

ARCADE THEATER WEEKLY PROGRAM

Thurs.-Fri., April 24-25—The greatest screen attraction of the age, "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," with Lon Chaney. Absolutely the last word in cinema perfection. Admissions: Children, 25c; adults, 50c; reserved seats, 75c. We are compelled to increase our price scale during the engagement, for which we make no apology, and after you have seen the greatest production of all time you'll know why.

Sat., April 26—Thomas Meighan in "Homeward Bound," a Peter B. Kyne sea story. A comedy and an educational.

Sun.-Mon., April 27-28—A special production, "The Governor's Lady," the story of a man who rose from a humble miner's position to the executive mansion of his state. A comedy, "The Caddy."

Tues., April 29—"Smilin' On," with Pete Morrison, a western comedy-drama with thrills, comedy, suspense, heart interest. And a comedy.

Wed., April 30—William (Bill) Patton in "Growing Better," another most different western. And a comedy.

Thurs., May 1—William Desmond in "The Breathless Moment." A comedy and "International News."

SOCIETY

In celebration of the birthday anniversaries of Mrs. A. E. Brown and Charles McKibben, Mr. and Mrs. Arba Harrington entertained a group of friends at their home Wednesday evening of last week. Dancing was the diversion. Dainty refreshments were served. Those to enjoy the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Charles McKibben, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Creson, Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Hazen, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Hamloch, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Rohde, Mrs. J. A. Brown, Mrs. Gertrude Whitsett, W. A. Ward, Frank Hazen, Frank McCullum, Orville Hazen, Mrs. Mary Cull, Misses Viola and Elizabeth Rohde and Robert and Miss Elizabeth Harrington.

Mrs. L. L. Harrel, assisted by the officers, was hostess last Thursday afternoon at the regular meeting of the Constellation club. Fancy work and social conversation were enjoyed. Delightful refreshments were served, the table being centered with an attractive bouquet of sweet peas. The club will meet next Thursday afternoon in the banquet room of Masonic temple with the officers, Mrs. H. K. Metcalf, Mrs. Clara Burkholder and Mrs. C. E. Frost, as hostesses. The annual election of officers will be held.

The H. D. S. club met Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Helliwell. Five hundred, the usual diversion, was enjoyed. Mr. and Mrs. Helliwell securing high score. Additional guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hood, of Portland, house guests of their daughter, Mrs. H. W. Titus, and Mr. and Mrs. Karl K. Mills. Following the cards a delicious luncheon was served. The next meeting of the club will be held May 2 with Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Dickson.

Pastor and Mrs. A. J. Adams, of the Christian church, were honored guests at the regular meeting of the Rebekah lodge Friday evening. Mr. Adams is past grand chaplain of the I. O. O. F. grand lodge and he and Mrs. Adams were given the lodge honors. During the evening Mr. Adams gave a talk on the work of the Odd Fellows and Rebekah lodges and extended a cordial welcome to his services upon the evening of Sunday, April 27, when he will deliver a special sermon upon the occasion of the 104th anniversary of the order.

Members of the primary department of the Methodist church were guests at a merry Easter party held Saturday afternoon at the church. Their teachers, Mrs. James Tedford, Mrs. C. A. Beldler, Mrs. C. M. Land and Mrs. Dora Hazleton, were the hostesses. The afternoon was pleasantly spent in playing Easter games. Dainty refreshments were served, each little guest receiving a candy Easter egg as a favor.

A surprise birthday party given April 14 on Marion Richmond was so successfully concealed from him by the ruse that the preparations were for a birthday party for a friend that he even went so far as to collect the money with which to purchase the birthday gift—which turned out to be for himself. Much merriment resulted from the opening by the honor guest of huge packages which contained small presents suitable for an infant but of little use to a senior. The affair was held at the Richmond home and the guests were members of the senior class of the high school, of which Marion is a member. Radio, instrumental and vocal music and cards were enjoyed. Ice cream and cake were served.

The Tillieum club met Wednesday evening of last week with Mrs. C. H. VanDenburg. Five hundred was enjoyed and dainty refreshments were served. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Chet VanDenburg, of Yaocolt, Wash., who were guests at the VanDenburg home; Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Williams and Mrs. Clara Burkholder. The club will hold its next meeting next Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. J. Q. Willits.

