COTTAGE GROVE, LANE COUNTY, OREGON, THURSDAY, DECEMBER 27, 1923

NUMBER 16

JOY IS THE ACCOMPANIMENT OF CHRISTMAS DAY HERE

Musical Programs Usher in Season; Business Is Large; Laborers Get Back Pay.

The Christmas season was one of joy in the Cottage Grove country. The needy and shut-ins of the city were remembered on Christmas by those more fortunate. The Mothers' club distributed a large amount of vegetables, canned goods and clothing which had been gathered by the high school. The deaconesses of the Presbyterian church looked after the shut-ins and the Elks carried food and clothing to the needy, the several organizations coordinating their efforts.

The Presbyterian church gave a Christmas cantata Friday evening and a Christmas concert was given Sunday evening in the Methodist church. In addition to these all the churches held Christmas programs and distributed presents to the kiddies.

Practically all business of the city was closed on Christmas day and nearly every family had company for dinner or were guests of some other family.

Business houses of the city had reason for being joyful for the Christmas business had been a record breaker.

Those who were employees of the Western Lumber & Export company at the time it went into the hands of receivers were made happy by the distribution of $18,000 in labor claims. The larger portion of back wages had been paid shortly after the appointment of the receivers.

ROAD WORK HERE HALTS UNTIL AFTER HOLIDAYS

The Boyd rock pit, south of here, where rock is crushed for the improvement of highways in this part of the county, is closed down until after the holidays.

Rock has been hauled recently to the London springs road and to the old highway north of the city. The new section was graded and partially rocked this year but is yet soft. It is probable that it will be paved this year. The old highway will be continued as a county road as there are a number of residences along it. The county has completed considerable work on this piece of road between the new bridge and the Ninth street bridge and it is now in pretty good shape.

County Commissioners Emmett M. Sharp and L. N. Roney made a trip up Row river Saturday to arrange for a change or two contemplated on that road.

SACRED PROGRAMS ADD TO JOY OF CHRISTMAS SEASON

Sacred musical concerts added much to the enjoyment of the Christmas season, into which they fitted so well.

The Christmas cantata, "The World's Redeemer," was given Friday evening at the Presbyterian church. Special and solo parts were taken by Mrs. Victor Kern, Mrs. Victor Chambers, Mrs. W. H. Daugherty, Mrs. Ivan Warner, Mrs. Carl Witte, Mrs. E. W. Armes, A. B. Spearow, Dale Wyatt and Worth Harvey.

The cantata was repeated Sunday forenoon at the Latham church. The choir of the Methodist church gave a Christmas concert Sunday evening. Solo and special parts were taken by Miss Flossie Mathes, Mrs. Glen Hancy, Mrs. Roy Leonard, Mrs. Andrew Brund, S. L. Mackin and C. E. Umphrey.

The first fall went to Thye in 27 minutes, 10 seconds, when an arm scissors. Yokel took the second fall with a headlock in 18 minutes, 45 seconds, and the third and deciding fall went to Thye in 9 minutes, 10 seconds, on a wristlock and arm scissors.

To Participate in Endurance Run

Harry Rentle and possibly two or three other motorcyclists from here plan to participate in the New Year's day endurance run of the Eugene Motorcycle club to Seattle and return. The start will be made at the stroke of the new year on the night of December 31 from the corner of Eighth and Willamette streets in Eugene.

SANTA CLAUS KEEPS POST OFFICE AND RAILROAD BUSY DELIVERING GIFTS

If there are any who doubt that there is a Santa Claus, they can secure information to their advantage by inquiring at the local post-office, where the entire force was kept working at top speed to handle the thousands of Christmas letters and packages which the old saint had committed to their care. The Christmas rush surpassed anything in the previous history of the post-office. Two were added to the force during the rush.

The Southern Pacific railway was put to it to handle the hundreds of thousands of packages which Santa was unable to deliver with his reindeer on account of a total lack of snow. A complete mail and express special was run for five successive days.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH TO TRY OUT VESPER SERVICE

Hour Is Changed to 5 o'Clock and Musical Numbers Are to Be Featured.

