The marriage of Miss Lenora Hohl to F. L. Langston was solemnized Wednesday at a beautiful and quiet wedding at the home of Father Curley in Eugene. Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Darland, of Eugene, were present at the ceremony. Mrs.

Darland is a sister of the bride. Following the wedding a dinner was served at the Darland home to the bridal pair and relatives. The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent socially. The bride is a daughter of Mrs. Barbara Hohl and is well known in this city. She has been employed at the telephone exchange for the past four years. Mr. Langston is from Detroit, Mich., but is employed here at the present. Mr. and Mrs. Langston returned to this city Wednesday evening and plan to make their home here for a while.

Mrs. J. A. Wright entertained twelve young couples Tuesday evening of last week honoring and completely surprising her son, Gordon, the occasion being his eighteenth birthday anniversary. The rooms were most attractive with holiday trimmings. The Christmas idea was uniquely carried out in the refreshments, the ice cream having a small Christmas tree design molded in the center. Cake and punch were also served. Games and music were the entertainment for the evening hours. A gold fountain pen was presented to the honor guest.

Mrs. G. B. Pitcher entertained the little girls of her Sunday school class of the Presbyterian church with a Christmas party Saturday afternoon. A large and beautifully decorated tree adorned one corner of the room. Each guest was presented with a gift. Dainty refreshments were served. Those to enjoy the merry affair were Mabel Blackmore, Lois Gunter, Viola Kohde, Mildred Robbins, Anita Holdeman, Alice Allison and Adeline Adams.

Employees of the local exchange of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph company enjoyed a Christmas tree in the telephone office Christmas eve. The tree was prettily decorated and loaded with beautiful gifts. None but employees was present.

Mrs. Harry Grube was hostess for the Social Twelve club at their Christmas meeting. The dining room was made most attractive with Christmas decorations. A huge, artistically decorated, lighted tree adorned one corner of the room. At the table the holiday effect was carried out by a large bouquet of holly in the center and a pretty Christmas favor at each place. A delicious two-course luncheon was served. A short program helped to furnish entertainment for the afternoon. Mrs. Schofield Stewart assisted her mother, Mrs. Grube.

Mrs. Sarah Kerr and Mrs. G. B. Pitcher had as guests during the holidays Mrs. Mary McNeil, of Sunnydale, Calif., Mrs. Lena Colburn, of Spokane, Wash., and Mrs. Edna Sullivan, of Eugene. All are daughters of Mrs. Kerr and sisters of Mrs. Pitcher.

The Presbyterian missionary society held a meeting yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred Wright.

The Mothers' club will hold their regular meeting January 5. The annual election of officers will be held January 19. Refreshments will be served.

Miss Mabel Hastings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Hastings, and David Tyrer, son of Mrs. Harvey Allen, were married Christmas day at the home of the officiating minister, J. E. Carlson. The couple will make their home in this city.

At the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Hanna, on Christmas day, Miss Beniah Fay Hanna and James Albert Rentle were united in marriage, J. E. Carlson reading the service. The bridal pair were attended by Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Smith, brother-in-law and sister of the bride. Only immediate relatives were present. Mrs. Rentle is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Hanna and Mr. Rentle is a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Rentle, all of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Rentle will make their home here.

The Jolly club held a dance in Phillips hall Christmas night.

Ray Westley Suter and Miss Pearl McCollum, both of this city, were married Saturday at the Christian church parsonage in Eugene, E. V. Stivers officiating.

Chalise Ward, of Dorena, and Alice Bradford, of this city, were married Monday in Eugene, Judge Jesse G. Wells officiating.

Clarence Yates, of this city, and Miss Winona Wenn, of Eugene, were married Monday in Eugene at the home of Mrs. L. J. Morton, Rev. E. L. Winterberger officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Ostrander entertained at Christmas dinner the following: Mrs. Anna Hall and son Charles and Edd Jenks, of this city; Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Williams and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Spencer, of Eugene. Mrs. Spencer is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ostrander.

Guests at the G. W. McQueen home Christmas day were Mr. and Mrs. Jess Griffin and Hal and Clyde Honeycutt, of Eugene; Mrs. Arthur Small, of Roseburg; Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Potts and daughter, Miss Myrtle, and Elmer Neet.

The H. D. S. will hold a watch party next Monday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Hellwell.

Miss Clara Milne will be hostess for the Toujours Prete club next Wednesday evening.

Mrs. Fred Wright entertained the womens' missionary society of the Presbyterian church at her home yesterday afternoon.

The M. P. G. club will meet next Tuesday with Mrs. O. L. Nichols.

Mrs. Karl K. Mills has as house guests this week her mother and sister, Mrs. Sophronia Howe and Miss Lola Howe and Mrs. Ida Stuard, all of Eugene.

Mrs. Marvin Smith will entertain the S. T. S. club next Wednesday afternoon.
