

SOCIETY

Miss Margaret Galloway, Misses Marjorie and Muriel Shay, Misses Berta and Hazel Stephens, Mrs. Harold Dugan, Mrs. Georg Bjorset, Mrs. Herman Edwards, Mrs. George Matthews, Mrs. Samuel Veach, Mrs. Ivan Warner, Mrs. H. A. Hagen and the latter's mother and sister, Mrs. Epperson and Mrs. Perry Sisco, piecked yesterday at Calapooza springs. Swimming was enjoyed in the afternoon.

Most delightful was the "500" party on last Thursday afternoon over which Mrs. D. H. Hemenway presided in compliment to Mrs. Ida LeFevre, of Portland, who was a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Chaloupka. Red rambler roses were the artistic decorations of the room. At cards Mrs. Chaloupka secured high score and was presented with a dainty gift. The honor guest was the recipient of a beautiful Japanese lacquer box. At the close of the card session a tempting lunch was served, the table being centered with a huge bouquet of Easter lilies. Those bidden to enjoy the affair were Mrs. LeFevre, Mrs. Chaloupka, Mrs. C. H. VanDenburg, Mrs. S. V. Allison, Mrs. F. E. Dickson, Mrs. J. Q. Willis and Mrs. O. M. Miller.

Mrs. Herman Edwards and Miss Marian White entertained Saturday evening at a hay rick party complimenting Mrs. Georg Bjorset, to whom the affair was a complete surprise. A group of twenty intimate friends of the honor guest, dressed in grotesque fashion, met at Miss White's home, where they boarded the hay rick, then came down onto Main street, where they found Mrs. Bjorset and took her aboard. The party then proceeded to the N. W. White picnic grounds on the bank of the river. Resembling a Christmas tree, an evergreen had been loaded by the guests with handy gifts for Mrs. Bjorset's new home. She was also presented with a large looking glass, the gift of the entire party. The guests were then sent in pursuit of the refreshments which had been hidden over the grounds. A large bonfire was built and the hours were enjoyably spent sitting around this singing songs and telling stories. Those in the party were Miss Margaret Galloway, Mrs. George Matthews, Miss Ruth DeLong, Miss Evelyn Veach, Mrs. H. A. Hagen and her sister, Mrs. Perry B. Sisco, Mrs. Ivan Warner, Mrs. Samuel Veach, Miss Bethel Gowdy, Mrs. Victor Chambers, Mrs. Merville Veach, Mrs. C. C. Cruson, Mrs. Victor Ken, Mrs. Gavin C. Dyott, Miss Hazel Swanson, Miss Hallie Willis, Mrs. C. A. Bartlett, Mrs. Luella Weidenkeller, Mrs. Ivan Barker, Mrs. Harold Dugan, Mrs. W. A. Garonite, Mrs. Herman Edwards, Miss Marian White and the honor guest, Mrs. Bjorset.

Mrs. C. E. Frost entertained the Utopia club last Thursday afternoon. Bouquets of sweet peas and roses in pretty arrangement made the rooms most attractive. Needle work and social conversation proved enjoyable diversions for the afternoon hours. A delicious two course luncheon of chicken salad with a combination of vegetables on side, sandwiches, ice cream, two kinds of cake and coffee was served. Individual dishes filled with salted nuts were at the place of each guest. The luncheon table was centered with an artistic bouquet of pansies. Additional invited guests for the afternoon were Mrs. A. S. Powell, Mrs. D. J. Scholl, Mrs. Lester Childs and Mrs. Elbert Bode. The club planned to have a picnic July 31 for their families.

Mrs. Nelson Durham, Mrs. A. A. Richmond, Mrs. Elbert Smith, Mrs. S. L. Mackin and Mrs. C. E. Umphrey entertained at the Durham home Monday afternoon at a shower in honor of Mrs. Elbert Bode. The rooms were made attractive with large bouquets of Bohemian lilies. The manner of presenting the gifts was cleverly arranged. The guest list included Mrs. C. E. Frost, Mrs. D. R. Hamant, Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. L. L. Harrel, Mrs. J. A. Wright, Mrs. A. L. Wynne, Mrs. Josiah Porter, Mrs. P. F. Beaulieu, Mrs. H. S. Beaulieu, Mrs. Clara Burkholder, Mrs. H. B. Griggs and Mrs. S. V. Allison.

