

THE FIRST THOUGHT OF THE NATION

FIRST NATIONAL BANK (The Old Reliable)

nearly 150 years ago was independence —freedom from the foreign yoke. And what is your first thought when planning your future? Independence—freedom from financial care and worry. Your savings account here will insure that. Start with us today.

Tales of the Town

Mrs. Laura McKernan, who makes her home here with her daughter, Mrs. Hiram Griggs, has gone to Seattle to spend several months at the home of her son, Charles.

YOUR LAUNDRY TELLS THE STORY

You may put on a fine suit, but if your laundry work has been shoddily done, or your collar is soiled you do not appear to be well dressed, whereas, a finely laundered, clean collar will make the edge of the appearance of a slightly shabby suit. Our work is guaranteed. The customer is to be the judge of whether it is satisfactory. Your money back if you say the work is not first class. Dry cleaning and laundry work called for and delivered.

COTTAGE GROVE LAUNDRY

The Sentinel is entitled to the salesbook business of Cottage Grove on the basis of quality and price.

Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Buckmaster, of Arodale, Ia., arrived yesterday for a visit at the home of their nephew, Elbert Bede.

Mrs. Harold Edholm and Miss Dorothy Bartie, of Eugene, were guests at the V. T. Randall home Tuesday. Mr. Edholm motored up in the evening and took them home.

AVOID THE RUSH!

Have that suit cleaned and pressed now for the Fourth of July. We will have extra help July 1, 2 and 3.

HOFFMAN CLEANERS

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Neal and daughters Helen and Betty Jean and Miss Elizabeth Miller, of Eugene, were guests Saturday at the V. T. Randall home.

Miss Perle Robinson, who is in Portland visiting at the home of her brother George is expected home this afternoon or tomorrow.

We are pleased to announce that for every set of five Royal cord ballroom tires and five tubes, wheels and rims will be furnished WITH-OUT EXTRA CHARGE. Nelson's Service Station.

Ellis Robinson has returned from Klamath Falls, where he was employed on a ranch. He is recovering from a fracture of one leg, sustained when a horse kicked him.

Mrs. D. L. Woods, of Eugene, spent Monday with Mrs. Alicia Harrington. She came with her son, L. L. Woods, who motored up on business.

HAND PAINTED CHINA

The hand-painted china we are giving away with groceries or on your account is going out fast. Be sure and pick yours out early.

Flour and Sugar

Flour and sugar have both advanced this week. We will advance our price soon.

Berries

This is the best week for raspberries and logan-berries for canning. Also leave your order with us for apricots.

Smith-Short Grocery THE STORE THAT APPRECIATES YOUR TRADE

Springfield at the home of Mrs. Riley Snodgrass, daughter of Mrs. Holland and sister of Mr. Hill.

Filing cabinets. The Sentinel. If Jerome Scott, of Eugene, who is visiting at the home of his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Darby, will attend the summer camp of Hill military academy, Portland, which will be held at Long Beach, Wash., beginning July 1.

A son was born June 12 to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Chaffee.

All kinds of filing equipment. The Sentinel. If Miss Bertha Hays, sister of Superintendent O. W. Hays, of this city, has been elected instructor in zoology at the University of Oregon.

O. O. Veatch has been somewhat crippled during the past week as the result of a fall from a scaffold.

Mrs. C. A. Cooley was a visitor in Eugene Friday.

If it's for an automobile Nelson's Service Station has it.

W. E. Mayes has returned from a motor trip to Raymond, Wash.

Kiddies Like to Trade Here

A mother recently told us how her little son arrived home with some goods from our bakery and remarked: "I like to buy goods at that place. Mr. Sanders wrote on me and Mr. Bennett came in just as I was going out, patted me on the head and told me to call again. Say, Ma, they're fine fellows, ain't they? No wonder they make such good bread and rolls and cake and pie and things."

We like to feel that every boy and girl, every man and woman leaves our place feeling that he or she has received prompt and courteous treatment. Each one of our customers is entitled to this kind of treatment, whether the purchase is for a dime, or a quarter, or a dollar. That is one of the methods we are using to help keep the bread business in Cottage Grove. If you buy from your grocer, insist upon getting Cottage Grove bread. Ask for Faultless Bread and do your part in building up one of the industrial pay-rolls of Cottage Grove. We ask this upon the basis of quality and service.

