

ARCADE THEATER WEEKLY PROGRAM

Thu.-Fri., Feb. 21-22—"The Man Without a Country," with Arnold Daly and an all-star cast. The greatest American photo drama—a picture you will remember (not a war picture). Auspices Calvin Funk post American Legion. Admission, 25 and 50 cents.

Sat., Feb. 23—John Gilbert in "Just Off Broadway." Story by Frederick and Fanny Hatton. Drama of secret service and interesting love affair—with plenty of action. Comedy, "Monkey Farm," and educational.

Sun.-Mon., Feb. 24-25—"No Mother to Guide Her," with Genevieve Tobin. The glitter of wealth, palatial homes, beautiful women, worth a king's ransom, fast automobiles—contrast this with the shadow of poverty and all that is gripped in its outstretched claws. And a comedy, "Down to the Ships to See."

Tues., Feb. 26—"Soul of the Beast." Star, Madge Bellamy. A knockout for all the kids from six to sixty years of age. A circus story with an elephant that is unusually good. And a comedy.

Wed., Feb. 27—Pictures and comedy.
Thu., Feb. 28—Hoot Gibson in "The Ramblin' Kid." International News and "Felix, the Cat."

SOCIETY

The auxiliary of the American Legion were hostesses at a most successful benefit five hundred party given Wednesday evening of last week in Phillips hall. About 55 were present. The hall was decorated with a profusion of red hearts. The following musical program was given: Piano solo, Miss Elise Price; vocal solo, Mrs. Carl Witte; vocal solo, Mrs. Victor Kem; male quartet, Messrs. Caldwell, Matthews, Sanford and Wyatt; instrumental trio, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Webb and Mrs. Strauss. Refreshments were served. The auxiliary was assisted by the Toujours Prete club in the selling of tickets. From the proceeds one-third was given to the American Legion community house fund and the remainder was given to the hospital relief work for the families of disabled soldiers.

Mrs. C. E. Umphrey entertained the Foreign Missionary society of the Methodist church Wednesday afternoon of last week at its regular meeting. The rooms were most attractive with their valentine decorations. Mrs. J. H. Heard gave an interesting talk on Mexico. Mrs. John McCormick, who had charge of the mystery question box, had the answers written on red hearts, harmonizing with the room decorations. The remainder of the afternoon was spent pleasantly in social conversation. Dainty refreshments of tea and wafers were served. Invited guests for the afternoon were Mrs. F. L. Grant, Mrs. E. J. Gordon, Mrs. E. A. Jones, Mrs. Leon Harvey and Mrs. Ballew.

The local telephone girls were hostesses at a gay and charming valentine party given last Thursday evening at the apartments of Miss Juda Trunnell and Miss Mildred Dugan. The rooms were attractive with their St. Valentine decorations. A two-course dinner was served at 7 o'clock. The evening was pleasantly spent at card playing. Those present to enjoy the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cellers, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Langston, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Bentle, Miss Mildred Dugan, Miss Juda Trunnell, Miss Myrtle Potts, Alto and Ed Laebeke and Elmer Neet. Out of town guests were Miss Mildred Warner and George Penline, of Portland.

Planned in honor of her son Liam's birthday anniversary, Mrs. Charles F. Walker was hostess last Thursday evening to a group of young folks at a surprise valentine party. The rooms and table were most attractive with their valentine decorations. Dainty refreshments were served. Those invited were Laura and Alta Stewart, Nina Mitchell, Helen Ostrander, Helen Tower, Delta Hopper, Ruth Cooper, Thelma Sharpe, Melvin Coffman, George Brund, Neal Davidson, Clarence Applewhite, Joe Mitchell, Jenn Hopper and Otto Pitecher.

The Past Matrons' club met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. V. Allison. The rooms were most effectively decorated with pussy-willows. Mrs. F. H. Allison, an invited guest for the afternoon, favored the club with a piano solo. A business meeting was held, after which the remainder of the afternoon was pleasantly spent socially. A delicious two-course luncheon was served. The table was most attractive, being centered with a huge bouquet of violets.

A congenial party of friends met Friday evening at the Arby Harrington home to observe the twenty-first wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Harrington. The evening was spent in social conversation. Refreshments were served. Those present to enjoy the affair were the Henry Rohde family, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hamloth, the Charles McKibben family, the Vernon Hazen family and Mr. and Mrs. Brown.

Mrs. Roy Short entertained the M. P. G. club Tuesday afternoon. Suggestive of Washington's birthday anniversary in every detail were the room and table decorations, carried out most effectively in red, white and blue colors. A most delicious luncheon was served. The club will hold its next meeting March 4 with Mrs. Elbert Smith.

The Tuesday Evening Study club will meet next week at the home of Mrs. C. E. Umphrey, with Mrs. Umphrey and Mrs. Charles Adams as leaders. This club has raised $29.50 for the Oregon student loan fund with the assistance of the Social Twelve, M. P. G., S. T. S., Tuesday Bridge and Toujours Prete clubs.

