

BUSINESS PRESTIGE

The old custom of judging a person by his associates applies equally well in business circles.

Many of this community's more successful men have found a connection with this strong Institution an oftentimes unsuspected boost to their standing in the business and financial world.

A connection here, and the prompt, courteous, efficient service that goes with it, is available to all.

You and Your Friends Will Always Find the Best Banking Service Here

BANK OF COTTAGE GROVE

Cottage Grove, Oregon A Strong Bank

Tales of the Town

Mrs. O. D. Palmer and baby son returned to their home in Portland Saturday, after a visit at the home of Mrs. Palmer's mother, Mrs. C. E. Powers.

Miss Echo Zysert returned Saturday to her home near Monroe, after spending a week here visiting Ivan Barker and Miss Mabel Coons.

Filing cabinets, The Sentinel, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Marlow, accompanied by two daughters and son and the latter's wife, were here last Thursday from Sunnyside, Wash., and visited at the J. E. Banton home on the Coast fork.

The Marlowes were formerly residents of the London neighborhood. They had come to Eugene to visit another daughter who is in a hospital there. The son and his wife and one daughter are to go to Arizona to live while the rest of the party will return to their home in Sunnyside.

Scholl for specs. Weston Woods, who had been visiting his grandmother, Mrs. T. W. DeLong, returned to his home in Portland a week ago Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bartell and Donna May Bartell, accompanied by their guests, Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Lemert and Miss Thelma Spaulding of Denver, Colo., took a motor trip over Columbia highway the latter part of last week.

See Nelson for used Fords, Grays, Studebakers, Maxwells. Prices from $50 up.

Frank Miller and Violet Thomson, both of Cottage Grove, have been admitted as patients to a Eugene hospital.

A. G. Williams and George McQueen made a business trip to the Santiam country Thursday, returning Friday.

Mrs. Annie Petrie returned Thursday last from Portland, where she visited friends for a week.

I can give you perfect eyesight without glasses. Satisfaction guaranteed. Dr. H. A. Hagen.

Mrs. C. N. Brandon and son John, of Kansas City, Mo., left Sunday for home, after a visit of two weeks at the home of Mrs. Brandon's sister, Mrs. A. G. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Vandenberg have moved to Eugene, where they have purchased property at Twelfth avenue and Patterson street. Their property on Gibbs avenue in this city has been bought by the Christian church for a parsonage.

Don't let your car wheels go to pieces this dry weather. We tighten them the way they are made—THE FACTORY WAY West Side Garage.

W. H. Ostrander and Edd Jenks were down from the Bohemia mining district during the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Archie O. Knowles and children, of this city, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Young, of Eugene, left Sunday by automobile on a trip to Shasta Springs, California, Crater lake and the Klamath Falls country. They plan to remain away a week and may return by way of the Columbia highway and Portland. Mr. Knowles and Mr. Young were fellow forest rangers a number of years ago.

Galloway writes insurance. Dale Wyatt is expected home today from the Southern Pacific hospital in San Francisco, where he went to have his tonsils removed.

J. E. Loucks returned last week from Port Townsend, Wash., being accompanied by his daughter, Mrs. Olive Langston, who will make her home here. They made the trip of 400 miles by motor and brought

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson and baby daughter Arline and Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Milligan left Sunday to spend two weeks on a trip to the Tillamook benches and out the Columbia highway.

Miss Ina Pollock left Saturday for her home in Pasadena, after a visit at the home of Mrs. Susie Carlile and with other relatives.

*A* shingles in the warehouse, $3.30. Brick, lime, cement, plaster and a lot of other builders' needs. S. L. Godard.

Miss Minnie Wilcox, of San Francisco, is again visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. C. Cruson. Miss Wilcox visited here earlier in the season, going to Corvallis to visit another sister, Mrs. Coleman, during the time Mr. and Mrs. Cruson were in San Francisco.

The Roy Short family have joined the R. A. Trask and G. M. Scott families at the Veatch camp ground on Mosby creek. The Trask and Scott families have been camped there for a month.

Used car sale at Nelson's. See my bulletin board.

A. R. Spearow is expected home this week from Paris, where he went as a member of the American Olympic team. He will fill the pulpit at the Presbyterian church Sunday. Mrs. Spearow left Wednesday to meet her husband in Portland.

Sam Damewood returned Tuesday from an extended visit in California. Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Carpenter, of Portland, arrived Friday to spend a week at the home of Mrs. Carpenter's parents, Pastor and Mrs. A. J. Adams. The Adams also had with them last week Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Watts and son Kenneth, of Baker, who returned home Monday. Mrs. Watts is also a daughter of the Adams.

