

Cottage Grove Sentinel
A Weekly Newspaper With Plenty of Backbone

Bede & Smith, Publishers
Albert Bede, Editor

A first-class publication entered at Cottage Grove as second-class matter Business Office—55 North Sixth

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
One year—$2.25 Three months 65c
Six months—1.15 Single copy— 5c

Member of National Editorial Association
Oregon State Editorial Association
Oregon Newspaper Conference
Lane County Publishers' Association

THURSDAY, JANUARY 31, 1924

CURFEW SHALL RING AGAIN.

The pendulum has started to swing backward. The younger generation has exhibited its initiative and has run as ragged, with the hoast that something much better would come of youngsters that knew no restraint than from youngsters that were reared as was the generation that is grown. The hoast has not been fulfilled and it has become plain that permitting youngsters to roam the streets at will and to set their own hours for seeking the home fireside has proved the worst kind of a fizzle. The older generation is again taking things in hand and the ambitious youngsters who would give us a taste of the new jazz life are to be restrained.

Curfew laws are again being enforced. Cottage Grove put its into effect some time ago. Now Portland follows suit. The judge of the juvenile court in Portland has stated that the law will be enforced to the letter and that children unattended by parent or guardian will not be permitted on the streets after 9 o'clock. No special permits will be issued to any, he says. It will be up to parents to see that their children are attended or that they are off the streets.

The enforcing of the law will be of benefit, no doubt, to the chil-

Why do men tip their hats?

—because when they used to wear armor, they thought it safe to remove the helmet when talking with a friend. This action, a compliment, passed into our custom of raising the hat. Customers compliment us on because they gain from them safe relief from colds, gripe and headache.

Puretest ASPIRIN TABLETS

Absolutely true aspirin, tablets so skillfully made that their beneficial action begins in 15 seconds. Highest purity, never irritate or burn.

One of 200 Puretest preparations. Every item the best that skill and conscience can produce.

Kem's for Drugs
The Rexall Drug Store

One-third Off
REGULAR PRICE IN A CLEAN-UP SALE OF ODDS AND ENDS OF HIGH GRADE
Box Stationery
BEGINNING SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 2
ENDING SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9

DOUBLE KEYS

will be allowed on purchases of sale stationery. More keys and more paper for less money—it's worth while.

KEM'S for DRUGS
C. J. Kem Prop. Cottage Grove 6th and Main dren, but its greatest force for good may be in reminding some parents that they have children to whom they must give attention. Enforcing the curfew law is not going to be popular with some children, nor with some parents, but the chances are that its enforcement will spread and that we will in the future have less jazz and more of the things that will be of some value to our future men and women.

It's about time that something like this happened, which will be admitted by many of the youngsters who merely wanted to be doing what others will be doing.

It is even possible that public sentiment will take such a turn that it will demand that cigarettes be refused to school children. In these jazz days children who wish them seem to have no difficulty in getting them and very few parents of children who smoke the pills seem to care, for no effort is being made to have the law enforced which prohibits selling or giving cigarettes to minors.

BRAINS NOT MADE IN GERMANY.

A few days ago national guard officers of Multnomah county refused to wear government insignia which bore the trademark that once added to the value of goods, "Made in Germany."

Now what do you think of that? Here is our government patronizing a foreign country for goods that could be made as well or better at home.

Those whom we recently defeated by force of arms are now making insignias for the army clothes of those who defeated them.

Our guardsmen were asked to wear goods made by those whom they never considered a fair enemy.

No wonder Germany lost the war, if it showed no more common sense than it does now.

It was a thick-skulled idiot when it thought the Americans wouldn't fight. It is as thick-skulled now when it thinks American soldiers will wear the "Made-in-Germany" hoast on its clothing. If German manufacturers were at all keen of intellect they would for many years leave that "Made-in-Germany" stamp off of any products which they wish to dispose of in countries of their former enemies, or which the government may wish to use in paying its reparations account.

Evidently brains are not made in Germany.