An experiment in church services for Cottage Grove will be tried with the beginning of the new year, when the hour of the Sunday evening service at the Presbyterian church will be changed to 5 o'clock and will take the form of a vesper hour. Music will be featured and there will be a 20-minute sermon. Because of the fact that there will be transportation to Eugene immediately following the close of this service, an effort will be made to secure considerable musical talent from that city. Because of the fact that this service will come at an hour when there will be no other church service and when there will be no entertainment program anywhere to interfere, the officials of the church have expressed the hope that this may become a community religious service.

A social hour in the basement of the church will follow the vesper service and this will be followed by a discussion service. Refreshments will be served at the social hour.

This form of service has proved successful elsewhere, but the change in the hour of service was made only after a careful study of the situation by the church boards. Reasons other than those above stated which determined the action were that the early service comes at the part of the day when interest most lags and that a service at this hour leaves the evening for the man to spend at home with his family. The official announcement of the change reads in part as follows:

"The official boards have made a careful study of the social and economic situation of our city with the purpose in view of more closely articulating the services of the church to the life of the community. While religion and religious worship are instinctive they should never become mere habit, but should always be correlated in such a manner with the rest of the activities of the whole man that they become a reasonable and integral part of his life. A duty need not be a burden. "Because the Presbyterian church feels its obligation to more adequately serve the whole community, it announces the change in the order of its services to become effective the first Sunday of the new year, January 6."

C. A. BARTELL IS FIRST TO JOIN SAFE DRIVERS' RANKS

C. A. Bartell claims the distinction of being the first Cottage Grove person to join the Oregonian's safe drivers' club. He was "initiated" while a visitor in Portland a few days ago. He says that traffic officials and others who have been interested in the control of reckless driving have characterized the movement on the part of the Oregonian in organizing the motor drivers of the state under the banner of voluntary safe and sane driving as the best thing that has yet been attempted to decrease the terrific toll of motor accidents.

Arthur Covell Receives Books

Salem, Ore., Dec. 22.—Arthur Covell, crippled astrophysicist, who is in the state penitentiary here under sentence of death on a charge of having caused his nephew, Alton Covell, to kill Mrs. Ebba Covell, the boy's stepmother, today received several of his books on astrology and a text book on shorthand. He wishes to learn shorthand. His typewriter and more books are said to be on the way here from his home at Bandon. Covell's case is now on appeal to the supreme court and Governor Pierce has issued a reprieve. He was to have been hanged December 21.

Recall Petitions Circulated

Petitions asking for the recall of Governor Pierce were circulated here Thursday last. The character of those circulating the petitions did not make a favorable impression and it was said that but few signatures were secured.

Herdsmen's Course Added

A herdsman's and cow tetter's course has been added to the curriculum at O. A. C. This course has been given before as an experiment but will hereafter be a regular course. It starts January 2 and runs to June 12.

FLORENCE BANK ROBBERS ARE IN LANE COUNTY JAIL

Tom Murray, Ex-Convict, Admits That He Was Leader of Bandit Trio.

Tom Murray, ex-convict and confessed leader of the trio which robbed the Florence bank a short time ago, is in the Lane county jail. Eddie Walker, identified as one of the gang by the Sinlaw ranchers who hid the robbers for several days, and James Wells, in whose possession was found $1426 of the loot, are also in the county jail. All were captured in Portland by Burns detective agents and the Portland police. Murray says Walker was not a member of the trio and Wells has not been identified as one.

Alep Powell and Nels Berkrem, two of the Sinlaw ranchers held for aiding in the escape of the robbers, were released in time to spend Christmas at their homes. Bail of $2500 was deposited for each.

Cannery Meeting January 7

The annual meeting of stockholders of the Cottage Grove cannery will be held at 10 o'clock Monday, January 7, in the city hall. Through a clerical error the first printed notices sent out by the secretary stated that the meeting would be held on January 8. Second notices have been sent out giving the correct date. The annual election of officers will be held at this meeting.

FIRST ISSUE OF COE GEE MIRROR MAKES APPEARANCE

The first issue of the Coe Gee Mirror, a semi-monthly mimeographed paper being published by the high school students, appeared Thursday last. While the paper will not attempt to upset world affairs or sway the destinies of nations, the editors and publishers express the hope that it will be found of sufficient interest to students and patrons of the local schools to induce them to subscribe in a sufficient number to greatly aid in covering the expense of publication. The sales of the first issue were sufficient to cover the actual expenses of the issue, but the publishers have ambitions to make the publication a dividend-paying proposition and advertising will be solicited for future issues. The next issue will be on January 10.