A group of relatives and intimate friends gathered Sunday at the S. L. Godard home on the river in honor of Mr. Godard's birthday anniversary. A picnic dinner was enjoyed. Those in the group were Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Godard, Miss Esther VanOsdel, Miss Helen Ostrander, Miss Velma Madden of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Spencer, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Spencer, Mrs. Grace VanBoskirk and daughter Miss Ruth and Mr. and Mrs. Earl Godard and son Ross, all of Eugene.

Delightful among the week's club meetings was that of the H. D. S. on Friday evening when Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Titus entertained. The usual diversion of five hundred was enjoyed, the high score being secured by Mr. and Mrs. Chaloupka. At the close of the evening a delicious luncheon was served. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Daugherty, Mrs. K. K. Mills, Herbert W. Lombard and Mrs. Ida LeFevre the latter of Portland, who was a house guest at the E. E. Chaloupka home. The club has disbanded until fall.

Miss Beatrice Leonard entertained the Toujours Prete club last evening at a delightful lawn party. An interesting talk on "Preventive Medicine" by Dr. Gaven C. Dyott, followed a short business session. The remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent socially and a delicious luncheon was served. The evening was the last regular meeting of the club until after the summer vacation, although the club expects to hold picnics and participate in hikes and such sport during the summer.

Complimenting and surprising Mrs. A. W. Kime, who leaves today for Portland, where the Kime family are to make their home, the LaComus club, of which she is a member, gave a farewell party Monday evening at the Kime home. The evening was pleasantly spent socially and refreshments of ice cream and cake, furnished by the guests, were served. The honor guest was the recipient of a set of Sterling silver spoons. This club has disbanded for the summer vacation.

The losing side in the American Legion auxiliary membership drive entertained the winning side and the American Legion members at dinner Monday evening. Each organization held a business session separately following the dinner at which the delegates to the state convention made their reports. The two organizations then joined and spent the remainder of the evening socially.

Mrs. H. A. Miller entertained the Social Twelve last Thursday afternoon at the final meeting of the season. The afternoon was spent socially and a dainty luncheon was served. Mrs. Raymond Grube, of Dexter, who was visiting at the Schofield Stewart home, was an additional guest.

Mrs. H. W. Titus, Mrs. C. A. Bartlett and Mrs. K. K. Mills were special guests at the regular meeting of the Eugene Daughters of the Nile held Wednesday afternoon of last week at the Anchorage tea house in Eugene.

The Constellation club will hold its annual picnic this afternoon and evening at the N. W. White place on Coast fork. Members and their families will spend the afternoon socially on the river bank. The husbands will go out after business hours to enjoy the picnic supper which is to be served at 6:30 and for the evening. After this meeting the club will disband for the summer vacation.

Miss Alice Titus, of Eugene, is to be married July 13 to Wayne Akers, of Oakland, Ore. The wedding will take place in the Baptist church in Eugene and the couple will make their home in Oakland, where Mr. Akers is an employe in a bank. The bride is a sister of H. W. Titus of this city, and has often visited here.

The Presbyterian missionary society met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Roy Short, Mrs. George Matthews, Mrs. H. A. Miller and Mrs. Charles Jackson had charge of the study program. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the business session.

Mrs. Albert Woodard, Mrs. John Baker, Mrs. L. L. Woolley, Mrs. W. L. Darby, Mrs. S. J. Leonard and Mrs. J. Sams were hostesses yesterday afternoon at the experience social held in the church parlor by the Methodist ladies' aid society.

