New Charge Against Young Men. Warren Wilkins and Stanley Thompson, arrested at Peoria, Linn county, three weeks ago while alleged to have been burglarizing a store, will be tried in Benton county for another crime instead of being tried at Albany, according to word received by Sheriff Fred G. Stieckel.

It is said that the two, who are now out on $1000 bail each, have confessed to possessing goods taken out of the Wilhelm store at Monroe. They deny stealing them, however.

The Benton county charge is possession of stolen property. Judge G. F. Skipworth, of Lane county, will sit on the case.

Wilhelm has declared he found a great quantity of the goods taken from his store after search had been made of the quarters occupied by the young men.