Miss Irene Griggs entertained at dinner Friday evening Mrs. E. L. Stewart's Sunday school class of the Presbyterian church, of which Miss Griggs is a member. The table was most artistic in its valentine appointments. The rooms were also decorated with St. Valentine's trimmings. About twelve members were present.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Kem entertained the H. D. S. club Friday evening. Five hundred was the diversion, high score being secured by Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Dickson. Delicious refreshments were served. The club will hold its next meeting February 29 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Titus.

The Tanglefoot club will hold a dance Tuesday evening in Phillips hall, with Mrs. E. T. Blakely, Mrs. Georg Bjorset, Mrs. Merville Vantch, Mrs. Carl Witte, Mrs. W. A. Garoutte, Mrs. W. H. Daugherty, Mrs. A. C. Jewell, Mrs. H. W. Titus, Mrs. W. W. McFarland and Mrs. Pete Beaulieu as hostesses.

The W. O. W. lodge will hold their annual roll call meeting tomorrow evening. Following the business meeting an entertaining program will be given and this will be followed with refreshments.

The Tillicum club met Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. C. A. Kurze. Five hundred was the evening diversion. Delightful refreshments were served. Invited guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Titus, Mrs. E. W. Ames, Mrs. W. F. Kurze and Mrs. Carrie Hemmenway.

Miss Mary Moon Shireliffe celebrated her ninth birthday anniversary most merrily last Thursday, as her mother had invited a number of her playmates in for an afternoon of games and play. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Tuesday Bridge club will observe their third birthday anniversary tomorrow at a 1 o'clock luncheon at the home of Mrs. C. S. Roberts. The election of officers will be held, after which the hours will be spent at bridge.

The American Legion auxiliary will give a benefit dance next Friday evening at the armory, immediately following the basket ball game which is to be played here that evening between the local and Eugene high schools.

The women's relief corps will hold exercises in remembrance of George Washington and Abraham Lincoln, whose birthday anniversaries come in this month, Saturday afternoon in L. O. O. F. hall.

The Mothers' club held their regular meeting Saturday afternoon in the rest room. The club is contemplating having a phone installed in the rest room and have an information bureau there.

H. W. Titus and W. E. Lebow attended a meeting and banquet of the Southern Willamette Dental society held Saturday night at Osburn hotel, Eugene.

Mrs. C. E. Umphrey, Mrs. D. H. Hemenway and Mrs. Bert Trask will entertain the Constellation club this afternoon in the banquet room of Masonic temple.

The past matrons and past patrons of the Eastern Star will entertain tomorrow evening at the regular meeting of the chapter.

The LaComus club will meet next Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Knox.

Mrs. Georg Bjorset will be hostess for the S. T. S. club Tuesday afternoon at her home.

The Social Twelve club will meet next Thursday afternoon with Mrs. J. A. Wright.

The Jolly club will hold their regular dance tomorrow evening in Phillips hall.

The Kensington club will hold their regular meeting tomorrow afternoon.

The Kensington club gave a pie social last evening in L. O. O. F. hall.

100,000 People Praise Tanlac For Its Merit

World's Greatest Tonic Is Endorsed by People Grateful for the Relief It Has Given Them.

Actuated by a deep sense of gratitude and desire to help their suffering neighbors, more than 100,000 well known men and women have offered their personal experiences as proof of the wonderful health giving powers of TANLAC, the world's Greatest Tonic.

Throughout each and everyone of this long list of testimonials rings the spirit of earnest sincerity which characterizes the following excerpts:

Mrs. D. J. Pritchard, Cleveland, Ohio: "People wanting to know what TANLAC will do may communicate with me. It increased my weight 32 lbs. and brought me the very help I longed for."

J. H. Taylor, Memphis, Tenn.: "To me TANLAC was just like a good friend—gave me help when I needed help most."

Mrs. Mary Schumaker, Racine, Wis.: "Every year at the change of seasons a course of TANLAC makes me eat with a relish, restores my strength and leaves me in splendid health."

Judge George P. Wagners, Police Magistrate, Belleville, Ill.: "That I am enjoying such fine health now I can attribute only to the help I received from TANLAC."

Mrs. C. K. Sellers, Springfield, Mo.: "Since taking TANLAC I enjoy the blessing of perfect health and have the complexion of a school girl."

E. Ferry, age 73, Seattle, Wash.: "TANLAC built my weight up 21 lbs., rid me of fifteen years stomach trouble and left me feeling many years younger."

Alta King Declines to Run. Eugene Register: Quite a number of people in Eugene and in other sections of the county have requested Alta King, former city recorder and police judge, now operating a collection agency here, to accept the democratic nomination for district attorney, but he said yesterday that he has no intention of quitting his business to accept a political office.

"I quit the recorder's office in order that I might establish a business for myself," said Mr. King, "and I haven't the remotest idea of giving up my business for a lot of grief which I know is attached to the office of district attorney."
