SOCIETY

A wedding of interest to the groom's friends in this city was the ceremony of New Year's evening in Glenwood Springs, Colo., uniting Miss Thelma Geigle and Darrel Hinkle. Mr. and Mrs. Hinkle came to Cottage Grove at once, arriving here Saturday morning, and are at home to their friends at the home of Mr. Hinkle's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Harrel. Upon leaving here the couple are planning to take a trip down through California, taking the boat from San Francisco to Los Angeles, then going to El Paso, Tex., and from there down into Mexico. Upon their return they will make their home in Colorado. Mr. Hinkle graduated from the Cottage Grove high school. A welcome reception was given by his former schoolmates to Mr. Hinkle and his bride Saturday evening.

The Epworth league of the Methodist church held an avoirdupois social Friday evening in the church parlors. Refreshments of hot hamburger sandwiches, hot chocolate and cake were furnished by the girls. Each boy had to pay one-half cent for each pound on the weight of the girl he had chosen for a partner.

The Reader Buys What He Reads About— Every Reader Is a Buyer

¶ When he sees in a store an article which he has read about it is familiar, friendly—he is half sold already.

¶ The dealer likes to sell advertised goods—because they're easier to sell. No costly waste of time and sales effort in telling the customer about them.

¶ If the dealer can sell advertised goods easier because his customers have read about them, it stands to reason that he can sell other goods easier if he describes them to the readers of his trade territory.

Montana. They will be married there and after a brief honeymoon trip will make their home in Portland.

"Do Rats Talk to Each Other?" Asks Mr. M. Batty, R. I.

"I got five cakes of Rat-Snap and threw pieces around feed store. Got about half a dozen dead rats a day for two solid weeks. Suddenly, they got fewer. Now we haven't any. Who told them about Rat-Snap? Rats dry up and leave no smell. Three mice, 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by KEM'S FOR DRUGS.