In the little town of Bethlehem, the birthplace of the Savior, American relief is caring for nearly 100 children who celebrated Christmas in an orphanage there; in Nazareth, where the Savior spent most of his life, nearly 100 children are being trained as carpenters through American relief funds, the shop in which the work is done being across the street from the reputed shop of Joseph and Jesus.

The Savior, who said "Suffer little children to come unto me," must look with satisfaction upon this great and good work being carried forward in the vicinity where he spoke those words.

Eugene Register: The other night the University of Oregon and the University of Idaho held an important debate and the Register received not a single call for information as to the result. The next night there was an insignificant basketball game and this office was swamped with requests for the score. Possibly that helps to explain why athletic coaches get more pay than college presidents.

Money Wasted.
When the doctor arrived he found the patient in tears.
"Cheer up, my good man," he said, "you'll pull through all right."
"Tisn't that, doc," groaned the patient; "but just think of the money I've spent buying apples to keep you away."—Harvard Lampoon.

Impossible.
Prof: You should think of the future.
Youth: I can't. It's my girl's birthday and I've got to think of the present.

Most folks think they could run a newspaper—but most of them are wise enough not to try it.

Human beings are said to emit a certain amount of light. In the olden days of witchcraft they used to make torches out of the human body.

An Indiana cigaret fiend is not sensitive to the pricking of needles and pins. Needles and pins have no terrors to the person who does not recoil from coffin nails.

Folks talk so much about woman refusing to tell her age—but how many men do you know who will tell their ages right off the bat with no hemming and hawing?

A Duluth clergyman says modern man is an improvement upon Adam. Old Adam must have been a monkey, sure enough!

The man who can express himself emphatically without the use of profanity usually has a pretty good-sized vocabulary.

When you meet a man who has had both eyes blackened, be careful how you advise him to look for the silver lining.

The writer who says the hoochi koochi dance is not refined is pretty nearly stating the naked truth.

"Star ball player wins bride," says a daily. The bride-to-be should bear in mind that a star player doesn't win many laurels hanging around "home."

We presume hay fever is a disease peculiar to grass widows.

THINGS WE THINK
Things Others Think and What We Think of the Things Others Think

Men and women do not use so many superlatives after they have been married a year.

A dark brown taste in the mouth is never done in water colors.

Many a successful man has become so from making use of the ideas of those who were afraid to try them out for themselves.

We would rather be handed hot air any day than given the cold shoulder.

The makings of a cigarette are often the unmaking of the user.

Some sinners who refuse to give up their street car seats to ladies may be glad to get standing room in heaven.

We did not suppose there was anything to make living in Russia attractive until reading the other day that they send book agents to Siberia.

A woman who wouldn't wear a last year's hat to save herself from purgatory is just perverse enough to marry a man who couldn't buy her a new hat if it would keep her out of purgatory.

It takes a lot of clothes to court and marry a girl. First, you have to pay suit, then you have to suit her, and you have to address her papa in language clothed with diplomatic verbiage. Then you have to have a wedding suit, and if you find you are unsuited you get a law suit.

Two cat clubs have gotten into a scrap over the use of the name "Cat Club" which both have appropriated. We suggest that the matter be referred to the kennel club for adjudication.

Many men act as if they were "so many" that we should think their wives would feel as if they had committed bigamy.

Politics is a disease, says a learned doctor. The only cure is to make the patient a veriform appendix to some job.

Frogs make good bass bait, but the human croaker attracts nothing but suckers.

We wouldn't object to Rockefeller pouring oil upon the waters if he didn't turn around and palm the mixture off for gasoline.

All who give up meat during Lent this year will find on balancing their bank account that the Lord has duly rewarded them for the sacrifice.

Music hath charms to soothe the savage breast—or to bring out the savage in the ordinary peaceable citizen.

Your sins may not find you out—but you will never lose sight of them.

There are a lot of things we want to know that we're better off for not knowing.

The sensationalists are right. Armies of Japanese are coming to this country—and are solving the servant problem.

Chief Justice Taft has a double, the news dispatches say. Well, there's enough of him for two, anyway.

Some politicians make their mark—but the voter makes the one that really counts.

It's peculiar that we can't get advice from those from whom we would appreciate it and always get it from those from whom we don't want it.

