

ONE MAN AND HIS TOWN

A man by himself is just one man. Multiply him by hundreds, thousands, millions and he becomes a town or city or nation. If he "gets on in the world," so will dozens or hundreds or thousands of his associates. If he fails, so will a greater or less number of others—for no one man can affect only himself by his actions.

Because of this fact of human nature, our bank exists to help our friends succeed. Any problem of finance put up to it is carefully considered and its best advice is freely given. You are invited to take advantage of this service.

BANK OF COTTAGE GROVE

Tales of the Town

Mrs. Charles Seiwel is a patient in a Eugene hospital.

Ren Sanford is spending two weeks at Roseburg, where he is decorating the lobby of a hotel.

I can give you perfect eyesight without glasses. Satisfaction guaranteed. Dr. H. A. Hazen.

Mrs. C. D. Corbett, arrived recently from San Francisco to join her husband, who is employed at the Anderson & Middleton mill.

Ren Sanford is spending two weeks at Roseburg, where he is decorating the lobby of a hotel.

Norval Armes, Rex Wheeler and Earl Fullmer returned to O. A. C. Tuesday, after having spent the spring vacation at home.

Special prices on paraffin oil, 75c a bottle at The White Pharmacy.

John VanNortwick underwent an operation Saturday for the removal of his tonsils.

Mr. and Mrs. J. N. VanBinder, of Aberdeen, Wash., were here Friday. Mr. VanBinder was here on business with the Anderson & Middleton Lumber company.

USED CARS For Sale

AT Service Garage

- Two 1922 Ford touring.
- 1917 Ford touring.
- 1923 Ford truck.
- 1917 Buick.
- 1919 Studebaker Six.
- 1918 Chevrolet.
- 1921 Chevrolet.
- 1918 Buick.
- 1919 Studebaker Four.
- 1918 Dodge.
- Some have 1924 licenses.
- Harley Davidson motorcycle

PRICES ON THESE CARS ARE RIGHT—TERMS

Mrs. C. V. Jordan and son Robert returned Monday from a visit at Albany.

Sanford for Signs.

George Orr was here from Springfield during the week assisting H. H. Starr in getting his jewelry shop ready for opening.

N. E. Glass was in Eugene last Thursday and in company with County Judge C. P. Barnard went to Santa Clara, where a movement is on foot to establish a new road through a farm owned by Mr. Glass.

Extra—50 brooms, 4-sewed, only 45c each, Saturday and Monday at The Fair Store.

Mrs. H. A. Millett and son Glen and daughter-in-law, Mrs. E. G. Millett, and the latter's daughter Lucile, all of Corvallis, were weekend guests at the E. T. Blakely home. Mrs. Blakely is a daughter of Mrs. H. A. Millett.

Charles White underwent an operation for appendicitis Saturday at

Fresh Vegetables

YES, WE HAVE THE VERY BEST OF FRESH VEGETABLES AND FRUIT IN SEASON.

WE HAVE THIS WEEK

- FRESH ASPARAGUS
- RIPE TOMATOES
- SPINACH
- RADISHES
- RHUBARB
- CAULIFLOWER
- CABBAGE
- TURNIPS
- LETTUCE
- CELERY
- GREEN ONIONS
- FRESH PEAS
- HOT HOUSE CUCUMBERS
- CARROTS

Oranges

Sunkist, nice and juicy, two dozen for 25c

Apples

Good varieties at most reasonable prices.

Smith-Short Grocery

THE STORE THAT APPRECIATES YOUR TRADE

Galloway for insurance, 511 Main.

Mrs. Fanchio Stubblefield, of Pendleton, who with her two daughters June and Jean had been visiting at the home of Mrs. Stubblefield's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Hawkins, went to Roseburg Friday to visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. A. Smith. The children remained here with their grandparents.

Earl Ishmael, who had been home ill with influenza, left Thursday for Medford, where he is employed with the Standard Oil company.

Money to loan on city or farm property. J. F. Spray.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Thompson, who were here to attend the funeral of Mr. Thompson's mother, Mrs. Louisa M. Thompson, returned to their home in Portland Saturday.

Robert Jones, of Eugene, spent Sunday at the home of his brother, Frank Jones.

Mrs. Clara Hoffman went to Portland Wednesday of last week to visit friends.