The mimeograph process of producing a newspaper does not lend itself readily to the correction of errors nor to the display and typographical arrangement that is possible with type, but the paper is a creditable production for tyros in the game.

The first issue was made up of five sheets 8 1/2 inches by 11 inches in size and contained all the department news that usually appear in a regular newspaper. Each department had a head and each editor his or her duties, but other students are requested to submit contributions.

C. G. H. S. STUDENTS DO BIT IN CHARITY WORK

The high school students did their bit in helping to make this Christmas a merry one even for the needy. During last week they collected enough clothing, potatoes, apples and canned fruit to fill a truck. The Mothers' club took charge of the distribution. At the assembly Friday afternoon a short program was given, A. R. Spearow being the speaker for the occasion. He pointed out the good that probably would be derived from this charity work that the high school had accomplished.

Mrs. Ella Thompson, for many years a well known resident of the Silk Creek neighborhood, died at 11 o'clock on Christmas day, following a brief illness. A third brother, Charles White, lives in Wisconsin. Mrs. Thompson was born in Rockville, Wis., June 26, 1859. She came to Oregon in 1891 and was married to George Thompson, who died many years ago.

COOPERATION IS URGED AT FARMERS' UNION CONVENTION

Their Interests Were Greatly Advanced in the Opinion of Delegates Attending From Here.

The interests of the farmer were greatly advanced, especially along the line of cooperation, at the recent state convention of the farmers' union, in the opinion of the large number of delegates who attended from here. Action was taken leading to further action to bring about better agricultural conditions. A number of splendid instructive and inspiring addresses were given and the delegates were royally entertained.

GOVERNOR PIERCE IS HEADLINER TELLS EGG PRODUCERS THEY MUST GET TOGETHER OR THEIR BUSINESS WILL BE HARD HIT

C. D. Rorer, president of the Bank of Commerce, Eugene, outlined an agricultural program. He said that Oregon is importing pork and that we raise only one-third of the wool we use. M. M. Boney, manager of the farmers' creamery at Eugene, said that 10 years ago Oregon was importing butterfat while today it is exporting 225,000,000 pounds of dairy products. He said that the yield of the average dairy cow of Oregon is but 160 pounds, while it should be 240 pounds to provide a dividend. He urged larger herds, explaining that in herds of less than 8 the average cost is $105; that in herds of 8 to 12 the average cost is reduced to $90 and that in herds of more than 12 it is further reduced to $71. The union went on record as favoring a national cooperative marketing act by congress, to create crop pools and make warehouse receipts legal tender. A resolution was adopted favoring a high tariff on farm products. A tax on exported wheat, as outlined by the wheat growers' associations and supported by various other organizations, was heartily endorsed in a resolution introduced by the committee on marketing. This plan, as explained to the members, provides for a tax on wheat exported, which is said to constitute one-fourth of the crop of the United States. This plan, the authors of the resolution explained, would stabilize the price of wheat so that it can be grown at a profit. A severance tax that would include taxes not only on timber but on other natural resources was proposed. A committee is to be appointed to draft a measure to be submitted to the people of the state. Governor Pierce, in his address, declared that better conditions for marketing must be found and that the farmer must take to diversified and intensified farming. Cooperation was stressed by both Mr. Pierce and Paul V. Maris, director of the O. A. C. extension service, as a fundamental of the program. The governor declared that freight rates had jumped on farm products about 50 per cent in comparison with the value of the produce and that in 1919 1000 bushels of wheat would pay the taxes on his farm, while now it took 7000. This condition was general, he said, and relief for it must be found. Unless relief comes, both he and Mr. Maris predicted that American farms would be taken over by a peasant class of people of low standards of living. In his message, Charles S. Barrett, national president, enlarged upon the benefits of cooperation and in a masterly way put the issue of remedying the conditions on the farms strictly up to the farmers themselves. Herbert Egbert, of the Dalles, and Mrs. B. G. Jones, of Monmouth, were re-elected president and secretary-treasurer. R. P. Laird, of Creswell, was chosen vice president. Wasco won the next annual convention and it is probable that the meeting will be held at the Dalles. The report of R. P. Laird, of Creswell, president of the Lane county union, showed that 24 locals were now firmly established with a combined membership of 1428 active workers. Several Cottage Grove delegates served on committees. Otto Dobbers was on the committee on education, George Keibelbeck on the committee on publicity and M. A. Horn on the committee on organization and constitution.

