DOES THIS MEAN LANE?

Southern Oregon Spokesman: Doing one thing and then changing it seems to be the popular sport still; such is evidenced by the county commissioners in Portland. They signed a bridge contract and now they have unsigned it. The people's money is spent these days by jumping-jack officeholders. Truly this is the age of hysteria.

SLY DELIVERS CERTIFICATES.

Creswell, Ore., April 12.—(To the Editor.)—I have today delivered registration certificates for the three Shorthorn cows sold by me to the county court, namely: Lad's Mermaid, 851607; Dorothea, 941525; Rose of Cedarhurst, 933408.

This statement may be of interest to many taxpayers of Lane county who heard the emphasized statement made by District Attorney Clyde N. Johnston at a public meeting that these cows were only grade stock.

V. R. SLY.

A statement made Tuesday by the recall committee shows that for the year from April 1, 1922, to March 31, 1923, under the old court, the cows at the poog farm produced 769 pounds of butterfat and that for the year following, under the Sharp-Roney administration, the cows produced only 509 pounds of butterfat. The recall committee says that neighbors near the poog farm believe the loss in butterfat to be due more to poor care of the cows than to a difference in the quality of the cows.

ALL OUT OF SORTS?

So Was This Cottage Grove Woman Who Tells Her Experience.

All too often women accept their pains and aches as natural to their sex. They fail to realize that weak kidneys are often to blame for that backache, those headaches, dizzy spells and that tired, depressed feeling. Thousands have found new health and strength by helping the weakened kidneys with Doan's Pills—a stimulant diuretic. This Cottage Grove case is one of many:

has been opened to the north of the city by C. E. Woodson. He has erected four cabins with garages in connection for the accommodation of those wishing to get under cover.

Sale Crowd Blocks Traffic.

The crowd which gathered yesterday forenoon for the opening of the Helliwell & Marksbury sale completely blocked traffic in front of the store. Advertising had been sent over a large part of the county and many were here from outside points.