The Cottage Grove Electric Bakery Sanders & Bennett, Props.

Mr. and Mrs. Hal Smith and son Dale left Saturday for Goldendale, Wash., where they expect to make their home.

Mrs. D. C. Bosley and son Fred went to Salem Friday to visit with friends. They will stop at Woodburn on their way home and visit with the Cecil Phillips family, former residents of this city.

I can give you perfect eyesight without glasses. Satisfaction guaranteed. Dr. H. A. Hagen.

An 8½-pound daughter was born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Corbell.

Mrs. F. L. Grannis visited in Eugene during the week with Mrs. Guy Pyle.

Mrs. Carl Burkett left Friday for Salem to take medical treatment.

We invite everyone to try our repairing of watches and jewelry. H. H. Starr Jewelry Store, in Madsen's old stand.

ASK ANY OF OUR REGULAR PATRONS what they think of our fine line of bakery goods. Invariably you'll get the answer. "Great! Simply Delicious!" And we'll add—Pure and Wholesome, too.

City Bakery Lindsey & Davis, Proprietors

George and Miss Ruth Nowell, of Lebanon, visited during the week at the home of their uncle, Willis Nowell.

H. M. Barrett, who had been visiting in Portland, returned last Thursday accompanied by his niece, Mrs. E. L. Davis, and her children, of Portland.

Galloway writes insurance. Miss Izel Runk has returned from Portland, where she has been employed.

Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Walkinshaw, of Portland, visited during the week at the home of Mrs. Walkinshaw's parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. Chestnut. Mrs. Chestnut's mother, Mrs. E. C. Dindinger, arrived Friday from Newcastle, Pa., to spend the summer with her daughter.

A shingles in the warehouse, $3.30. Brick, lime, cement, plaster and a lot of other builders' needs. S. L. Godard.

Misses Bertha and Hazel Stephens are home with their mother, Mrs. Edith Stephens, for the summer vacation. Miss Bertha will teach again in the Eugene schools and Miss Hazel will attend Monmouth normal.

Mrs. Ralph Hand is recovering from a week's illness.

Mrs. Henry Tennis and daughter, Mrs. Ray Boyd, of Centralia, Wash., visited during the week at the home of Mrs. Tennis' son, Harry Tennis.

Looseleaf systems of every kind. The Sentinel.

Mr. and Mrs. Burns Hemphill and their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Hemphill, of Eureka, Calif., visited last week at the home of Mrs. Burns Hemphill's cousin, Mrs. Sarah L. Harms.

Blanks to be used by those wishing to apply for adjusted compensation have been received by the American Legion. They may be obtained from Herbert W. Lombard or Ivan Warner.

The Overland car is now the next to the cheapest car made (and is the lowest price gear shift car on the market). Nelson sells them. See us first.

Mrs. M. C. Dill and son Donald, of Denver, spent the week end at the home of Mrs. Dill's sister, Mrs. Herbert Mason. Mr. Dill joined them the fore part of the week, when they left for Newport for an outing.

Misses Grace and Constance Coleman, of Corvallis, are visiting at the home of their aunt, Mrs. C. C. Cruson.

Special ruled forms of every kind. The Sentinel.

Miss Viola Buford, of Roseburg. Misses Ruth and Nellie Stewart, Cecil Caldwell and Roy, Charles and W. A. Heck picnicked Sunday at Mineral.

The O. W. Hays family and Mr. Hays' sister, Miss Martha Hays, of Eugene, returned last Thursday from a motor trip to Crater lake and the Oregon caves.

Galloway for insurance, 511 Main. J. H. Ebert returned last Thursday from a visit with his mother, Mrs. C. H. Ebert, at Forest Grove, and at Clatskanie, his former charge, where he filled the pulpit for both services June 15. The Methodist pulpit here was filled by J. Sams during Mr. Ebert's absence.

Mrs. Ida LeFevre, who had been visiting at the E. E. Chaloupka home, returned to her home in Portland Saturday.

Ray Nelson, auto electrician. Mrs. Katherine Sibley, of Portland, a former resident, received the Oregon conference scholarship that was awarded to Jefferson high school, Portland. She was the high honor student in that school.

A large electric sign has been erected by the Mountain States Power company over the sidewalk in front of its office.