Looseleaf systems of every kind. The Sentinel.

The Marcola baseball team will play the London ball team at Calapooza springs Sunday.

Fred Wright has returned from Belknap springs, where he had been for two weeks receiving treatments.

Miss Lottie Harvey, of San Francisco, is spending a month visiting the G. W. McQueen and James Potts families in this city and the Jess Griffin family in Eugene. Miss Harvey is a niece of Mrs. McQueen, Mrs. Potts and Mr. Griffin.

Scholl, your optometrist. Miss Elizabeth Hess arrived Sunday from San Francisco for a visit at the home of her sister, Mrs. W. J. White.

Mrs. Docia Norris left Sunday for her home at Klamath Falls, after a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Willis.

W. H. Fuson and his son Alvin, with the latter's wife, are expected to arrive this week from Kansas City, Mo., for a visit with Henry C. Fuson father of W. H. Fuson.

The Sentinel is entitled to the salesbook business of Cottage Grove on the basis of quality and price.

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Godard returned Sunday afternoon from a week's visit in Eugene at the home of their daughter, Mrs. E. R. Spencer.

Miss Dorothy Davis, of Lincoln, Neb., and little Miss Joanne Hall, of Waitsburg, Wash., sister and niece of Mrs. W. J. Woods, are guests at the Woods home.

L. C. Michener spent the week end at his home in Washougal, Wash.

Bookkeeping outfits of every kind. The Sentinel.

George A. Proctor, who recently moved to Medford, was here on business the fore part of the week.

Misses Evelyn Veatch and Hazel Swanson expected to reach Skagway, Alaska, last Sunday on their summer vacation trip, according to a letter written by them while they were on the water before reaching Alaska. They were to spend two days in Skagway before going on north.

A Stromberg Carburetor for every car. West Side Garage.

Charles Handy, of Oakland, Calif., is visiting this week at the home of his cousin, Mrs. Charles Eakright.

Mrs. Ellen Burton and sister, Mrs. Mary Vaughn, of Eugene, visited for a few days last week at the C. W. Caldwell home, going on Saturday to Grants Pass for a visit.

Mr. and Mrs. William Graham, recently of Omaha, Neb., were visitors last week at the home of Mrs. Graham's uncle, G. W. Caldwell. While here they enjoyed a trip to the fish hatchery on the McKenzie with the Caldwelles. Mr. Graham is a graduate interne from a hospital at Omaha and Mrs. Graham is a graduate nurse, and they are looking for a location. They have gone to Elmira for a visit at the Elmer Caldwell home, after which they will go to Seattle. They were charmed with the beauty of Oregon country and especially with that of the Cottage Grove vicinity.

A daughter, Marjory Jean, was born Friday to Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Stitzel.

A daughter was born Saturday to Mr. and Mrs. William Stroud. She has been named Lucile.

S. V. Allison and daughters Jean and Alice and Miss Eloise Atkins who is spending the summer at the Allison home, spent Saturday and Sunday visiting Mr. Allison's mother and brother at Roseburg.

Frank Stiller went to Newport Friday to take hot bath treatments for rheumatism.

Mrs. G. W. McQueen went to Roseburg Sunday, returning Monday and bringing with her Miss Eileen Small, who visited for a few days at the McQueen home.

Miss Helen Janssen, of Minneapolis, Minn., has arrived to spend the remainder of the summer as the house guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Spores. Mr. and Mrs. Spores and their guest, accompanied by Mrs. Spore's parents, who joined them in Eugene, spent the week end at Foley springs on the McKenzie.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wright returned Monday night from an outing of a week at Foley springs. Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Leonard left Friday for a two weeks' outing at Bandon beach.

H. A. Hagen returned Friday from spending two weeks in Portland, where he took a chiropractic post graduate course.

Special ruled forms of every kind. The Sentinel.

S. S. Lasswell went to Portland Monday to join his family there for a week's visit. All will return the latter part of this week. Lindlev Lutz is employed in the Bank of Cottage Grove during Mr. Lasswell's absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Callison, of Pleasant Hill, visited Sunday at the John Massey home.

Galloway for insurance, 611 Main. Mr. and Mrs. Fay Allison left Sunday to visit Mrs. Allison's sister in Portland. They plan to be away for three or four weeks and will visit various places of interest in the northern part of the state.

O. W. Hays, wife and daughters Eleanor and Evelyn returned Sunday from their vacation trip to Rockaway beach and other of the Tillamook resorts.

