Some day, somehow, somewhere—there are some of you who'll be wishing you had—in your younger days—paid a little more attention to properly taking care of your finances. That you had gone to someone who understood and who had truthfully advised you as to what would have been best for your future.

FINANCIAL ADVICE—that's what we are here for. Come in and get acquainted. It doesn't cost anything. And we'll be only too glad to solve your financial problems for you—whether they pertain to loans, investments, savings, wills or any other matter. And you'll be glad for having accepted this invitation.