Silence is golden, they say. Some folks have been well paid for keeping quiet, we must admit.

An Iowa girl secured a husband by a message written on an egg. Even matrimony is becoming somewhat of a shell game.

Human beings are said to emit a certain amount of light. In the olden days of witchcraft they used to make torches out of the human body.

An Indiana cigaret fiend is not sensitive to the pricking of needles and pins. Needles and pins have no terrors to the person who does not recoil from coffin nails.

Folks talk so much about woman refusing to tell her age—but how many men do you know who will tell their ages right off the bat with no hemming and hawing?

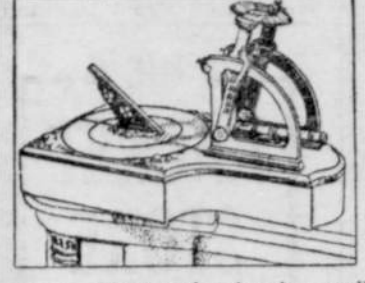

A Duluth clergyman says modern man is an improvement upon Adam. Old Adam must have been a monkey, sure enough!

The man who can express himself emphatically without the use of profanity usually has a pretty good-sized vocabulary.

What the World Is Doing
(Popular Mechanics Magazine.)

Sun's Rays Make Alarm Clock of Cannon

Sunlight is called upon to inform the residents of a community in southern Europe when high noon has arrived, by setting off the charge in a cannon. Fixed to the piece is a small lens that focuses the rays on the touchhole of the gun in such a way that they do not reach the powder until the sun's position is directly in line with a tiny opening. The supports of the "alarm" are arranged to adjust it to the light beams at the same time every day of the year. Often the device fails to work because of cloudy skies that prevent sufficient heat from reaching it to ignite the explosive. The hours are indicated on a clocklike dial.

Greyhound Is Speed Demon of Animal Kingdom

Through a series of recently completed tests, the speediest animals are reported to have been determined as follows: the greyhound, race horse, prong-horned antelope, hare, Texas jackrabbit, common fox, coyote, fox-hound and gray wolf. The records were made by noting the number of bounds made by each animal in a given space of time, by means of a stop watch, and then measuring the length of the leap. The greyhound, it was ascertained, can travel a short distance at 35 miles an hour, about four miles an hour faster than the hare. None of those studied, however, can keep up their speed for any considerable distance, although the fox and wolf can beat either the greyhound or race horse in this respect.

of the moving "shelves" can be pushed to the passageways for loading and returned to position in a few moments. Owing to the ease with which they can be moved, hand power alone is required. Attendants are also relieved of the trouble of manipulating cars to guide them into stalls of crowded garages.

A Novel Dairy Farm

Milking and feeding go together, and therefore provision should be made to milk and feed at the same time. A novel dairy barn, which is arranged to permit this, is shown in the drawing.

The hay manger is located above the heads of the cows so that they have to reach up a trifle to pull the hay out; the bottom has a row of 1/2-in. iron bars to allow this. A hay manger of this type has the advantage of containing enough hay to last the cows for a number of days. The trap door of the hay manger hangs outward on chains and can be pushed back into vertical position whenever necessary, as in cold or stormy weather.

The grain manger is of the ordinary type, except that it is much larger and also lower. Both mangers can be filled from the outside, from a wagon or truck, the surplus hay being temporarily stored on the roof, ready to be raked into the manger when needed.

Another interesting feature of this dairy barn is the chain cow tie, which is an improvement on the stanchions usually used, as the cows have greater freedom to move their heads around, the bars permitting the chain to be moved up and down, but preventing the cows from moving backward.

The Seat of the Trouble.
Instructor: Now, that's no way to ride. You are standing erect in your stirrups. You sat in the saddle correctly yesterday.

Pupil: Yes, I did yesterday. And that's why I'm sitting like this today.