Ray Nelson, auto electrician. Mrs. Seldon Powell left Tuesday morning to visit relatives in Oregon City.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Fenner, of Minnesota, spent two days here last week visiting at the home of Mrs. Fenner's cousin, A. W. Helliwell. They left Thursday for home. The Fenners had visited in the southern part of the state before coming here.

Office equipment of various kinds. The Sentinel.

Mrs. A. M. Jacobs left Saturday to visit relatives in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Wallace arrived Saturday night from Portland to spend a vacation of two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. Joe Wallace, parents of Frank Wallace. They were accompanied from Portland by Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Rogers and Mrs. Roger's mother, Mrs. Renfro, who went on Sunday to Crater lake. The Rogers and Mrs. Renfro will visit here next Sunday on their return trip.

Miss Ollie Cornelius, of Eugene, spent the week end visiting at the home of her great aunt, Mrs. Melvina Willis.

A. D. Gillette of Salem is visiting this week at the home of his brother, A. Gillette.

A. W. Helliwell went to Boswell springs Sunday to spend a week taking treatments for rheumatism with which he has been suffering recently.

Mrs. W. B. Stinnett went to a Eugene hospital Saturday to receive treatments.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. See, of Portland, and Miss Stella See, of Rochester, N. Y., arrived Sunday to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Chaloupka. Mrs. Chaloupka and Mr. See are sister and brother, respectively, of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Chaloupka. He is a brother of Thomas Allen.

Mrs. Albert Stocks has purchased a new Ford coupe through Woodson Brothers and the following have bought new and used touring cars: C. A. Olson, Walker; Harry Elfing, A. W. Coons, Curtin; Fred Thomas, R. N. Sprague, Darrel Pitcher, C. C. Fouts and Chris Haldeman.

Miss Virginia Bosley, who recently returned from an extended visit in California, is spending the week with her mother and brother near Wendling. She will return to Cottage Grove Sunday for a short visit before going to Medford to visit the George Proctor family. Following that she will return to California to attend high school this winter.

A new musical organization to be known as the "Big Four" orchestra has been organized, the membership including Mrs. George Berry, piano; E. A. Steen, violin; Albert Griffin, double bass; saxophone and cornet and "Mickey" Clark, drums. They are engaged for the season at the Amlauf pavilion which opens Saturday night.

Mrs. Mangzie and her mother, who were driving north from San Bernardino, Calif., stopped over Tuesday afternoon and night and visited with Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Woodson.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Sudtelt and son DeWayne spent last week end on a motor trip to the Tillamook benches.

A son was born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Skilling, of Eugene, former local young people. He has been named William Wallace.

A heavy pear crop in the Lorane country is reported by Henry Bonnets and son Floyd, who made a trip to that neighborhood Tuesday. Pear picking will start next week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson, of Portland, arrived Tuesday to spend their vacation at the home of Mr. Robinson's mother, Mrs. M. V. Phillips. Miss Perle Robinson, who had been in Portland visiting at the home of her brother, returned with them. William Pfifer, also of Portland, is also a visitor at the Phillips home.

Harvey Robinson, who spent the summer as property man on the six-day circuit of the Ellison-White chautauqua company, returned Wednesday morning from Montana, the chautauqua season having ended there.

MOLALLA MEN MOVE MILL TO MOSBY CREEK TIMBER

John Keru and son, recent arrivals from Molalla, have purchased a piece of land and considerable timber on Mosby creek. They have moved their sawmill from Molalla and are locating it on the property of the late Sam Lewis. The timber purchased is on the Sam Lewis and Joe Perkins places. The mill will have a 10,000 capacity but no date has been given out for the opening of operations. C. M. Parker made the sale of the timber and land.

Fire Bell for New School. An electric fire bell is being installed in the new grade school building, now nearing completion. The building will be finished by the middle of September.

The Andrew Brund family have returned from a motor trip to Raymond, Wash., where they visited relatives.

Ben Lurch, of Portland, was here Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Meeks left Tuesday by automobile for Vancouver, B. C., on a vacation trip.

Mrs. Francho Stubblefield and daughters June and Jean returned Monday from a visit with relatives at Roseburg.

Mrs. Martha Woolley, who had been here a month at the home of her son, L. L. Woolley, left Tuesday for a visit at Spokane.

Mrs. E. W. Crockett, of Portland, arrived Tuesday for a visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. C. E. Dunn.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Ulmer, who had been here for a month visiting at the home of their daughter, Mrs. John F. Woodard, left Tuesday morning on the return trip to their home in New York city.

