OFFICERS CHASING ONE BOOTLEGGER WHO GETS AWAY CAPTURE ANOTHER

While they were chasing a suspected bootlegger Friday evening, Deputy Sheriffs Frank McFarland and Wayne Kirk captured Fred Wolfer, of Constock, whom they were not after, with liquor in his possession. The man they were after got away but he left a strong aroma of moonshine along the highway as he disposed of the evidence while making his getaway. The capture of Wolfer was made near Latham. A preliminary hearing was held here Saturday forenoon in justice court and the prisoner was taken to the county jail.

Wolfer had been suspected for some time of operating a still and when the officers passed him driving a wagon they suspected that he might be transporting liquor from his still. When arrested he had in the wagon one flask of booze, three shotguns, a revolver, several kettles and some bedding. He did not resist arrest.

VAUGHN BOY, LOST TWO YEARS, HAS BEEN FOUND

Mrs. D. W. McKinney received word Monday that her grandson, Edgar Allen Vaughn, who ran away from his father's home on Row river two years ago, has been located and is now with his sister, Mrs. C. D. Corbell, of San Francisco. The lad had been in San Francisco for a year without knowing that his sister was living there. In an effort to locate her grandson Mrs. McKinney recently inserted an ad in a magazine published in San Francisco and the lad saw it, locating his sister by the address given in the ad. He also found his mother, Mrs. B. F. Dushimer, living at Richmond, Calif., a short distance from San Francisco.

E. W. Miller to Be Senator.

E. W. Miller, former resident of Cottage Grove, now a hotel man at Grants Pass, is the only candidate for state senator from Josephine county and will, therefore, be the next representative of that county in the upper house. In his liberal views upon public questions he will be quite a contrast to Senator Smith, who now represents that county in the upper house.

Removing Machinery at Black Butte.

The machinery is being removed from the smelter and quicksilver mines at Black Butte and will be shipped. The mines have not been operated for a number of years except for a year or so during the war, when the "quick" was bringing a high price. W. B. Dennis, of Carlton, is the principal owner of the property.

Seniors Observe Annual Sneak Day.

The seniors of the high school observed annual sneak day Monday and left at 1 a. m. for Calapooya springs, near Sutherlin. The other classes had anticipated this action and followed, 15 finding the rendezvous.

TO THE ELECTORS OF LANE COUNTY

Since the announcement of my candidacy for the republican nomination for district attorney of Lane county, subject to the May primaries, it has come to my attention that a general impression exists to the effect that I am a member of the law firm of Wells & Wells, composed of Jesse G. Wells and Harold J. Wells. Because I am asking for the nomination on my own merits and want to stand on my own feet I deem it but fair to Wells & Wells and the public generally to correct this impression by stating that I am in no way related to or associated with the members of this firm but have been practicing law in Eugene by myself. Should you choose to nominate and elect me I will have no previous ties or affiliations to embarrass me in an efficient administration of the office and an impartial enforcement of the law.

FOREST FLOWERS BLOOM; FRUIT TREES BLOSSOM; SPRING STAGES COMEBACK

Spring has permanently arrived in the Cottage Grove country. That fact is demonstrated by the fully blossomed fruit trees and the bouquets of forest flowers found in every home in which there are children to pick them. Ladyslippers have been blooming for two or three weeks and some early cultivated flowers, such as jonquils, have bloomed and are no more for another year.

Fruit trees were a trifle late in budding, which fact gives promise of a prolific crop, as no damage resulted from the chilly weather that followed the first attempt of spring to stage its annual comeback.

The wild life of the state is in no danger from the foot and mouth disease, according to A. E. Burghdoff, state game warden, who passed through the city Monday on his way to the southern part of the state. Mr. Burghdoff says that this disease has never been known to affect wild game.

Mervin Peters Dies.

He came to the states about five years ago, residing in both Minnesota and Oregon. He had visited here frequently. Fred H.

Photos Sent From California.

John F. Woodard, who recently went to California on an extended business trip, has sent back photographs which depict the ravages of the hoop and mouth disease. One photograph shows some 200 head of cattle lined up in a ditch ready for death to relieve them of their suffering. The pictures plainly indicate the seriousness of the malady.
