Akers-Titus.

A wedding beautiful in its simplicity took place in the First Baptist church, Eugene, at 4 o'clock Sunday, when Miss Alice Titus, of Eugene, daughter of Mrs. E. J. Titus, pledged her troth to Wayne Akers, of Oakland, E. Luther, pastor of the Springfield Baptist church, read the service in the presence of only the two families and a few close friends.

A background of palms and ivy, with tall wicker baskets of pink hollyhock and gladioli blossoms and white daisies in attractive arrangement, was the effective setting for the chancel. The pink and white color scheme was carried out in the decorations of the remainder of the church.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Harry W. Titus, of this city. Mrs. Titus acted as her matron of honor. The groom was attended by his brother, Carol Akers, of Portland. The Lohengrin wedding march was played by Miss Ethelya Forrest, who was accompanied on the cello by Miss Lora Teshner. Mendelssohn's recessional was played, following the ceremony.

The bride's wedding gown was of royal blue chiffon velvet trimmed with real imported lace and she wore a large gray picture hat to complete the costume. Her flowers were a corsage of gladioli blossoms, sweet peas and lilies of the valley. The matron of honor was gowned in flowered georgette over apricot silk and wore a large white hat. She carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas and gardenias.

Immediately following the ceremony Mr. Akers took his bride by motor to Oakland, Ore., where he is in the Commercial bank.

Among those from out of Eugene who witnessed the ceremony were the Harry Titus family, of this city; the bride groom's mother, Mrs. G. C. Akers, of Wasco; the bride groom's brother, Carol Akers, of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Johnson, of Hermiston; and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Hood and Miss Frances Hinkle, of Portland.

The new brides were motifs for social affairs of the past week. Mrs. D. R. Hamant was surprised Tuesday afternoon, by a group of her friends who spent the afternoon socially with her. The guest of honor was the recipient of an elaborate bed spread, the gift of the entire party. Ice cream and cake were served late in the afternoon. Mrs. C. E. Umphrey, Mrs. S. L. Mackin, Mrs. Omer Moore and Mrs. A. L. Wyman were hostesses for the affair. The others in the group were Mrs. A. A. Richmond, Mrs. Nelson Durham, Mrs. John Groves, Mrs. Elbert Bede and Mrs. Elbert Smith.

Another recent bride, Mrs. Samuel Veatch, was honored guest Saturday evening at a surprise handkerchief shower given by her grandmother, Mrs. Bert Stoneburg, at the home of Mrs. Veatch's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Meeks. Five hundred was the diversion enjoyed. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the evening. Those invited were Mrs. Harry Stoneburg and daughter Lucile, Mrs. Clarence Stoneburg and small daughter Lois May, Mrs. Nelson DeYoung, Mrs. Fred Anderson and baby, Mrs. J. Q. Willits, Mrs. R. R. Meeks, Mrs. Carrie Hemenway, Mrs. F. C. Coffman, Mrs. Phoebe Stoneburg, Mrs. Hugh Milligan and Mrs. Harley Gates and son Lester.

Master Kenneth Gerald Whitlock celebrated his first birthday anniversary very merrily Friday, sixteen of his little playmates having been invited to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Whitlock for an afternoon of play. A large birthday cake, adorned with one pink candle, centered the luncheon table. Ice cream, sandwiches and punch were served. Miss Luella Hurley assisted Mrs. Whitlock. The small guests included Ellen and Ellen Towne, Margaret and Dorothy Jackson, Vinal Randall Jr., who was accompanied by his mother, Mrs. V. T. Randall, Dana and Charlotte Burkholder, Margaret Lowry, Stella Smith, Dorothy Eckright, Harriett Osterlander and Ethel Mildred, Irma, Velma and Dale Bennett.

The Past Matrons' club, with their families and the past patrons with their families, picnicked Monday evening at the Veatch picnic grounds. Swimming was indulged in by some and all partook heartily of the tempting picnic dinner. Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Bennett, who are guests at the home of Mrs. Bennett's mother, Mrs. Pet Sanford; Mrs. Mateel Whitlock, who is visiting here, Miss Eloise Atkins, a guest at the Alison home, and Mary Eleanor and James H. Willis, guests at the home of their uncle, K. K. Mills. All were from Portland.

A reunion of the Teeters clan was held Sunday at Thurston at the Needham home. Mrs. Needham was Miss Ellen Teeters before her marriage. Those from here who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Lou McKibben and Mr. McKibben's mother, Mrs. Eliza McKibben, Mrs. Ann Teeters and the George and Charles Teeters families. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Teeters' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Combs, of Eugene, also attended.

The Toujours Prete club picnicked last evening on the bank of the river near Latham. Swimming and other sports were enjoyed and were followed by a tempting picnic supper. This club, of which Mrs. George A. Proctor was one of the sponsors, presented her last Thursday evening with a beautiful vase as a farewell token. The Proctor family left the following day for Medford to make their home.

The A. A. Richmond, S. L. Mackin and Nelson Durham families, with the Orville Spear family, of Alhambra, Calif., who are visiting relatives and friends here, picnicked Sunday at Scottsburg.

The women's relief corps, with the G. A. R. members, held their quarterly dinner Saturday. Following the dinner a short business session was held, which was followed by a social afternoon. Only four old soldiers were able to attend. Both organizations wish to express their appreciation for the courtesies shown them on the Fourth. The next regular meeting of the corps will be July 26.

Mrs. C. E. Umphrey's class of the Methodist Sunday school, made up of the young folks in the freshman and sophomore classes of the high school, and Roy Leonard's class of eighth grade boys of the same Sunday school picnicked Friday evening at the John Hull picnic grounds south of the city. Swimming was enjoyed, after which a picnic supper was served.

A large number attended the picnic dinner Friday evening at which the local members of the Eugene chapter of the Ladies of the Orient and their husbands were hostesses and hosts to members of that chapter, with their husbands and families, from other parts of the county. The Eugene I. O. O. F. band furnished a band concert for the evening.

A large attendance was out Friday afternoon to the regular meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance union at the Christian church. The next meeting will be held August 8 in the Methodist church. The churches of the city are to be the meeting places and are to come in alphabetical order.

The employees of the J. C. Penney store, with their families or friends, picnicked Wednesday evening of last week at Calapooza springs. A baseball game between the men and women employees was played, the score being 10 to 9 in favor of the men. Swimming was also participated in.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bennett, Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kem and the W. A. and Earl Garoutte families picnicked Wednesday evening of last week at the Mosby creek dam, the occasion being the birthday anniversary of Mrs. W. A. Garoutte.

The Presbyterian Women's Foreign Missionary society has adjourned for the summer vacation.

60 YEARS OLD LIKE BOY AGAIN

Elderly Man Describes Effect of Using Korex.

"I was so disgusted with life in general when I started taking korex compound," says Wilfrid Chadwick, of Lawrence, Massachusetts, "that I did not care whether it cured or killed me. In four days life had resumed its cheerful aspect and work was easy to do once more. Two months after, at a veterans' picnic, I was able to do some stunts on a trapeze and chinned the bar six times. Now I feel like a 16-year-old."

Many other wonderful reports have been made by users of korex concerning relief from premature old age, rapid decline, low activity, poor circulation, aching muscles and weakness after the flu. Those who wish to try korex compound may now get it in Cottage Grove at Kem's for Drugs. This announcement comes from the American distributors of korex compound.