The ladies' aid society of the Methodist church met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. A. Beldler, with Mrs. Beldler, Mrs. S. L. Mackin, Mrs. J. Hardy Crow and Mrs. Roy Leonard as hostesses. A business meeting was held, which was followed by a social hour and the serving of dainty refreshments.

Mrs. T. C. Wheeler was hostess Friday evening to the Joker club. Following the card playing a most delicious luncheon was served. Invited guests of the club were Mrs. George O. Knowles and Mrs. G. M. Scott. The club will hold its next regular meeting May 2 at the home of Mrs. O. M. Miller.

Honoring Miss Mildred Hurley, the day being her birthday anniversary, her sister, Miss Luella, entertained a few of Mildred's friends at dinner Friday evening. Those present were Miss Bonita Beager, Miss Mildred Stevens, Miss Naoma Hilton, Miss Alverda Finch, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hansen and Jack Maulding.

In honor of her mother, Mrs. C. A. Hood, of Portland, who was a guest at her home, Mrs. H. W. Titus entertained the M. P. G. club members and the women members of the H. D. S. club Friday evening at a five hundred party. At the close of the evening a delicious luncheon was served.

The Jolly Bunch club will hold another of their jolly dances tomorrow evening in Phillips hall. Light refreshments will be served.

The Kensington club will hold their regular meeting tomorrow afternoon.

Miss Margaret Galloway entertained a group of young people at her home Friday evening. Cards and dancing were enjoyed and dainty refreshments were served. Those invited were Miss Ruth Phelps, Miss Thelma Nation, Miss Freda Hammel, Miss Bethel Gowdy, Miss Hazel Swanson, Miss Katharine Mendenhall, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hagen, Mr. and Mrs. Georg Bjorset, Ed Dalton, Charles Burkholder Jr., Van Beatty, Arnold Suiker, Herbert W. Lombard, Robert Galloway and Samuel Schwartz.

The Tanglefoot club will hold their last dance of the season in Phillips hall Tuesday evening, with Mrs. G. M. Scott, Mrs. Roy Short, Mrs. N. J. Nelson Jr., Mrs. F. L. Grannis, Mrs. F. E. Dickson, Mrs. Karl K. Mills, Mrs. Earl Garoutte, Mrs. Victor Kem, Mrs. R. A. Trask and Mrs. G. A. Sanders as hostesses.

Miss Velina McKibben and Charles J. White, both of this city, were married Wednesday noon of last week in Eugene at the home of the officiating minister, E. V. Stivers, pastor of the Christian church of that city.

Nearly 125 were present at the luncheon for which the men of the Presbyterian church congregation were hosts, held Sunday afternoon in the dining room of the church following the Easter services.

The American Legion auxiliary will be hostesses to the public at a card party to be held Monday evening in Phillips hall. A musical program will be given and light refreshments will be served.

The Presbyterian ladies' missionary society met yesterday afternoon at the home of Miss Stella Adams on south Sixth street.

The Tuesday Bridge club will meet next week with Mrs. Schofield Stewart.

The Social Twelve will meet this afternoon with Mrs. Herbert Eakin.

J. Fletcher Harlow, formerly of this city but now of Portland, and Miss Gladys A. Raines, of Eugene, were married Saturday in Eugene at the home of the officiating minister, E. V. Stivers.

A delegation of 59 from here were guests of the Springfield Rebekah lodge Monday evening. The local staff put on the decorous work there.

The Past Matrons' club met Monday afternoon with Mrs. Clara Burkholder. A pleasant social afternoon followed a brief business session.

The LaComus club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. H. K. Metcalf, Mrs. Roy Romaine, Portland, Mrs. B. K. Lawson, Wedderburn, and Mrs. E. A. Lilly were invited guests.

MONEY RAISING SALE STILL GOING ON

We are asked many times a day "Are your shoes, silks, underwear, groceries, etc., on sale?" We wish all to know that this is a genuine money raising sale, not a sale of odds and ends but of bright new merchandise and at prices that will not be equalled for years to come.

Our regular prices for merchandise of equal grade were as low as the lowest and our SALE PRICES are too low for competition. No article has been raised in price and then put down to about regular price. We offer a reward of $100 for proof this has been done.
