PLATFORM ADOPTED BY REPUBLICANS

Reaffirms Traditional Policies and Declares for Membership in World Court.

The platform reaffirms the traditional party policies, condemns misconduct in office regardless of party, declares for membership in the world court as recommended by President Coolidge, suggests that farm prices should be brought to a parity with those of the products farmers buy, and does not mention the bonus or Japanese exclusion.

The important planks summarized are as follows:

Declares for strict economy in administration of government and lauds republican administration in reducing taxation and public debt.

Pledges progressive reduction of taxes and endorses plan of President Coolidge to call a national conference to devise methods of lightening tax burden.

Favors comprehensive reorganization of executive departments and bureaus and enforcement of merit system in civil service.

Refuses to consider cancellation of foreign debts and stands for settlement with all debtor countries on basis similar to that made with Great Britain.

Reaffirms belief in protective tariff and in the elastic provision adopted in tariff act of 1922.

Stands for agreement among nations to prevent war and preserve peace and endorses permanent court of international justice and adherence to this tribunal as recommended by President Coolidge.

Advocates calling of a conference on the limitation of land forces, the use of submarines and poison gas as proposed by President Coolidge.

Lauds friendly adjustment of differences with Mexico.

Recognizes adverse agricultural conditions have brought about distress and pledges party to take whatever steps necessary to bring back balanced conditions between agriculture, industry and labor and reorganization of market system on sounder and more economical lines.

Pledges continuance of policy of cooperation with the states in highway building.

Commends congress for adoption of constitutional amendment authorizing legislation on child labor and urges prompt consideration by state legislatures.

Pledges continuance of successful efforts of republican administration to eliminate seven-day, 12-hour week in industry.

Favors a careful and scientific readjustment of railroad rates with a view to encouragement of agriculture and basic industries without impairing railroad service.

Stands against all attempts to put the government into business and opposes nationalization or government ownership of public utilities.

Favors permanent merchant marine, built by Americans, owned by Americans and manned by Americans.

Urges congress to enact at earliest possible date a federal anti-lynching law.

Development of natural resources and improvement of rivers and harbors and waterways favored.

Promises continual and increasing solicitude for all those suffering disability as a result of service in time of war.

Believes in time of war nation should not only draft its citizens but also every resource which may contribute to success.

Endorses protection against unrestricted immigration.

Declares time for granting independence of Philippines has not yet arrived.

Endorses policy of present administration with reference to Alaska and favors a continuance of the development of the territory.

Continuation of reclamation of arid and semi-arid lands pledged.

Opposes further weakening of army and promises to round out navy to full strength allowed under treaty.

Reaffirms devotion to orderly government and urges respect for law and order.

Demands the speedy, fearless and impartial prosecution of all wrongdoers without regard to political affiliation or position, but declares no greater wrong can be committed against the people than the attempt to destroy their trust in the great body of their public servants.

Emphasizes responsibility of party to people and urges the people to elect a republican president and vice-president, to elect to the senate and the house of representatives men and women who believe in the republican principles, acknowledge party responsibility and who can be relied on to keep faith with the people by carrying out the program which the republican party presents and pledges itself to fulfill.

second day's session, Permanent Chairman Frank W. Mondell of Wyoming in his speech admonished republicans to see to it that only those who are "republicans in principle as well as in name" be elected to congress. A prolonged demonstration for President Coolidge started when Charles B. Warren, chairman of the resolutions committee, reading his report, mentioned the president.

Through all the demonstration for the president and the platform the delegates from Wisconsin remained silently in their seats, taking no part and ignoring the cat calls, hisses, jeers and shouts directed toward them from the marching throng and from the galleries.

The Coolidge marchers, however, were determined to get the Wisconsin delegation on its feet and it finally accomplished it by forming a circle around them and singing the Star Spangled Banner.

The La Follette delegates solemnly rose and stood at attention throughout the singing and then stolidly resumed their chairs while the demonstration for Coolidge proceeded.

La Follette Platform Rejected. The convention adopted its platform, as reported by the resolutions committee, and rejected the La Follette planks presented from the Wisconsin delegation.

Chairman Warren of the resolutions committee, read the platform as it finally was approved and moved its adoption. Representative Cooper of Wisconsin presented the La Follette platform and spoke in its support. Mr. Warren made no extended arguments against the La Follette planks, merely reminding the convention that the platform as brought in from the committee had been approved by every member except the member from Wisconsin and that the committee's action might be considered a fair cross section of the sentiment of the convention.

While the selection of the candidate for president was a mere formality the naming of a candidate for vice-president provoked a spirited contest, resulting in the nomination of Charles G. Dawes of Illinois, but his nomination came only after the convention had once chosen former Governor Lowden of Illinois, who declined to accept the place.

Eight candidates were placed in nomination and the ballots on the first roll call were divided among the four leaders, Lowden, Kenyon, Dawes and Burton of Ohio. Many delegations voted for favorite sons as a compliment, while others divided their votes among various candidates.

A switch of 78 votes from Pennsylvania to Theodore E. Burton on the second ballot gave the nomination to Lowden.

Lowden Declines Nomination. When Chairman Mondell informed the convention that Mr. Lowden, from his home in Oregon, Ill., sent word that he positively refused to accept the nomination, it was agreed on all sides that the only thing for the convention to do was to go to it again and there was a series of hurried conferences and caucuses on the floor.

It developed openly that William Butler was insisting on the nomination of Secretary Hoover and working hard for him while the Dawes people worked like trojans to line up the delegates for the general.

CHARLES G. DAWES

Who Received the Republican Nomination for Vice-President.

Mr. Mondell read the convention the telegram he had received from Mr. Lowden.

Then the chair recognized Lawrence Y. Sherman of Illinois. In behalf of the Illinois delegates he moved that Lowden's declination be accepted.

The convention adopted the motion with some scattering noes. The clerk then began calling the roll on the third ballot for vice-president. The unofficial totals on the third ballot were: Dawes, 68 1/4; Hoover, 23 1/4; Kenyon, 85.

After the nomination of General Dawes had been announced and Senator James E. Watson had moved it be made by acclamation, Senator Paper of Pennsylvania took the platform and offered a resolution to appoint Chairman Mondell of the convention chairman of the committee to notify President Coolidge of his nomination and to appoint Theodore E. Burton chairman of the committee to notify General Dawes of his nomination.