Extra—6 only, 26-piece sets Princess Dogo at $6.69 a set. This price for Saturday and Monday only at The Fair.

Those from outside points who were here to attend the funeral of Mrs. Louisa M. Thompson were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thompson, Salem; Mr. and Mrs. William Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Best, Josephine; Mr. and Mrs. William Best, Portland; Mrs. Mary Renfro, Milton Burton and Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Sharp, Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Barrow, Grants Pass.

We wash. Our wives don't. Cottage Grove Laundry. Mrs. J. I. Scholz returned Wednesday evening of last week from Drain, where she had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Woods. She was accompanied home by her father, who remained until Monday taking medical treatment.

Art Aldrop, who sustained a fracture of the right leg several months ago while employed in the Willis sawmill, and who had been in a Eugene hospital, returned last Thursday.

I have several real bargains in city property; also good farms, small or large. J. F. Spray.

General Johnson has bought the Ishmael property east of the city.

Mrs. N. S. Pohl and children left last Thursday for Chehalis, Wash., to join Mr. Pohl, who is employed there.

Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Morris returned Wednesday evening of last week from Klamath Falls, where they had been visiting for a month at the homes of their son and daughter, I. B. Morris Jr. and Mrs. Ross Stamply.

Dry Cleaning. C. G. Laundry. Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Taylor, who had spent the winter in California and who were en route to their home at Orberon, N. D., visited last week at the home of Mrs. Taylor's brother, M. M. Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Pate Nelson motored to Medford Saturday and spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Smith, parents of Mrs. Nelson and Mr. Smith.

Galloway writes insurance.

J. A. Merrymann, of Tacoma, visited during the week with Mrs. Merrymann and their son, John Wynne Merrymann, who was home from O. A. C. for the spring vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Odenberg and daughter, Mrs. Bert Grove, of Albany, spent the latter part of last week at the A. W. Swanson home. Mrs. Swanson is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Odenberg.

We have just received our shipment of spring wall papers. The assortment is very fine and the prices are lower than they were a year ago. W. L. Darby & Company.

Mrs. H. C. Mitchell, who suffered from bruises sustained in a fall the fore part of last week, has fully recovered.

Lester Osgood, of Brooklyn, N. Y., is visiting at the J. A. Rhoads home. Mr. Osgood and Mr. Rhoads were comrades in France in the world war.

Ray Baker was taken to Springfield hospital Saturday and will undergo a major operation Friday.

Miller's Machine Shop for Service.

Miss Lillian Leonard, who had been at home for some time recovering from an operation, has returned to Monmouth to resume her work.

Mrs. C. L. Bartholomew, of Eugene, is visiting at the home of her son-in-law, W. A. Heck.

Mrs. Vieta Neale, of Albany, is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. T. G. Sudtoll.

Why pay rent when you can own a home for the rent? See Spray, 105 Main street.

Miss In Buell, who had visited two weeks at the home of her sister, Mrs. Albert Woodard, returned to her home at Falls City Thursday.

Mrs. F. E. Mendenhall and son Marshall spent the latter part of last week in Harrisburg at the home of Mr. Mendenhall's sister, Mrs. E. M. Cook.

Mrs. Melvin McKibben, who recently underwent an operation in a Eugene hospital, was brought home last Thursday. She is getting along satisfactorily.

Window envelopes save in time many times the cost of envelopes. See The Sentinel.

E. C. Lake was here from Eugene Friday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. William Rhodes left Friday for Chehalis, Wash., to visit at the home of Mrs. Rhodes' daughter, Mrs. W. C. Wilkins, who is ill.

Miss Alice Titus, of Eugene, sister of H. W. Titus, recently underwent a major operation. She is getting along satisfactorily.

Miller's Machine Shop for Service.

Mrs. C. A. Hood, of Portland, is visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. W. Titus.

Mrs. L. P. Bennett, who had been visiting at the home of her mother, Mrs. Pet Sanford, returned to her home in Portland Thursday.

Fred Brumbaugh left Monday for Albany, where he has employment in the Ford garage.