Used cars at Nelson's Service Station. All kinds at best of prices. Come and see our bulletin board in front of our service station.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Romaine and daughter Bettie May and Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Hart motored up from Portland Saturday, the Romaines to visit with Mrs. Romaine's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Kime, and the Harts to visit at the home of Mr. Hart's father, Jephtha Hart, Mr. and Mrs. Hart and Mr. Romaine returned home the following day but Mrs. Romaine and daughter remained and will accompany Mr. and Mrs. Kime when they move to Portland the latter part of this week.

Office equipment of various kinds. The Sentinel.

Mrs. Earl Anderson and children, of Malden, Wash., are visiting at the E. W. Eyanson home at Lorane.

Mrs. Ada Eperson and son Homer arrived Tuesday from Longview, Wash., for a week's visit at the home of Mrs. Eperson's daughter, Mrs. H. A. Hagen.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hall returned Monday from their honeymoon and are now at home at 945 Ash avenue.

Four members of the Creswell local lodge were guests of the local lodge Saturday. The first degree was conferred on a Creswell candidate.

A delegation of 21 Creswell Rebekahs were guests Friday evening at the regular meeting of the local lodge. Their arrival was a complete surprise to the members here.

Mrs. Allie Hawkins returned Monday from a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. W. G. Hauser, in Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Godard returned yesterday from a motor trip to Portland.

The Credit Service company has been given a judgment in the sum of $547.75 against the Ajax Lumber company.

Homer Galloway has begun suit in circuit court against Helen Vilas and others to quiet title to certain land in section 28, township 20 south of range 3 west.

Mr. and Mrs. D. O. Byrne returned Monday from a two weeks' visit with friends in Portland and Seaside.

G. W. McQueen and A. G. Williams spent the week end in the Bohemia district.

Mrs. Ernest Wyatt, of Oregon City, is visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Worth Harvey, and Mr. Wyatt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. F. Wyatt. Mr. Wyatt will come down for the week end and Mrs. Wyatt will return with him Sunday evening.

Fred and Miss Nettie Smith, of San Francisco, brother and sister of the late Mrs. Edgar Willson, spent Monday night with Mrs. Lucy Holland. They were en route to Portland by motor.

Walter A. Woodard and children Genevieve and Alton returned Sunday from a motor trip into California. Genevieve and Alton visited at the home of an aunt in Dunsmuir, while Mr. Woodard visited sawmills at Weed and McCloud.

F. H. Tibbets and F. L. Brewer, of the Albany office of the Mountain States Power company, were here last week while the Westinghouse demonstrations were being given by Miss Grace Bogue, home economist of that company. Miss Stella Dorgan, of Albany, Mountain States Power company demonstrator, assisted Miss Bogue Friday and Saturday.

A son was born Tuesday of last week to Mr. and Mrs. Emmett King, of Brookings. He is a grandson of Mrs. M. M. Morgan, of this city.

Mrs. Olive Isaacson and daughter, Mrs. Isabel Post, of Turlock, Calif., are visiting at the home of Mrs. Isaacson's son, Bert Isaacson.

Miss Mary Schwartz, of Portland, is spending the summer at the home of her aunt, Mrs. F. B. VanNortwick.

Mrs. M. P. Garoutte returned last week from a visit in San Jose, Calif., with her daughter and son, Mrs. E. L. Roy and Frank Snodgrass. Since her return she has received word from her son that he is in San Francisco playing the piano in an orchestra which will broadcast from a San Francisco radio station July 7.

W. C. Mock Jr., of Portland, visited last week at the V. E. Clow home.

Miss Kathleen McReynolds, who is employed at the College Side inn, Eugene, spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. McReynolds. She was accompanied by Miss Elsie Canterbury, of Monmouth.

Melvin McKibben has gone to Coquille, where he has accepted a position with the Mountain States Power company.

Miss Mary Eleanor Mills has arrived from Portland to spend the summer at the home of her uncle, K. K. Mills.

Mrs. Harris Emmons and son Junior, of Seattle, visited last week with Mrs. Emmons' parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Brand.

