SOCIETY

Miss Maud Skidmore, teacher for three years in the local high school, and Lawrence W. Mack, of Portland, were the principals in a quiet surprise wedding ceremony performed here Sunday forenoon at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. F. Lamson, A. J. Adams, pastor of the Christian church, read the marriage service. Only immediate relatives and Miss Maurice Curry, of Kalama, Wash., who taught school with the bride at Tillamook several years ago, and Mrs. Adams witnessed the ceremony. The wedding was the culmination of a friendship which started when the couple were classmates at Oregon agricultural college, from which both were graduated in 1918. They left at once for Portland, where Mr. Mack, who is in the building and contracting business, had a home prepared for his bride.

To compliment Mrs. Vernon Thomson, nee Miss Pearl Curran, a recent bride, Mrs. T. K. Sears and Mrs. Sam Newcomb were hostesses Wednesday afternoon of last week at a miscellaneous shower held in Phillips hall. The affair was a complete surprise to the honor guest. The hall was transformed into a large living room and the windows were prettily decorated with colored crepe paper. The afternoon hours were pleasantly spent in social conversation, followed by the serving of delicious refreshments. About thirty-five guests were present. Mrs. Thomson was the recipient of many pretty and useful gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Thomson are making their home at Dorena.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. V. B. McCarter was the scene of a merry birthday party Wednesday afternoon of last week for their small daughter Verla. Games and play made the afternoon pass speedily for the little tots. Late in the afternoon refreshments were served, a birthday cake lighted with five small pink candles centering the luncheon table. Those to enjoy the happy affair were Virginia Metcalf, Eloise, Janice and Betty Jane Knox, Ida Birsteill, Loberta and Margaret Wilson and Ellen Knutson.

Employees of the local telephone exchange, with their friends, were guests Monday evening at a party given at the Anchorage in Eugene by the employees of the Eugene exchange. The party combined a farewell for C. A. Wyman, who had been transferred from the traffic superintendency of this district to Sacramento, Calif., with a welcome for C. L. Halbert, who has taken Mr. Wyman's place.

Mrs. A. E. Hamloth was completely and delightfully surprised Wednesday evening of last week when a number of intimate friends burst in upon her and Mr. Hamloth, bringing refreshments which were served late in the evening. The occasion was Mrs. Hamloth's birthday anniversary. Those present were the Henry Rhode, Charles McKibben, Ira Beidler and Vernon Hazen families.

The LaComus club held their regular meeting Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. G. B. Pitcher. A delicious two-course luncheon was served at the close of the social afternoon. The club will hold their annual picnic Tuesday afternoon and evening, June 17. The husbands and families of the members will be invited to the picnic supper and for the evening.

The Jolly Neighbors club was entertained Monday afternoon by Mrs. Victor Chambers and Mrs. H. B. Griggs under the shade trees on property at the rear of the Chambers and Griggs homes on north Ninth street. The afternoon was spent with fancy work and a picnic lunch was served.

Mrs. O. L. Jones invited eighteen little playmates of her daughter Maribel to the Jones home Saturday for an afternoon of games, play and music, the occasion being Maribel's birthday anniversary. At the close of the afternoon a dainty luncheon was served.

Mrs. M. M. Wheeler, Mrs. James Robison, Mrs. W. L. Hatch and Mrs. O. W. Blackmore will entertain the Presbyterian ladies' aid society at its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors.

Mrs. Gaven C. Dyott will entertain the Tuesday Bridge club next week at the Dyotts' summer home on the McKenzie river just above the Blue river bridge.

Mrs. H. A. Miller, Mrs. V. T. Randall and Mrs. A. W. Swanson will be hostesses for the meeting of the Constellation club next Thursday afternoon.

The women's foreign missionary society of the Methodist church will meet Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. W. L. Darby.

The Toujours Prete club will meet next Wednesday evening at the home of Miss Hallie Willits.

Mrs. Victor Kem will entertain the S. T. S. club Tuesday afternoon at its regular meeting.

The regular meeting of the Kensington club will be held tomorrow afternoon.

The M. P. G. club will meet next Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. K. K. Mills.

Delight Valley Society. Mrs. C. A. Moore entertained the Social Neighbors club at her home Wednesday afternoon of last week. Fancy work and social conversation were the diversions enjoyed, followed by the serving of dainty refreshments.

Lynx Hollow Society. Mrs. R. Y. Porter was hostess for the L. A. H. club at their fortnightly meeting May 28. Needlework was the diversion. Dainty refreshments were served.

Hoot Owls Appear at Calapooya.

An entertaining afternoon was provided Sunday at Calapooya springs by the Hoot Owls, five girls who broadcast musical numbers from The Oregonian's KGW station. Their snappy program of vocal numbers, violin and ukelele selections was enjoyed by a large crowd of pleasure seekers.