Sawmill for sale; 12 to 15 thousand mill complete with Seattle donkey, blocks, lines, American planer, blower, log haul and turner—everything complete. Sale or trade. Rice Brothers & Adams, Myrtle Creek, Ore. mr27a17p

OMER APARTMENTS

"A Good Place to Live"

Spend your home hours in Comfort and Convenience.

New, clean, modern two and three-room living apartments with bath, hot and cold water, electric range and steam heat.

Costs no more, all things considered, than do many quarters minus these conveniences.

APPLY TO C. J. KEM AT KEM'S FOR DRUGS

George Lammers has bought the Libby house moving business in Eugene. The family has moved to that city, but Mrs. Lammers will retain her beauty parlor in this city and will be here two days a week.

Fred Brossler was in Springfield on business the fore part of last week. He was accompanied by his family, who visited friends.

Taken Up—A black and white bird dog has come to my place. Owner may have same by proving property and paying or this ad. Mrs. J. Q. A. Young, Hebron, phone 30-F12. m27c

Miss Muriel Shay, who recently resigned as a teacher in the Creswell schools, returned to Monmouth Sunday to complete her work at the normal.

USED CARS at Nelson's Service Station

1923 Gray touring.....$550

1917 Dodge touring, with closed top.....$475

1922 Dodge touring.....$425

1917 Ford touring.....$150

1914 Ford touring.....$65

1918 Chevrolet touring.....$175

1918 Studebaker tour'g.....$150

1918 Maxwell touring.....$165

1917 Maxwell touring.....$75

1916 Dodge roadster.....$325

1921 Dodge touring.....$550

1916 Maxwell.....$90

Terms given on above cars.

W. A. Woodard returned last week from Portland and Garibaldi, where he had been on business.

Miss Marian White, student at the University of Oregon, spent the latter part of last week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. White.

Most Fires Preventable—Loose stovepipes, racked terra cotta flues, and mossy roofs are responsible for over 75 per cent of all fires, therefore watch these closely and remedy. So says the Oregon Fire Relief, whose fire losses have been cut over 20 per cent since starting this crusade. See Tom Aubrey for lowest rates. m27c

Henry Damewood has rented his Silk Creek ranch to James Rigby and will leave soon for Washington to visit his son Ralph.

O. H. Willard suffered a paralytic stroke Monday. He appeared to be as well as usual the day before. The Willard children were immediately sent for.

Fresh Apple PIES

We have some that will make your mouth water. These are only one of our pastry specials.

City Bakery

Autin Lindsey, Proprietor

H. L. Fowler went to Salem Monday to have an injured hand attended to at the state industrial accident commission hospital. The hand, which had seemingly healed from a recent infection, had started to trouble him again.

Mr. and Mrs. George M. Hawley were in Eugene Monday. Mr. Hawley is recovering from a recent severe illness.

Mrs. T. G. Sudtoll and Mrs. G. C. Dyott were in Eugene Monday.

Lee Peters was in Roseburg Tuesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Peters and daughter Margaret were in Eugene Monday visiting with Mr. Peters' brother Mervin, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Kempinsky, of Buckley, Wash., visited briefly here Tuesday with C. E. Umphrey and S. L. Mackin, with whom they were acquainted when Mr. Umphrey and Mr. Mackin were in business in Buckley a number of years ago.

C. H. Burkholder was confined to the house this week with a severe attack of pleurisy.

John Graber returned Saturday from Raymond, Wash., where he had been on business. Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Lockwood, who accompanied Mr. Graber to Washington, went on to Silverdale to visit at the home of Mr. Lockwood's sister, Mrs. Winters Wallace.

T. C. Norris of Medford who is a representative of the Gold Canyon mine of Jackson county was here on business Saturday. He spent the night at the J. Q. Willits home, leaving Sunday for Seattle.

Mrs. F. L. Grannis, who recently underwent an operation in a Eugene hospital, is getting along splendidly. Mr. Grannis plans to bring her home today.

Miss Mary Ellen Benson, who is teaching at Wolf Creek, was home over the week end.

Brighton Leonard, who is teaching at Wolf Creek, spent the week end at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Leonard.

Miss Anita Watts, granddaughter of H. J. Shinn, who is attending a dramatic art school in San Francisco, was heard over radio in a play in which she took part given Thursday evening last in Oakland, Calif. Her voice was easily distinguished by her relatives and friends here.