Leon Bowman, arraigned on a charge of receiving stolen property, waived examination and furnished $500 bail. Steve Edwards, arraigned on a charge of larceny in the Flannery drug store in Springfield a few nights ago, waived examination and furnished $1000 bail. The other four boys, Ray Bryan, Hazlette McKelvey, Harold McPherson and Earl Calkins, are being held for the federal court and will be taken to Portland soon. BOYS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR NUMEROUS ROBBERIES

Sheriff's Office Breaks Up Gang That Has Been Operating More Than Year.

Five boys, all residents of Springfield and vicinity, are in the county jail on robbery charges, including the robbery of the postoffice at Goshen and several robberies in and around Springfield during the past year and a half. Their ages range from 15 to 19 years. Every burglary except one that has been committed in Springfield and environs during that time was confessed to by these boys, according to Van Svarverud, deputy sheriff, who was detailed on the Goshen and Springfield robbery cases of last week and who has effectually broken up a gang of young thieves that was known to have been operating for a long time. The boys in jail are: Steve H. Edwards, 18; Ray Bryan, 17; Hazlette McKelvey, 15; Harold McPherson, 18, and Earl Calkins, 19. Leo Bowman, 18, is also in custody on a charge of receiving stolen goods. Most of the loot secured by the gang has been returned to the owners. A considerable portion of it was located at young McKelvey's home near Springfield Junction station. Sheriff Stickle has characterized the efforts of Deputy Svarverud in this case as being one of the best pieces of criminal detective work ever performed in Lane county.

CASES OF BOY ROBBERIES GO BEFORE GRAND JURY

Three of the Springfield boys arrested last week on a charge of robbing various residences and stores in and around Springfield during the past year and a half were bound over to the grand jury Saturday by Justice of the Peace Jesse G. ONLY TWO REMEMBER TO GO TO MEETING TO VOTE $23,000 FOR SCHOOL TAX

School Clerk Harvey and the editor of The Sentinel were the only ones to remember the school budget meeting held Christmas eve to vote upon a budget carrying a tax of over $23,000. The two notified Chairman Shinn, of the school board, and Superintendent Hays. When these arrived the budget was quickly disposed of, the vote being unanimously favorable.

Boy Tourists Steal Gasoline

Three lads from Washington driving a much-used car were apprehended here Saturday night upon a charge of stealing gasoline from a car in Creswell. The man from whom the gasoline had been stolen, probably because of the Christmas season, refused to prosecute when the boys made restitution for the stolen gasoline and paid the expense of apprehending them.

COOPERATION OF HEN OWNERS IS BEING ASKED

Poultrymen's Association of Oregon Will Hold Big Meeting Here Tonight.

Poultrymen of this section have been requested to attend a meeting to be held tonight in Phillips hall for the purpose of getting them to sign up with the Poultrymen's Association of Oregon. E. J. Dixon, manager of the association, will be the principal speaker. C. J. Hard, of O. A. C., will also make an address. An intensive drive for members of the Poultrymen's Association of Oregon has been inaugurated in Lane county. A goal of 250,000 hens in the state has been set and a large number of these are expected to be signed up in this county. If 40,000 are signed, a receiving station will be established in Eugene. It is said that this would save poultry men 50 cents a case on shipping. It would be easily possible for Cottage Grove to sign up sufficient hens to get a receiving station here. A series of meetings were held yesterday in Junction City. A meeting will be held in Eugene today noon. A meeting will be held in Creswell this afternoon and the speakers will come on here for an evening meeting. The poultry association has been very successful during the past year, according to E. J. Dixon, state manager. Eggs are marketed in Oregon and in the east and at present there is a strong demand for pullet eggs in the eastern states. Members of the association agree to market all the eggs they produce through the association, with the exception of those used for hatching or used on the farm. The movement is strongly supported by Governor Pierce, the extension division of the Oregon Agricultural college and the farmers' union.

