Delicious refreshments were served. Children who were present were Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Dye and their children, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Artie Sneed, of Springfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Allen and children, of Latham. Other invited guests were the George Cox family, of Springfield, and Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Forward, Mr. and Mrs. Marks and the Henry Rohde family, of this city.

Miss Agnes Galdabini, of this city, and I. A. Barker, of Drain, were married Saturday in Portland at the home of a cousin of the groom. The bride's home is at Anlauf, but she has been employed here for over a year in the dining room at Hotel Bartell and is well known among the young set. Mr. Barker is a chemist student in the Northwestern Pacific college, from which he will be graduated in June. Mrs. Barker will continue with her employment here until that time, when they will make their home in Portland.

Mrs. O. W. Blackmore entertained a group of little folks Tuesday afternoon with a surprise party in honor of two of her children, Mabel and Norman. The hours were merrily spent at games and play. Refreshments were served. The small guests were Katherine Young, Marguerite Wirth, Ila Cooley, Lucile Coffman, Mrs. Wheeler, Lilly and Verna Culver, Georgetta Knowles, Willis Beidler, Millard and Rex McFarland and Orval, Lester and Maud Blackmore.

The next meeting will be held March 14 with Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Byrne.

The C. G. H. S. girls' basketball squad entertained at dinner Saturday evening in the upstairs of the high school building, the guests being the Grants Pass high school girls' basketball team, who played here that evening, together with their chaperon, Miss Moore, and their coach, Mr. Brown. The girls had three tables cleverly placed so as to form the letter "C." Large bouquets of spring flowers centered each table, making them quite attractive. Small basketballs served as unique place cards.

Delightful was the bridge party on Saturday afternoon when Mrs. Schofield Stewart was hostess to the Tuesday Bridge club, in compliment to Mrs. E. E. Schmidt, formerly of this city but now of Portland, who is visiting at the Stewart home and who is a former member of the club. King Edward daffodils adorned the rooms. Prizes were given to Mrs. E. E. Schmidt, honor guest; to Mrs. N. J. Nelson Jr. for high score and to Mrs. W. H. Daugherty for low score. Dainty refreshments were served.

Divide Society.
A card party was held Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Lewis. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. A. Solerstrom, and the Frank Chapman, George Altman, Nels Martin, E. L. McReynolds and Leo Dugan families.

Curtin Society.
A basket social will be held March 14 at the school house.

Bobbed Hair and Business.
When "sweet young things" began to bob their hair, a tremendous furor arose throughout the country, but nobody has heard the electrical appliance trade holler very loud about the new fad. The reason is that a survey of the situation indicates that bobbed hair has increased the sale of electric curling irons about 150 per cent.

Inducing an Alibi.
"Want to join the Legion, buddy?" asked a Legionnaire of a husky young man of about his own age.
"Can't; wasn't in the service."
"Why weren't you?" the veteran demanded.
"My intentions were good," was the rather reluctant rejoinder. "I went to a recruiting office where they put me in a room and told me to take my clothes off. A doctor walked up to me, looked at me kinda hard, and then thumped me on the chest. I wasn't in the habit of lettin' strangers get rough with me, so I thumped his chest—an' I didn't get out of the hospital until the war was over."—American Legion Weekly.

Then He Cashed In.
Leo—"Don't you like girls with brown eyes?"
Milton—"No, I like girls with green backs."

Question of Ownership.

Porter: Miss, your train is in.
Lady: My man, why do you say 'my' train when you know it belongs to the company?
Porter: Why do you say 'my' man, when you know I belong to my wife?

It Might Be.
Susie: Will you join me in a cup of tea?
Sammie: Ah, thank you, but wouldn't it be a bit crowded?

Father's System.
Master: What would your father pay if he owed the baker three pounds seven, the butcher four pounds nine and fivepence, the milkman—
Boy: Nothink, sir; 'e'd move.

Flavoring.

"Sugar?"
"No, thank you."
"Then what do you like with your tea?"
"Gossip."

Followed Directions.
"Why did you steal the pearl necklace from the jeweler's window?"
"Because it had on it 'Aval' yourself of this splendid opportunity, and I couldn't resist it."

The Sign of Food.
Diner: But this menu is in French.
Waiter: Quite so, sir, but the prices are in English, and that's all most of our customers read.—Pearson's Weekly (London).

Appropriate Propaganda.

Congressman Blather was a passenger on the steamship "Sieve," which was slowly sinking. The passengers were climbing into the lifeboats.
"Congressman," suggested a reporter aboard the ill-fated craft, "here's a chance for some publicity. If you cared—"
"You may quote me as saying," replied the statesman, "that I am heartily in favor of the back-to-the-land movement."—American Legion Weekly.

The Reason.
Teacher: Here you are, late again for your class. How do you account for all this tardiness?
Smith: Please sir, heredity. I am the son of the late John Smith.