Mrs. A. R. Spearow, who was in Portland under the care of a physician for some time, is now at her home in Eugene. She is improving very slowly. She underwent an operation Saturday for the removal of her tonsils.

Miss Margaret Dobbin, of Enterprise, who is a student at the University of Oregon, spent the latter part of last week at the home of Miss Margaret Galloway.

G. G. Warner suffered a bilious attack Saturday forenoon while in the Ostrander & McQueen store and had to be assisted home. It was at first thought that he had suffered a paralytic stroke but he was able to be up and about a few hours later.

Mrs. Katherine Jones, teacher in district 39 near Lanne, has resigned her position and will take a similar position in Curry county. Her unexpired term will be filled by Mrs. Ralph Crowe, of Loraine.

Clarence Cornutt and son Dell, of Plainview, visited Monday at the home of Mr. Cornutt's brother, A. W. Cornutt, in Delight Valley. They left Tuesday morning for Oakridge, where they are to be employed.

J. M. Wiggins and J. Copeland, of Tacoma, Wash., spent the week end at the B. F. Johnson home. They were accompanied upon their return Monday by Mr. Wiggins' sister, Mrs. Leo Johnson, who had spent two weeks at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Johnson, her husband's parents.

The E. E. Eads family plan to move to Medford as soon as school is out.

Mrs. Fred Fleck arrived yesterday from Portland to attend the funeral of her father, Joseph Cole, which is to be held this afternoon.

Wade Watts was struck on the back of the left shoulder by a falling sawed Monday while at work at the W. A. Woodard logging camp. He is again able to be around.

A small son of John Simpson sustained a fracture of the right arm Tuesday when thrown from a swing at the Latham school house.

A complete line of sheet music has arrived at the Graham picture shop and is now on display in the show window.

A. R. Spearow and Robert Galloway returned Monday from a motor trip to San Francisco. They left Tuesday of last week. Mr. Spearow going on business and Robert for the pleasure of the trip.

The E. C. Quigley family motored to Albany Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. Quigley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. V. McEffe. Miss Betty Jane remained for a week's visit.

Otto Brown, who was employed 22 years ago in a barber shop here owned by S. V. Allison, visited Monday with S. V. and E. H. Allison. He is now a traveling salesman out of St. Louis.

The senior class held the first rehearsal of their class play, "All of a Sudden Peggy," Monday evening.

Kenneth DeLassus has enrolled as a student in commerce for the spring term at the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bartell and daughter Donna were all confined to their rooms several days of the past week with severe colds.

Mr. and Mrs. Wells, who had been visiting at the home of Mr. Wells' brother, Silas Wells, for a month, returned to their home at Hopmeier Tuesday.

Mrs. Fred Jost, who had been called here by the serious illness of her father, O. H. Willard, returned to her home in Roseburg Tuesday.

Miss Mary Buchanan, who had made an extended visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. H. H. Vestch, returned Tuesday to her home in Corvallis.

H. J. Hickerson, deputy grand chancellor of the Knights of Pythias of Oregon, has been here from Portland on business the past week.

A son was born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. J. Daniels, of Latham.

Miss Katharine Mendenhall was home from Eugene over the week end.

Miss Beatrice B. Beebe, former resident of this city, has been re-elected as a teacher in the Eugene high school.

Miss Katharine Mendenhall and Miss Bertha Stephens, both of this city, have been re-elected to posi-

There are many satisfied users of our special blends of Teas and Coffees in Cottage Grove. Are you one? You will be, once you have tried them. We specialize in Teas and Coffees.

Ostrander & McQueen

tions in the Eugene grade schools. Miss Lola Howe, sister of Mrs. Karl K. Mills, who is well known here, has also been re-elected.

C. W. Caldwell has received word of the death from pneumonia of his brother, A. P. Caldwell, at Swanton, Neb.

Robert Martin, who had been visiting at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Maura Chrisman, returned to his home in Portland yesterday.

Mrs. O. L. Nichols underwent a major operation Monday in a Eugene hospital. She is getting along satisfactorily.

Mr. and Mrs. Chet VanDenBurg arrived Tuesday evening by motor from Yacolt, Wash., and are visiting Mr. VanDenBurg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. VanDenBurg.

Miss Elsie Chestnut has resumed her former position in the Cottage Grove creamery.

