Ninth," said the latter, once they were fairly started.

"Sixth," said the man. The car sped by the sixth floor and stopped at the ninth. On the way back the man said:

"Why in thunder didn't you stop at the sixth floor! It's lower than the ninth."

"I know that," replied the boy, "but the lady said ninth first."

We understand that the New York health officers are going to insist that dairymen boil all the water that goes into the milk.

THE MODERN FIXTURE THAT WE SELL ARE BOUND TO HELP YOU FOLKS KEEP WELL

How to Keep Well.

"FIXIT SHOP'S Little Plumber"

Thanksgiving Dinner Menu

Consomme or Cream of Tomato Soup

Roast Young Turkey with Giblet Dressing

Cranberry Sauce

Candied Sweets or Mashed Potatoes

Peas or Creamed Onions

Waldorf Salad

Hot Mince or Pumpkin Pie with Whipped Cream or Special Thanksgiving Brick Ice Cream and Cake Coffee, Tea or Milk

A GOOD PLACE TO EAT

