SOCIETY

Eugene Register: Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Jones entertained with a pretty Christmas day dinner at their home, having a gayly lighted tree and a table decked with holly and mistletoe as added features. Members of their two families made up the party, which included Mr. and Mrs. Charles VanDenburg, of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Chester Van Denburg, of Yacolt, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Neet, of Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jones and daughter and son Frances and Robert, of Cottage Grove, and George Roberts and Marie, Inez and Robert Jones, all of Eugene.

The LaComus club held a New Year's reception at the home of Mrs. G. B. Picher Tuesday afternoon. Red carnations and potted plants furnished the decorations for the room. Each tea table was made most attractive with a bouquet of the red carnations. Two hundred invitations were issued for the affair.

Miss Thelma Jordan, of this city, and Clyde O'Neal, of Raymond, Wash., were united in marriage Sunday at the home of the officiating minister, J. H. Ebert. Miss Jordan had been employed at Umphrey & Mackin's. The couple left Sunday evening by motor for Raymond, where they will make their home.

The American Legion auxiliary met Saturday evening at the home of Mrs. C. C. Cruson. The following officers were elected: Mrs. C. C. Cruson, president; Mrs. W. H. Daugherty, vice president; Mrs. D. O. Byrne, re-elected secretary, and Mrs. E. L. Stewart, treasurer. At the close of the evening a no-hostess dinner was served.

The H. D. S. club held a watch night party New Year's eve at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Helliwell. Five hundred was the diversion. Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Nelson Jr. were invited guests of the club. Delightful refreshments were served at a late hour.

The occasion being Miss Lillian's twelfth birthday anniversary, her mother, Mrs. Harry Culver, entertained a few of Miss Lillian's friends last Saturday for an afternoon of games and play. Dainty refreshments were served.

Sidney A. Hickox, of this city, and Miss Charlotte Thompson, of Bandon, were married December 22 at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Harold Leep, in Bandon. The couple have returned here to make their home at Woodard's mill.

Mrs. B. R. Job will entertain the members of the Social Twelve club this afternoon. Mrs. C. O'Neil, sister of Mrs. Homer Galloway, who is visiting at the Galloway home, is to be an invited guest of the club.

A number of families held a covered dish supper Tuesday evening at the S. L. Mackin home. Others present were the Umphrey, Nelson, Durham, O. M. Moore, Richmond and Buell families.

The Presbyterian ladies' aid will meet Wednesday, January 9, in the church parlors with Mrs. E. C. Shay, Mrs. VanOsdol, Mrs. Wyatt and Mrs. Connell as hostesses.

The Toujours Prete club postponed its meeting from last evening to next Wednesday evening, at which time they will meet at the home of Miss Clara Milne.

The Constellation club will meet next Thursday, January 10, in Masonic temple with Mrs. H. B. Griggs, Mrs. Earl Hill and Mrs. W. J. Woods as hostesses.

Mrs. Marvin Smith entertained the S. T. S. club yesterday afternoon. The afternoon was pleasantly spent socially. Delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. T. G. Sudtall will be hostess for the members of the Tuesday bridge club at a 1 o'clock luncheon next Tuesday.

The Jolly club held a dance New Year's eve in Phillips hall. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. O. L. Nichols will entertain the M. P. G. club members next Tuesday afternoon.

The Baptist ladies' aid society met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. E. R. Clevenger.

The Tuesday Evening club will meet January 8 with Mrs. J. H. Chambers.

The Joker club will meet tomorrow evening at the home of Mrs. C. E. Frost.

The Tanglefoot club will meet next Tuesday in Phillips hall.

The Tillicum club met last evening with Mrs. C. H. Stevens.

Woman smiles and says nothing as man expatiates upon the superiority of the male over the female—that's the way the woman proves her superiority.

A person isn't a Christian because he merely refrains from doing wrong.

The Missouri young lady who has succeeded in trisecting an angle, and says she can solve the perpetual motion problem, probably couldn't divide $80 a month so as to supply a multiplying family and leave a remainder.

The only thing sweeter than a sweetheart is the little tot made in her image that comes in after years to soo and play, toddle and talk and cause you to muse upon the mysteries of life.

A self-made man can't kick about the material used in his make-up.

The man with music in his soul seldom worries about the staff of life.

Somehow good luck never gets around to those who set out to wait for it.

The man who was once a boy hasn't the heart to refuse to take time to take his own boy to the circus.

The music of the home does not strike one as quite so poetic when the kids begin tuning up during the wee sma' hours.

Size is pretty much a matter of inverse perspective. A great man is never overly large to his intimates.

After winning a girl's whole heart a man shouldn't make half-hearted love.

If Opportunity doesn't stop at your house, hide in the corner of the door and knock it on the head when it goes by.

The man who falls from grace may be merely taking a tumble to himself.

Language was made to conceal thought. Some people are keeping a lot of things to themselves.

The man who boats up his rival in an attempt to win a wife can hardly qualify as angelic and sweet-tempered.

Hard luck never fusses very long around the man with a determination to get there anyway.

The person who never says anything worth remembering will escape much criticism.

A person who sacrifices himself to leave the fruits of his toil to posterity is making two mistakes. He is not getting the enjoyment of life that he is entitled to and would appreciate and is giving them to those not entitled to them and who can not fully appreciate them.

What's the use of saying you won't stand a certain thing when you know full well you will have to.

A man just naturally gets down on his knees to the girl he worships.

It is better to be a spoke in the wheel of progress than the driving power in a plant that is getting nowhere.

A model is not always to be patterned after.

1924 Is Here

Make it a part of your program for 1924 to do all in your power to Boost Cottage Grove and the industries on which it depends for its existence.

Keep your money in Cottage Grove by patronizing her business houses; they need you—you need them; they in turn will extend to you greater privileges and courtesies than you can obtain from any other source.

If we all pull together we can make life in Cottage Grove during 1924 a profitable and pleasant experience.

For Better and Greater Public Service

THE YEAR 1923 was a most active period for Mountain States Power Company. Increased population and industrial development have kept our organization busy constructing improvements to meet public demands.

MEASURED IN TERMS OF PUBLIC SERVICE, the Company in 1923, in the course of its activities

- Brought electric service to 2535 additional customers;
- Built 42 miles of new transmission and distributing lines;
- Began installation of additional generating equipment;
- Supplied 25.54 per cent more electric energy than in 1922.

DURING THE YEAR JUST CLOSED approximately 200 citizens were added to the number of customer-investors of the Company. Home investors supplied a substantial amount of new capital towards the cost of the construction of additions, extensions and improvements.

WE REGARD THE FUTURE of the progressive cities and towns and productive territories whose welfare is interwoven with our own, as most encouraging. Our plans for constructive progress essential to community advancement are based upon full belief in future growth and widely diffused prosperity.