Mr. and Mrs. Gavon C. Dyott left Tuesday for Seattle, where Mr. Dyott will attend a medical convention.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Elliott and daughters, Mrs. Gertrude Whitsett and Mrs. B. L. Perini, the latter of Creswell, and Mrs. Paul Brandon and Mrs. Elizabeth Brandon, of Springfield, Mo., who are visiting at the Elliott home, returned Friday evening from a visit in Canyon City at the home of Mrs. Belle Cate, another daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elliott.

Mrs. George Kegelbeck returned Sunday evening from spending the week end at the McKenzie at the home of her mother, Mrs. E. F. Ream. The mother visited here last week and was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. B. G. Campbell, of Astoria, who was accompanied by her son and daughter. Mrs. Kegelbeck accompanied the party from here to the Ream home.

Mrs. Ed Bushnell and son Donald Erwin returned to their home in Springfield Tuesday, after spending two weeks at the home of Mrs. Bushnell's grandmother, Mrs. S. E. McKinney.

Fruits and Berries for Canning

HOUSEWIVES—The Canning and Preserving Season has started. The market now offers Berries in profusion. Other fruits will be on the market almost before you know it. Let us know your wants and take care of you at the most opportune condition of the market. Better get your Sugar now before another advance.

McQueen's Grocery

A boiler and outfit for the new Walter A. Woodard sawmill has arrived and will be installed next week.

Mrs. Jack Callahan, of Portland, is visiting at the homes of her parents and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Johnson and Mrs. Harold Dugan.

A. W. Helliwell, E. C. Lockwood and John Runk left yesterday to spend a week on their mining property in the Bohemia district.

Miss Margaret Galloway will go to Salem Saturday to be employed for a month in the office of an insurance agency during the vacation of one of the employes.

Mrs. S. S. Platt returned Sunday from a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. S. A. Monteith. She is recuperating from a recent operation.

F. L. Bahrenfus took a picking of 65 crates of loganberries to the Creswell cannery Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bartell and daughter Donna and Mrs. George Scott and daughter Vera left Tuesday for Bart's Inn at Landpark. Mr. Bartell returned yesterday but the others will remain for a week.

Miss Mary Ellen Benson left Saturday by motor for Wolf Creek to visit her father, J. S. Benson.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Stewart returned Tuesday from a business trip to Portland.

Mrs. Ed Bushnell and son Donald Erwin returned to their home in Springfield Tuesday, after spending two weeks at the home of Mrs. Bushnell's grandmother, Mrs. S. E. McKinney.

CELEBRATE FOURTH OF JULY Cottage Grove IN BIG STREET CARNIVAL AND DANCE

OUR SPECIAL FOUR LAYER BRICK

for this week is composed of one layer each

- French Cherry Sherbet Apricotine Orange Parfait

SPECIAL BULK

- Orange Parfait

A new special every week. Watch for them.

HAZELWOOD ICE CREAM

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hemenway, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McFarland, the W. L. Hatch family, Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Willis, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Groves, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Lee, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Hagen and Mrs. Hagen's sister, Mrs. Perry B. Sichel, the Charles Lee family, Miss Florence Land and Albert Wright picnicked Sunday at Elkton.

Mrs. A. P. Keppel and children, of Portland, visited during the week at the home of Mrs. Keppel's sister, Mrs. Joe McKibben.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kennedy arrived Monday from Long Beach, Calif., to visit at the home of Mrs. Kennedy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Potts, and her brother, James Potts. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Potts and daughter Ethel and Mrs. Potts' sister, Miss Juanita Ely, and a friend, of Marshfield, were here over the week end to visit with the Kennedys. Mr. Kennedy will leave for home today but Mrs. Kennedy will remain for a longer visit.

T. K. Campbell, public service commissioner, was up from Salem over Tuesday night. He had been at Creswell on business.

Mrs. Mary Thompson, of Yoncalla, visited Sunday at the E. G. O. Groat home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Allen and daughter Sadie and Mr. and Mrs. G. Duert attended a farmers' union meeting at Walden Friday.

Eye to the Picturesque. "Didn't you object to that hostile party from Snake Ridge wearing disguises?" "No," answered Cactus Joe, "The disguises didn't make 'em any harder to lick an' ruther improved their appearance."—Washington Star.

Fair Warning. Aggressive youth (just before the fight started): Look 'ere before we start I'd better warn you that no favorite uncle's in de undertakin' business and I'll do anything to 'elp 'im.—Passing Show.

A GOOD PLACE TO EAT