New officers of the year were named Thursday at the annual election of the Constellation club. Mrs. Geo. Scott was elected president. Mrs. T. C. Wheeler vice president and Mrs. H. F. Edwards secretary-treasurer. In keeping with the established custom of the club the returning officers, Mrs. Metcalf, Mrs. Burkholder and Mrs. Frost, were hostesses for the last meeting of the year. Refreshments were served in the banquet room which had been attractively decorated. A huge May basket filled with sweet peas and other spring flowers was placed in the center of the dining table. Long streamers of crepe paper were extended from the basket. Attractive place cards marked the plate of each of the twenty-seven members, who were presented corsage bouquets of sweet peas by the retiring president, Mrs. Metcalf. She was presented a pair of candlestick holders.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Neet entertained Monday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sanders, who leave Sunday on a two months' motor trip to their former home in Arkansas. A theater party was enjoyed, following which the party returned to The Elite, where dancing was the diversion. A two-course luncheon was served at the close of the evening. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Sanders, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Garoutte, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Keen, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Garoutte, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Darnwood, Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Witte and Miss Adelaide LaCasse.

Little Miss Margaret Ruth Lowry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Lowry, was the honor guest at a May Day party given last Thursday in Eugene at the home of her grandmother, Mrs. S. L. Lowry, where she was visiting at the time.

Miss Pearl Layng, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Layng, and George Duerst, son of Mrs. Louise Kibby, were married Thursday afternoon of last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Bosley, E. R. Cleveger, pastor of the Baptist church, officiating. They were attended by Louis and Mary Layng, brother and sister of the bride. The rooms in which the ceremony was performed was attractively decorated with iris and other spring flowers. The bridesmaid carried pale pink carnations. Only relatives and immediate friends were present. Immediately following the ceremony a wedding dinner was served at the home of the bride's parents. The couple left at once for Portland on a two weeks' honeymoon. They will make their home at Blue Mountain.

The Tuesday Evening Study club was entertained at a four-course dinner Tuesday evening by the retiring officers, Mrs. B. B. Job, Miss Mariette Hamant and Mrs. Omer Moore, at the home of Mrs. Job. A huge bowl of tulips formed an attractive centerpiece for the well-appointed table. The place cards bore the flag and name of a country studied during the year and the favors were dainty corsages of forget-me-nots and lilies-of-the-valley. Mrs. James Adams, of Oakland, Calif., and Mrs. Ida Morcom, of Newark, N. J., who are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams, were additional guests. This was the last meeting of the club for this season and the annual election of officers was held. Mrs. George Matthews was elected president, Mrs. Elbert Smith vice president and Mrs. C. A. Beidler secretary-treasurer.

A new social club, the Utopia, has been organized, with Mrs. A. A. Richmond, president, and Mrs. O. W. Hays, secretary. Meetings will be held on the last Thursday of each month, except when the regular meeting day of the Constellation club falls on that day. Members of the new club are Mrs. Richmond, Mrs. Hays, Mrs. Nelson Durham, Mrs. C. E. Umphrey, Mrs. S. L. Mackin, Mrs. F. L. Gramis, Mrs. Albert Woodard, Mrs. B. S. Buell, Mrs. Omer Moore and Mrs. C. E. Frost.

The LaComus club met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. A. Bartell. The club's color was represented with a profusion of Scotch broom about the rooms and the table at which a dainty luncheon was served was centered with a huge bouquet of orchids. The usual program was varied by a radio concert. Invited guests were Miss Alice Griggs, of Holland, N. Y., who is visiting at the home of her cousin, H. B. Griggs, and Mrs. H. W. Titus.

The foreign missionary society of the Methodist church will meet next afternoon with Mrs. V. S. Goff. The study program was on China, with Mrs. J. A. Wright as leader. A cleverly contrived variation of the question box was a unique feature of the meeting. Dainty refreshments were served.