Mrs. H. H. Harms, who had been visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson, returned home Sunday, being accompanied by her sister, Mrs. J. G. Cahn, who is visiting here from San Luis Obispo, Calif., and by another sister, Mrs. B. L. Wilhelm, of this city, who will visit briefly with their sister, Mrs. Wilhelm was accompanied by her daughter Ruth.

Mr. and Mrs. August Wiese left Monday for their new home 16 miles south of Portland.

John Merryman left Monday for Bray, Calif., where he has secured employment.

William Ostrander and Edd Jenks returned to the Bohemia district, where they are working the Fairview mine.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Ken returned Thursday from Bandon, where they spent Sunday and Monday at the beach.

Frank King left Wednesday for his home at Raymond, Wash., after spending a few days visiting his mother, Mrs. Edgar King, and looking after property interests.

Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Tiresse, of Victoria, B. C., spent the week end visiting Mrs. Tiresse's brother, J. J. Morrison.

E. E. Chaloupka went to Portland Tuesday to drive home a new Chrysler car.

N. J. Nelson Jr., Peter Nelson and Marvin Smith went to Portland yesterday morning, returning last night with two Overland blackbirds and one Overland Spad delivery truck.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Allen and children, of Los Angeles, are visitors at the homes of Mr. Allen's parents and brother at Latham. He is a brother of Thomas Allen.

Mrs. Albert Stocks has purchased a new Ford coupe through Woodson Brothers and the following have bought new and used touring cars: C. A. Olson, Walker; Harry Elfing, A. W. Coons, Curtin; Fred Thomas, R. N. Sprague, Darrel Pitcher, C. C. Fouts and Chris Haldeman.

Miss Virginia Bosley, who recently returned from an extended visit in California, is spending the week with her mother and brother near Wendling. She will return to Cottage Grove Sunday for a short visit before going to Medford to visit the George Proctor family. Following that she will return to California to attend high school this winter.

A new musical organization to be known as the "Big Four" orchestra has been organized, the membership including Mrs. George Berry, piano; E. A. Steen, violin; Albert Griffin, double bass; saxophone and cornet and "Mickey" Clark, drums. They are engaged for the season at the Amlauf pavilion which opens Saturday night.

Mrs. Mangzie and her mother, who were driving north from San Bernardino, Calif., stopped over Tuesday afternoon and night and visited with Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Woodson.

Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Sudtelt and son DeWayne spent last week end on a motor trip to the Tillamook benches.

A son was born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Skilling, of Eugene, former local young people. He has been named William Wallace.

A heavy pear crop in the Lorane country is reported by Henry Bonnets and son Floyd, who made a trip to that neighborhood Tuesday. Pear picking will start next week.

Mr. and Mrs. George Robinson, of Portland, arrived Tuesday to spend their vacation at the home of Mr. Robinson's mother, Mrs. M. V. Phillips. Miss Perle Robinson, who had been in Portland visiting at the home of her brother, returned with them. William Pfifer, also of Portland, is also a visitor at the Phillips home.

Harvey Robinson, who spent the summer as property man on the six-day circuit of the Ellison-White chautauqua company, returned Wednesday morning from Montana, the chautauqua season having ended there.

MOLALLA MEN MOVE MILL TO MOSBY CREEK TIMBER

John Keru and son, recent arrivals from Molalla, have purchased a piece of land and considerable timber on Mosby creek. They have moved their sawmill from Molalla and are locating it on the property of the late Sam Lewis. The timber purchased is on the Sam Lewis and Joe Perkins places. The mill will have a 10,000 capacity but no date has been given out for the opening of operations. C. M. Parker made the sale of the timber and land.

Fire Bell for New School. An electric fire bell is being installed in the new grade school building, now nearing completion. The building will be finished by the middle of September.

And What Else, Please
A conscientious desire to serve you in every way we can makes this store a most desirable and satisfactory place in which to trade.
Fresh Groceries always of the highest quality await your orders.
McQueen's Grocery

