

Our Dollar Has a Permanent Purchasing Value Here!

When you are deluged with the broad and questionable value claims in "special sale" advertising, compare the quality of the offerings with similar qualities offered in this local branch of the World's Greatest Chain of Department Stores. Thus you can see how the alleged "reduced" prices compare with our every-day-the-same low prices. Then you will be in position to really judge the truth of the "Sale" claims.

The J. C. Penney Company never holds "sales". Our prices are fixed on receipt of our merchandise. We make it as low as is consistent with current market costs. Our buyers in purchasing millions of dollars' worth of goods for our 571 Stores, receive every advantage.

These purchases are generally made direct from the mills. We have the advantage of the best discounts. The value of our merchandise does not fluctuate with the changes of the wind.

Veatch, judges and clerks, in the Second Ward; and Mrs. Della Richmond, judge, and Mrs. Mabel Chambers and Mrs. Leita Stewart, judges and clerks in the Third Ward.

Done by order of the Common Council the 28th day of July, 1924. HOMER GALLOWAY, City Recorder.

Charter Amendment.

AN ACT to amend the Charter of the City of Cottage Grove, Oregon, by adding a new Chapter thereto authorizing and empowering the Common Council of the City to issue and sell negotiable bonds of the City to the amount of twenty-five thousand ($25,000.00) dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purpose of building and constructing trunk sewer lines in said city as follows: One trunk sewer to be known as the Chestnut Avenue Trunk Sewer, one to be known as the Second Street-Madison Avenue Trunk Sewer, and one to be known as the Sixth Street-Quincy Avenue-Tenth Street Trunk Sewer.

THE CITY OF COTTAGE GROVE DOES ORDAIN AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. That the Common Council of the City of Cottage Grove is hereby authorized and empowered to issue and sell negotiable bonds of the City to the amount of twenty-five thousand ($25,000.00) dollars or so much thereof as may be necessary for the purpose of constructing trunk sewers in said City as follows: One trunk sewer to be known as the Chestnut Avenue Trunk Sewer, one to be known as the Second Street-Madison Avenue Trunk Sewer, and one to be known as the Sixth Street-Quincy Avenue-Tenth Street Trunk Sewer.

Section 2. The bonds hereby authorized shall be denominated "Trunk Sewer Bonds"; they shall be a general obligation of the City of Cottage Grove, Oregon, in denominations of five hundred ($500.00) dollars each and to mature serially in numerical order at the rate of five hundred ($500.00) dollars beginning with and including the year 1925 up to and including the year 1929, and thereafter beginning with and including the year 1930 up to and including the year 1944 at the rate of fifteen hundred ($1500.00) dollars per year, said bonds to bear interest at not to exceed five per cent (5%) per annum from date thereof, payable semi-annually at the City Treasurer's office in Cottage Grove, Oregon, and the city reserves the right to retire any or all of said bonds after ten (10) years from date thereof.

Section 3. The Common Council of the City of Cottage Grove is hereby authorized and directed and shall include in its general municipal tax levy each year sufficient special levy to pay the interest on the bonds and to provide for the payment of the principal thereof when due.

Section 4. The Common Council of the City is hereby authorized to issue and sell said bonds from time to time as they may be needed for the purpose herein specified, but before any of them shall be sold they shall be advertised for sale by the publication of a notice asking for bids therefor to be published at Cottage Grove, Oregon, once a week for three (3) successive and consecutive weeks prior to the time of the sale, and they may also give notice of sale of said bonds in such other papers as they may deem to be best for the interests of the City in effecting a sale, but if no satisfactory bids for the purchase of the bonds be received they may sell them at private sale, but no sale either at public or private sale shall be made for less than the face value of said bonds and accrued interest.

Section 5. Said bonds shall not be taken or considered as a part of the bonded indebtedness limitation provided in Section 1 of Chapter XI or other section or chapter of the Charter of the City of Cottage Grove, but are hereby specially authorized by a vote of the people of the City of Cottage Grove, Oregon.

Section 6. The funds arising from the sale or disposal of all bonds provided for in this Act shall be known as "Trunk Sewer Fund" and shall be kept separate and apart from all other funds of the City of Cottage Grove and shall only be used to pay the costs and expenses that may be incurred by the City of Cottage Grove in the construction and building of such trunk sewers.