WOODSON BUYS SERVICE STATION

JOHN NOKES WOULD SWAP FALSE TEETH FOR WIG OF ANY BRIGHT RED COLOR

Set of false teeth to trade for wig. The above is copy for a wanted which John Nokes has asked to have inserted. The teeth are in good condition and have never failed once in 50 years to perform their duty when called upon. They are No. 6 1/2 on an EE last. Mr. Nokes will have them fixed to fit the mouth of the person taking them, provided that the person trading the wig does the same with the wig—rather, has the wig fixed to fit Mr. Nokes' burnished dome. Mr. Nokes gives no reason for wishing to dispose of the teeth, but Mrs. Nokes states that the wig may be of any color just so it is bright red. He wishes to have it harmonize with what his wife is likely to say to him when she learns what he is about to do.

COTTAGE GROVE TURNS IN $70 FROM SALE OF SEALS

Cottage Grove put over successfully the sale of Red Cross seals, about $70 being realized. The Tuesday Evening Study club had charge of this work, but the corps of teachers, the students in the schools and others in the city cooperated. The money received from the sale of seals is used to help combat tuberculosis. In the 15 years that this work has been carried on a great decrease has been noted in the white plague.

STORE FRONT IN EUGENE COLLAPSES DUE TO WIND

The entire front of a frame store building on Eighth avenue west in Eugene, opposite the St. Francis apartment hotel, crashed into the street Christmas day when it was torn loose from the roof and side walls by the gale. HEARING ON SAGINAW CROSSING BELL IS HELD HERE

Assistant Engineer Admits Danger Is Sufficient for Serious Consideration.

The public service commission held a hearing here on Thursday last upon the petition for a crossing bell at the Saginaw crossing into Delight Valley. J. A. Jell, who recently narrowly escaped death in an accident at the crossing, C. H. Haight, A. W. Cornutt and other residents of the valley testified to the danger of the crossing. A. W. Kime, C. E. Frost, N. J. Nelson Jr. and Elbert Bede, residents of the city, were also called as witnesses. The testimony was to the effect that a view of the track to the south on the east side of the track is obscured by a growth of willows extending to Saginaw station and that the road from the east approaches the track upon a rather stiff grade. The testimony showed that from the west the greatest danger is because of the curve around the hill to the north. The representatives of the Southern Pacific endeavored to show that were the road widened and a level grade given from the covered bridge to the railroad crossing the danger would be practically eliminated. Those who use the crossing admitted that this would remove a large part of the danger of the east approach. Mr. Othus, witness for the Southern Pacific and one of its assistant engineers, admitted that were he facing 20 additional crossing bells he would give this crossing serious consideration. The commission's decision may not be made for some time. T. K. Campbell, former resident, was the only commissioner present. He was accompanied by Herbert Hauser, reporter for the commission. The Southern Pacific was represented by Paul P. Farrons, attorney; Fred Feikert, assistant division engineer, and P. M. Othus, assistant engineer.

GUN CLUB'S ANNUAL SHOOT PROVES BIG DRAWING CARD

The annual shoot of the Cottage Grove gun club held Sunday at the club traps on south Sixth street was the magnet which attracted many of the scatter gun stars from many valley points. Some fine cards were turned in and about 100 Christmas birds were distributed. The club, which is now in a thriving condition, will start its trophy series of shoots in the near future. A feature of these which will increase the interest of the amateur members is the division of the entries into three classes, according to their abilities as marksmen, a cup to be awarded to the winner in each class. The series will extend over a period of several weeks. Woodson Buys Service Station. C. R. Woodson, father of the Woodson brothers, has purchased the Harklerod service station north of the city. Set of false teeth to trade for wig. The above is copy for a wanted which John Nokes has asked to have inserted. The teeth are in good condition and have never failed once in 50 years to perform their duty when called upon. They are No. 6 1/2 on an EE last. Mr. Nokes will have them fixed to fit the mouth of the person taking them, provided that the person trading the wig does the same with the wig—rather, has the wig fixed to fit Mr. Nokes' burnished dome. Mr. Nokes gives no reason for wishing to dispose of the teeth, but Mrs. Nokes states that the wig may be of any color just so it is bright red. He wishes to have it harmonize with what his wife is likely to say to him when she learns what he is about to do.