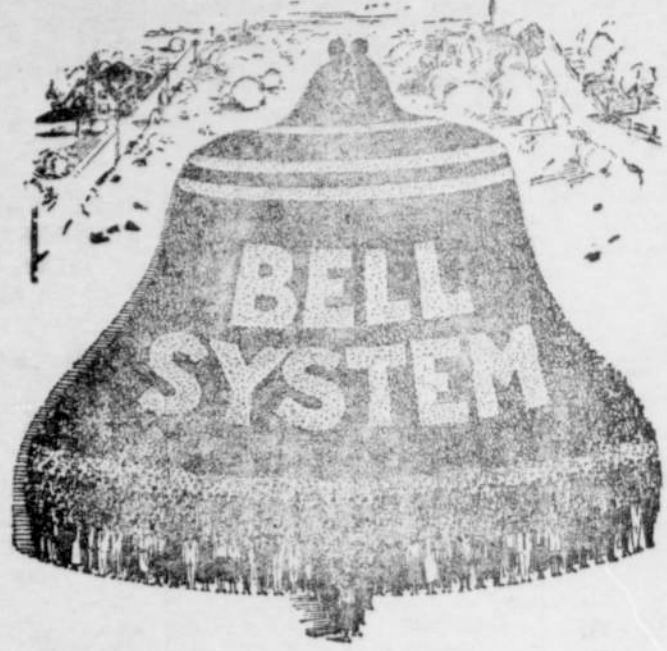

Randy Riddle Says:
What is it every burglar takes first when he enters a house?
Answer: A chance.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

In the matter of the estate of Mary Alice DesLarzes, deceased. Notice is hereby given that Elmer Roy DesLarzes has been by the County Court of the State of Oregon in and for Lane County, Oregon, appointed administrator of the estate of Mary Alice DesLarzes, deceased, and that all persons having claims against said estate are notified to present the same duly verified to the said administrator at Cottage Grove, Oregon, within six months from the 3rd day of January, 1924.

ELMER ROY DESLARZES, Administrator of the estate of Mary Alice DesLarzes, deceased.

H. J. SHINN, Attorney for Administrator. J3-31e

Giving the Telephone Life

WHEREVER your thought goes your voice may go. You can talk across the continent as if face to face. Your telephone is the latch to open for you any door in the land.

There must be the guardians of the wires to keep them vital with speech-carrying electrical currents. There must be those who watch the myriads of tiny switchboard lights and answer your commands. There must be technicians of every sort to construct, repair and operate.

A quarter of a million men and women are united to give nation-wide telephone service. With their brains and hands they make the Bell System live.

Bell System

One Policy · One System
Universal Service

And All Directed Towards
Better Service

The Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company

Maybe the Daily Dozen.
History lecturer: Can any of you tell me what makes the Tower of Pisa lean?
Fat girl in front row: I don't know or I would take some myself.

Casus Belli.
Johnny: Huh, I bet you didn't have a good time at your birthday party yesterday.
Willie: That's all you know about it.
Johnny: Then why ain't you sick today?

A Rat That Didn't Smell After Being Dead for Three Months.
"I wear it was dead three months," writes Mr. J. Sykes (N. J.). "I saw this rat every day: put some Rat-Snap behind a barrel. Months afterwards, my wife looked behind the barrel. There it was—dead! Rat-Snap sells in three sizes for 35c, 65c, $1.25. Sold and guaranteed by KEM'S FOR DRUGS."

It seems almost wrong for some people to be always right.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Forecasting A Tremendous Spring Demand

739,626

more Ford cars and trucks were produced last year than the previous year, an increase of over 50 per cent.

In spite of this tremendous increase in production, it was impossible to meet delivery requirements during the spring and summer months when orders for 350,000 Ford Cars and Trucks could not be filled.

This year winter buying for immediate delivery has been more active than ever before—and in addition 200,000 orders have already been booked through the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan for spring delivery.

These facts clearly indicate that the demand during this spring and summer will be far greater than ever, and that orders should be placed immediately with Ford Dealers as a means of protection against delay in securing your Ford Car or Truck or Fordson Tractor.

Ford Motor Company
Detroit, Michigan

A small deposit down, with easy payments of the balance arranged, or your enrollment under the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan, will put your order on the preferred list for spring delivery.

See the Nearest Authorized Ford Dealer