I, Homer Galloway, Recorder of the City of Cottage Grove, Oregon, hereby certify that the foregoing is a true and correct copy of the proposed amendment to the Charter of the City of Cottage Grove, by adding a new Chapter thereto, to be submitted to a vote of the legal voters of the said City of Cottage Grove, at a special election to be held Friday, August 15th, 1924, as the same appears in the original petition calling for said election. HOMER GALLOWAY, City Recorder. j31a14

COOLIDGE AND DAWES ONCE RAN A GROCERY

Ancestors of Candidates Were Partners.

Chicago.—The Coolidge and Dawes families are not so unacquainted as the distance between Massachusetts and Illinois might make it appear. Their ancestors knew each other and worked together, writes Oscar Hewitt in the Chicago Tribune.

Now it is "Coolidge and Dawes," candidates for the two highest offices in the land.

Many years ago—about 147—it was "Dawes & Coolidge," grocers, of Worcester, Mass. The Dawes of the firm was the great-great-great (perhaps another one or two) grandfather of Gen. Charles Gates Dawes, Republican nominee for vice president. The Coolidge of the firm was an ancestor of the President of the United States. In the brief day of a newspaper reporter the reconstruction of the Coolidge family tree is too tedious a task to say with certainty that the grocer Coolidge was the grandfather of several generations back of the present head of the nation. But one genealogy so indicates, while another places Grocer Coolidge on a different branch of the tree from that on which the President originated.

Companion of Revere. The grocer Dawes was William, referred to usually as "the patriot," who was the companion of Paul Revere, made famous by Longfellow.

Concerning his poem it has been printed that "Mr. Longfellow wrote to an acquaintance who sent him a little antiquarian volume, correcting some of the imaginative statements in 'Paul Revere's Ride':

"Please accept my thanks for your beautiful book, William Dawes and his ride with Paul Revere. I have read it with great interest and pleasure. I am afraid that you have convicted me of grave historic crimes and misdemeanors, but I shall not appeal."

This little volume referred to is an essay by Henry W. Holland, read before the New England Historic Genealogical society on June 7, 1876, in which is attached a genealogy of the Dawes family.

It was in that genealogy that the fact was disclosed that Dawes and Coolidge were in the grocery business.

The particular Dawes of interest today was named William, and was born October 2, 1719. The Daweses for five generations up to that time were builders and masons, but this William had a clubfoot and could not follow the trade. He became a goldsmith. In 1742 he married Lydia, daughter of Nicholas Boone, a bookseller of Boston, who, one authority asserts, published the first newspaper in America. Nine children were born of this marriage, of whom William "the patriot" was the second, born September 8, 1745. The third child was a girl, who was named Lydia, born February 10, 1747. She married John Coolidge, January 5, 1772.

Two Families Associated. It was with his brother-in-law, John Coolidge, that William Dawes, "the patriot," went into the grocery business. John Coolidge seemed to go right along with the Daweses at that time. After William Dawes, father of "the patriot," married a second time, a number of pieces of real estate in Boston were sold by the heirs of the first wife. Regarding one of them the Holland essay says:

"On January 2 following (1779) other heirs sold a piece of garden land on Green lane, on the northwest corner of the road to Barton's point, for 300 pounds to Daniel Jackson, Mrs. Dawes' brother, and finally they sold the Jackson mansion, on Sudbury street, to John Coolidge for 1,200 pounds. It was next to the Benjamin Eustis estate, and Samuel Pitts, and thus very near the Dawes mansion.

The elder William Dawes sympathized strongly with the colonies and one writer says that "his apprentices were among the party who threw the tea overboard in the Boston harbor.

The elder William Dawes was a strictly religious man, according to the light of his day, and is said not to have allowed his children to laugh or look out of the window on the Sabbath. Also, one history says: "Not only was the food for Sunday prepared on Saturday, that the day might be one of rest for all members of the household, but the shoes and garments were brushed and prepared before hand."

Man Votes for 70 Years; Finds Himself an Alien

New York.—Samuel Peterson of Longport, Ind., who has voted in the nation's elections for the last 70 years, discovered upon his return to this country from a visit to his native Denmark that he was an alien. He was permitted to land on the promise that he would go immediately to his home. Mr. Peterson told the immigration authorities that he had come to the United States with his parents when he was twenty, and never had thought it necessary to become naturalized.

Hatches Family in Tree

Columbia, Pa.—There is one hen in Lancaster county with high ideals, as she selected a tree in which to lay her eggs and hatch a family. She belongs to Ephraim Newcomer of Glen Manor, and she chose an apple tree in the orchard of her owner's neighbor, Jacob C. Shellenberger. Shellenberger found the hen had made her nest in a decayed crotch, eight feet from the ground. There were ten chicks about four days old in the nest.