OBITUARIES
Charles Berggren.
News of the sudden death of Charles Berggren, formerly a resident of London, was received in this city Tuesday evening. Mr. Berggren having met his death that afternoon while at work in a logging camp at Glenbrook, near Corvallis. The body arrived here yesterday afternoon. Funeral arrangements have not yet been completed. Mr. Berggren was killed instantly when hit by a block of wood. He is survived by his widow and three children, Wayne, Arleigh and Thelma, of Glenbrook; his mother and two brothers, Mrs. Johanna Berggren and Elmer and Alex Berggren, all of London. Mr. Berggren was born in Sweden January 4, 1884, and came to the United States when but four years of age. He first lived in Washington, later coming to Oregon. He was married June 28, 1916, to Miss Bernice Tower, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Grant Tower, of this city. Mrs. Grube is ill in East. Mrs. Harry Grube, who left here in the fall with Mr. Grube, to spend a year at their old home in Pansuatawney, Pa., is in a serious physical condition following an operation, according to word received by Mrs. Schofield Stewart, their daughter, last Saturday. Mrs. Stewart left immediately, accompanied by her brother, Raymond Grube, his wife and son Joseph, of Dexter. Mrs. Grube was not expected to live at the time of the first message but more recent word received by Mr. Stewart was that she still had a chance to recover. TEN MILLIONTH FORD IS GREETED BY LOCAL ESCORT
The ten millionth Ford arrived in Cottage Grove Friday shortly before noon escorted by several automobile loads of Ford owners of this city. The local people met the famous Ford and its occupants, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kulick, several miles south of Cottage Grove. After an hour's visit here with the local Ford representative, O. E. Woodson, they went on to Eugene, where they were entertained at a Ford staff picnic. CARD OF THANKS.
We wish to express to our friends and neighbors our sincere thanks and appreciation for their many acts of kindness and for their beautiful floral offerings at the time of the death of our beloved son, grandson and nephew, Harold Cecil Hastings. Mr. and Mrs. John Hastings, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Kelly, Wilbur Kelly, aug14pd. THORNTON CORNERS.
Aug. 11.—Mr. and Mrs. H. Streeters, of Cottage Grove, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rose. Kelley Perini spent last week at the hop yard at Springfield. Miss Miriam Piper, of Coast Fork, visited in this Neighborhood Wednesday. Marvin Smith, of the Grove, visited at the C. A. Dodge home Sunday afternoon. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beebe, of Ogeena, Canada, and their cousin, Mrs. Hutchison, who have been making a tour of the Pacific northwest, stopped here Friday and visited with former neighbors in Ogeena, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Rose and Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Class. For 35 cents a little wanted will sometimes do the work of a $5-a-day auctioneer. jne22p

Church News
Presbyterian Church—Rev. A. R. Spearow, pastor. Sunday school at 10, Men's Forum at 10, morning hour at 11, junior Endeavor at 3, evening service at 7:30.
Baptist Church—Tenth and Adams, E. R. Clevebeger, minister. This church stands for the full gospel message. A welcome is given to all who come. Bible school at 10, preaching at 11 and 7:30. Young people's meeting at 6:30. Prayer meeting Thursday evenings at 7:30. After the prayer meeting the pastor conducts a class in bible study.
Christian Science Church—Corner of Jefferson avenue and Second street. Sunday services at 11 a. m. Wednesday services at 8 p. m.
Christian Church, the "home-like" church—A. J. Adams, minister. Sunday school at 9:45, sermon and communion at 11, Christian endeavor at 6:30, evening service at 7:30.
Methodist Church—Rev. J. H. Ebert, Pastor. Sunday school at 9:45, morning worship at 11, Epworth league at 7, evening service at 7:30. Everybody is welcome to attend all of these services.
Free Methodist church—Corner of Monroe avenue and south Fifth street—D. S. Forrester, pastor, Sunday school at 10, forenoon services at 11, evening service at 7:30. Prayer meeting at 7:30 Thursday evenings.
Seventh Day Adventist Church—West Main street. Services every Saturday. Sabbath school at 10, church service at 11; prayer meeting Wednesday evenings at 7:30.

Choice Steaks
T-Bone, Sirloin, Porterhouse, Club
or Round Steaks of the finest and tenderest cuts—delightfully tasty when broiled or fried—shop for them here.
Quality Market
Free Delivery CULVER & ANDERSON, PROPS. Phone 46

The Cottage Grove Electric Bakery Sanders & Bennett, Props.

PIES
Delicious pies that make the children cry for more—and grownups too. We bake 'em. A choice, fresh variety every day.
City Bakery
Autin Lindsay, Proprietor

Shopping Baskets Free
We are giving a beautiful Japanese shopping basket free with Swift's soap, see Our West Window.
Peaches
The late Crawford crop is about over. We are receiving nice Elbertas this week for canning.
Melons
Just received another fresh shipment of Water-melons, also Dillard Cantaloupes.
Smith-Short Grocery
THE STORE THAT APPRECIATES YOUR TRADE