Manager N. S. Hays, of Calapooya springs, was able to secure the organization for the afternoon by reason of the fact that they had just appeared at the American Legion circus in Eugene. The Hoot Owl girls expressed regret at not being able to remain longer amid such pleasant surroundings. They said this was their first experience at giving a program with trees and natural scenery as their stage setting.

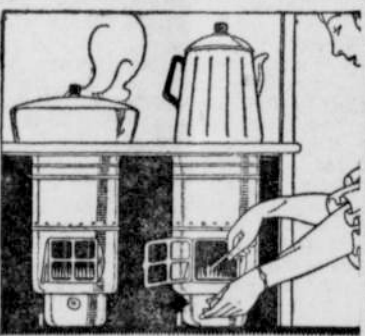

Mrs. Mary Taplin Dies. Mrs. Mary Taplin died Saturday at the home of her adopted daughter, Mrs. F. E. Dunklee, at Vallejo, Calif. The funeral was held here Tuesday. Mrs. Taplin sustained a fractured hip shortly after the death of her husband two months ago but recovered from the injury sufficiently to be able to make the trip to California. Death was due primarily to Mrs. Taplin's inability to take nourishment.

Wehrum Sustains Severe Burns. A. E. Wehrum, one of the owners of the Buck Creek Lumber company's mill out from Anlauf, was severely burned about the arms and chest Sunday in assisting to extinguish a fire which destroyed the conveyor at the mill. While the injuries are painful, it is thought that Mr. Wehrum's condition is not dangerous.

The easy way to cook

- wick control
- no fire to lay
- concentrated heat

Just turn up the wick, touch a match—and the meal is started! That's the beauty of Pearl Oil and a good oil cookstove! No overheating, nothing to lug.

But cookstove kerosene must be highest quality kerosene to vaporize properly and not corrode metal parts. So be sure you order by name—"Pearl Oil." It's refined and re-refined by a special Standard Oil Company process to produce quality fuel especially suited for the purpose.

Pearl Oil is economical, odorless and good to the last drop.

Burglars Visit Carlile Home.

A burglar or burglars entered the Mrs. Susie Carlile home Sunday night, but were heard by John Woodard, sister of Mrs. Carlile, who has rooms in the Carlile home. Mr. Woodard grabbed his trusty "gat" and intended to make a catch but the prowlers heard him moving about and made a successful getaway.

Eugene Band Here for Fourth. The Eugene 25-piece band will be here for the Fourth of July and will furnish music afternoon and evening. It will be a feature of the street carnival. Manager Earl Hill has promised to arrange for a snappy baseball game.

Card of Thanks. We wish to express our sincere thanks to the friends and sister Rebekahs of the late Mrs. Mary Taplin for their assistance in our recent bereavement. The floral tributes were also appreciated. Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Dunklee, Vallejo, Calif. je5pd

Card of Thanks. We wish to express our sincere thanks to the people of Cottage Grove for their kindness and aid in our recent bereavement. The floral tributes were deeply appreciated. Mrs. Lydia Stover and Family.

Mrs. Marion Veatch, of Eugene, expects to leave on June 15 for Europe. She will be joined in Paris by her son Roy, who is an instructor in the American university at Beirut, Syria, and they will spend the summer on the continent.

WAS NEARLY DEAD NOW WALKS MILES

Salesman Tells What Korex Compound Did for Him.

"I would not take $1000 for what korex compound has done for me," says Thos. H. Miles, of Shelbyville, Tenn. "For two years I was down and out. I had pains in my muscles and I could hardly sleep. Now I am as active as I ever was. I feel so much better and I can sleep like a baby all night. I can walk five or six miles on a hike and scarcely feel it."

Thousands the world over are now using this wonder compound. According to statements of users, the beneficial effects are complete and lasting. Weary and worn-out men and women, sufferers from lack of appetite, low vitality, poor circulation, premature old age and lessened vigor will be interested in learning that the American distributors of korex have arranged for korex compound to be sold in Cottage Grove at Kem's for Drugs. Step in at this drug store and ask about korex.

Miller Cozy Camp Bed

Be Comfortable While Roughing It

Half of the enjoyment of "roughing it" is to have some of the comforts of home while far away from there. You'll enjoy the great outdoors far more if you can be certain of a good rest each night without much trouble in providing for a comfortable bed.

The Miller Cozy Camp Bed provides for a comfortable night's rest at the expense of less than a minute's time in setting it up. It occupies almost no space when packed away for the trip, but at night is a full bed, the equal of that in your bedroom at home.

Ideal for touring trips. Takes little space that is needed for supplies and requires little exertion in setting it up at the end of the day when all are tired.

Outers' supplies of all kinds. Enjoy yourself during your outing or on your trip by letting us outfit you at a moderate cost.