The Christian ladies' aid society met yesterday afternoon in the church parlor to continue with some quilting work which had been started. They will hold their regular monthly business meeting next Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Karl K. Mills entertained the M. P. G. club at a lawn party Tuesday afternoon. One side of the lawn was cleverly arranged to represent a large living room and the other side a dining room. Fancy work and social conversation were enjoyed and a delightful luncheon was served. Mrs. F. E. Dickson was an additional guest. Mrs. Mills assisted in the decorating and serving by Miss Vesta Hopper and Miss Mary Eleanor Mills, the latter a niece, who is here from Portland to spend the summer. This was the last meeting of the club until next fall.

The Mizpah class of the Presbyterian Sunday school, of which H. A. Galloway is teacher, met at his home last evening and enjoyed his account of his attendance at the general assembly of the Presbyterian church recently held in Grand Rapids, Mich. He was a commissioner from the Willamette presbytery. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Tuesday Bridge club was entertained at its regular 1 o'clock luncheon this week at the home of Mrs. F. L. Grannis. At the bridge session Mrs. C. J. Kem secured high honors and Mrs. T. G. Sudtoll was presented with the consolation prize. Invited guests of the club were Mrs. E. E. Chaloupka and Mrs. Roy Romaine. The club will not meet again until next week.

Mrs. Georg Bjorset entertained the S. T. S. club Tuesday afternoon. Five hundred was enjoyed, high score going to Mrs. Jack Callahan, of Portland, a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Harold Dugan. Mrs. Callahan, Mrs. Herman Edwards and Mrs. Samuel Veach were invited guests, the latter two being elected to membership and presented with corsage bouquets. A delicious luncheon was served. The club will hold a picnic July 8, after which it will disband for the summer.

The Friendly Workers, the young married women's class of the Christian Sunday school, picnicked with their families in the city park Tuesday evening. Pastor and Mrs. Adams were additional guests.

Mr. and Mrs. George Matthews observed their fourth wedding anniversary Tuesday evening.

Why pay tribute to a superstition?

ZEROLENE-LUBRICATED CARS WIN SIX OUT OF SEVEN YOSEMITE ECONOMY RUN TROPHIES

Does Zerolene "stand up"? The drivers of the four cars that won six of the seven trophies in the 1924 Los Angeles-Camp Curry (Yosemite) Economy Run say so.

Of the five Zerolene-lubricated cars entered in the race, four carried off prizes, including the sweepstakes won by the Overland, model 92. Six of the seven trophies offered went to cars using Zerolene. And incidentally, the oil consumption recorded by the official checks was remarkably small.

The sweepstakes winner writes: "In spite of the intense heat with which the motor was subjected, when the ultimate check was made I found greatly to my surprise that the gauge showed absolutely no use of oil whatsoever. I attribute my success in winning the 1924 Yosemite Economy Sweepstakes greatly to the use of Zerolene in the motor and Red Crown gasoline in the tank."—Joe Bozzani.

Isn't it time to dismiss forever the superstition that there is something mysteriously "better" about eastern oils, merely because they cost more and are made in the East? Experienced drivers, out to make economy records, don't share that superstition—why should you?

Insist on Zerolene—a better oil—even if it does cost less.

EIGHTH GRADE HAS MANY NAMES ON HONOR ROLL

Pupils of the eighth grade of the schools in this city made a splendid showing in the recent state examinations, which pupils must take regardless of scholarship averages, and many are on the Lane county honor roll. E. J. Moore, county superintendent, started the honor roll several years ago and this year it has a longer list of names than ever before, there being more than 200 names on it.

Of 49 pupils in the Cottage Grove schools who took the examination, 31 were placed on the honor roll. The names, with their averages, are as follows: Mary A. Allen, 90.8; Lois M. Boss, 90; Joseph E. Bricher, 92.9; Delbert Kenneth Braun, 91.3; George Brand, 91.3; Florence Susan Caldwell, 91.7; Marguerite Ellen Carlisle, 93.7; Melvin Coffman, 92.6; Harold A. Cooley, 93.1; Dorothy Ellen Cooper, 90.3; Neil O. Davidson, 94.8;