The Service garage received two carloads of Star cars this week.

Anchor Alsted is nursing a severely sprained ankle. He said a steambot ran over it and that the steambot was wrecked in the accident.

Stanley Hickey, of Cottage Grove, was fined $25 in justice court in Eugene Tuesday for dumping sawdust into a stream where there are game fish.

ANTICIPATE THAT 4000 WILL SIGN FOR RECALL

Nearly enough names have been obtained on the recall petitions that have already been filed with the secretary of the county committee to place the question on the ballot and it is expected that at least 400 will have signed by filing time, W. L. Wheeler, of Trent, chairman of the committee, stated Tuesday.

Fifty petitions are still out and it is expected that they will not be called in for some time, said Mr. Wheeler. Colonel W. G. D. Mercer, who addressed meetings at Mabel Monday and Tuesday nights, telephoned in that he has obtained a large number of names in that locality.

RETURNS AFTER 16 YEARS; HARDLY KNOWS THE PLACE

Mr. Arnold, who was foreman for the Warron Construction company when the Main street paving was laid 16 years ago, was a visitor in the city yesterday. He remarked that he had never seen such a change in a city. He said he had difficulty in finding Hope Fiestler, T. C. Wheeler, A. W. Kime and others he had known here at the time he was temporarily located here.

Mr. Arnold is yet a foreman for the Warren people and was on his way to view the new piece of the Loraine road which was contracted by his company and over which there has been much contention.

BOOSTERS FOR HARRISBURG BRIDGE ARE VISITORS HERE

A delegation of members of the Lane County - Harrisburg bridge boosters were here Tuesday soliciting memberships in the booster organization which hopes to put over the special bridge levy which will be up at the spring primaries. They were here but a short time and were able to visit only a few of the business men.

In the party were George Scott, president; C. A. Schooling, secretary; M. D. Morgan, Harrisburg, and J. H. Miller, Junction City. They reported calling upon 17 business places and securing 16 memberships.

C. G. H. S. BASEBALL TEAM PLAYS FIRST GAME FRIDAY

The Cottage Grove high school baseball team will play its first game of the season tomorrow with Pleasant Hill on the latter's home field. The locals have been practicing for two weeks. The men who probably will make the trip are Dale Miller, John and George Hewitt, Byron McFarland, Linas Heard, Claid Adams, Earl Ballew, Paul Gordon, Lloyd Armes, Herbert Cochran, Lundy Woodson, Ned Smith, Gordon White and Ross Glass.

That we extend to the bereaved relatives and friends our most sincere sympathy in their hour of sorrow;

That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family of our departed sister and that a copy be spread upon the records of our lodge and another published in the Cottage Grove Sentinel.

EFFIE KNOWLES, ELIZABETH ROHDE, ELIZABETH FULLMER, Committee.

Card of Thanks. We wish to extend our sincere appreciation and thanks to the many kind friends and neighbors for their kindness and sympathy during our recent bereavement, also for the beautiful floral tributes.

Mrs. Mary E. Sallee, Arthur E. Sallee, Mr. and Mrs. Oral C. Sallee, Velma Sallee, Melvin F. Sallee.

Card of Thanks. We wish to thank the Christian church, Cottage Grove, Rebekah lodge and the many friends for their kindness to our dear mother during her illness and death and for the beautiful floral offerings and to those who furnished cars for the funeral.

Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Best, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Thompson, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Thompson.

Resolutions of Condolence. Whereas, our Heavenly Father, in His mysterious wisdom, has taken from our midst our beloved sister, "Aunt" Louisa M. Thompson;

Be it resolved, That Cottage Grove Rebekah lodge has lost a charter member who has been a kind and faithful worker among us for fifty-four years;

That we extend to the bereaved relatives and friends our most sincere sympathy in their hour of sorrow;

That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the bereaved family of our departed sister and that a copy be spread upon the records of our lodge and another published in the Cottage Grove Sentinel.

EFFIE KNOWLES, ELIZABETH ROHDE, ELIZABETH FULLMER, Committee.

WATCHES

CLOCKS, JEWELRY, SILVERWARE, WATCH REPAIRING

F. E. Mendenhall

In Hart's New Era Drug Store S. P. Watch Inspector