What a Kiddie Said—

"Say, Ma, where did you get those doughnuts and that dandy cake, or did you make them yourself?" said a young hopeful in a Cottage Grove home as he crammed in another mouthful.
"Why, I got them at the Electric Bakery," the mother replied. "Do you like them?"
"I'll say I do," the lad replied. "Say, Ma, ain't that the place you've been getting that good bread recently?"
"Yes, that's the place sonny where I had you stop for pie on the way home from school yesterday. You said you were going to get all our bread and cake and pies and rolls there hereafter when I sent you to do the buying."
"Yes, I remember I liked the place because they don't treat me like I was a kid. They waited on me just like they did on the grown people. We kids like to be treated like we were somebody."

Quality Food

Some come here especially for Gray Goose coffee, knowing that everything else is just as good in proportion. Others like our pastry, although they find many things just as delicious. We notice, too, that we seem to satisfy beefsteak appetites at less price than is usual.

You will enjoy joining the substantial circle of men and women who lunch here daily because of our Good Food at a Good Place.

A GOOD PLACE TO EAT
