

The Modern Farmer

The modern farmer today is not only a hard-working man, as he always has been, but he is also something of a chemist, an engineer, a salesman and a student. And he is very much an executive, a man of business.

It is not surprising, then, that so many of them have checking accounts here. If you haven't opened yours yet, come in as soon as possible—today is the best time.

THE BANK THAT BACKS THE FARMER

BANK OF COTTAGE GROVE

Cottage Grove, Oregon A Strong Bank

Tales of the Town

E. E. Ellsworth and son Harris, who have been engaged in the sawmill business near Corvallis since leaving Cottage Grove a year and a half ago, were here Saturday looking over possible mill sites in this vicinity.

Miss Ruth Bede returned Sunday from spending two weeks visiting relatives at Toledo, Wash.

Filing cabinets. The Sentinel. Miss Eunice VanDenburg, who spent her two weeks' vacation here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles VanDenburg, and in Eugene, where the VanDenburgs moved last week, returned to Klamath Falls Sunday.

The A. A. Richmond and E. W. Arnes families attended a family reunion at Corvallis Sunday.

Scholl for specs. Mrs. May Vandercse, of Monroe, visited last week at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. D. Palmer, on Mosby creek.

Mrs. Jerry Lingo, of Washington, a former resident, visited relatives here during the past week.

Mrs. G. B. Arnes returned several days ago from a Eugene hospital.

See the new Overland coupe at Nelson's. Only $810 with cord tires.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Young and two children, of Central Point, leave today for home, after spending a week at the home of Mr. Young's father, G. H. Young.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Monroe, who left here five months ago on a motor jaunt down the Pacific coast, have returned and will locate in Drain. They traveled as far south as Mexico.

I can give you perfect eyesight without glasses. Satisfaction guaranteed. Dr. H. A. Hagen.

Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Brown, of San Fernando, Calif., accompanied by their chauffeur, Joaquin Sanderson, spent Friday and part of Saturday visiting at the Charles Beidler home. The Californians were on their way home from a trip to the national parks, Rainier, Glacier and Yellowstone, and to Victoria, B. C. They visited here with the Beidlers on their way north a month ago. They have been traveling for more than two months.

Last call on bathing suits at The Fair.

Mrs. T. E. Baldwin returned Saturday from a Eugene hospital, where she had been taken on account of infection which had developed from a bite by a pet monkey. The wound was not at first thought dangerous but when infection set in Mrs. Baldwin's condition became serious within a few hours. The infection responded quickly to treatment and the patient was in the hospital but a few days.

Galloway writes insurance.

C. W. Burrows, of Drain, visited Friday with his son, Bert Burrows.

George H. Dahl left Monday for Portland to attend Buyers' week.

Master Kenneth Clark left Friday for Portland to join his mother, Mrs. Mattie Clark, on a week's outing at the coast. Kenneth makes his home here with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bartels.

Why take a chance where you buy your used car when Nelson has all kinds at all prices and terms?

Market Conditions at Smith-Short Grocery

SUGAR—Sugar has advanced 30 cents a sack wholesale this last week.
FLOUR—This item is very firm with the advance in all grades.
POTATOES—Potatoes are cheaper. Best Idaho now retailing at $3.00 per cwt.
MEAT and LARD are both advancing in price.
EGGS—We are paying 32 cents cash for eggs.
COFFEE of all grades is advancing.
PEACHES—The peach crop is just about over. We still have some nice canning peaches at a reasonable price.
PEARS—We have just received our first lot of canning pears. Pears are a little higher this year but are of a good quality.
TOMATOES—Next week for canning.
MELONS—Oregon melons are now in at lower prices.
In fact almost every item in the grocery line is advancing. Make out your winter supply order, bring it in and let us figure on it with you.

THE STORE THAT APPRECIATES YOUR TRADE

Mrs. Pearl Suter has accepted the position at the Bon Ton confectionery left vacant by the resignation of Miss Dora Mosby.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smick, of Canyonville, who had been visiting at the home of Mrs. Smick's cousin, Mrs. Nelson Durham, left Friday for Drain to visit for a few days before returning home.

Overland—the lowest priced quality car—Nelson sells them.

Mrs. Josiah Porter is in a Portland hospital for medical treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert G. Moulton, of New York city, visited during last week with Mrs. Moulton's sister-in-law, Mrs. J. A. Merryman, who makes her home here with her sister, Mrs. Herbert Eakin. The Moultons also visited with Miss Lula Curran, Mrs. Worth Harvey and Mrs. Ernest Oberg, former college chums.

Special in men's sport sweaters. See them at The Fair.

Mrs. Robert Hanna was brought home Friday evening from a Eugene hospital. She is slowly recovering from a severe case of diphtheria.

The James Redford family, of New York city, visited during Dorena, left Friday for Soda Springs on an outing. Mrs. Melissa Christmas, who had been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Redford, returned to her home here that day.

Scholl corrects vision.

BAKERY GOODS That Delight All

Look here, folks! Maybe you don't know it, but you're "missing out" on a treat. Lest another day pass, give our Cakes, Pies, Pastry and a variety of other deliciously tasty oven products a trial. Their wholesomely baked qualities will make you reach for a "second or third helping."

FAULTLESS BREAD ALWAYS

The Cottage Grove Electric Bakery Sanders & Bennett, Props.

William Thum left Monday on a ten-day vacation, which he expects to spend at Seattle, Vancouver and Portland.

Miss Eulalia Evans, of Willamina, is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Clyde Leonard.

Miss Fannie Young and Miss Theo Smith left Sunday for Shasta, Calif., to visit at the home of a sister of Miss Smith's.

All kinds of filing equipment. The Sentinel.

We make our bread as good as it is possible to make it because we are endeavoring to build up

A Permanent Business Bread, cakes, pies, cookies—all kinds of bakery goods.

City Bakery Lindsey & Davis, Props.

Mrs. Clinton Medley, of Hillsboro, who visited for two weeks at the home of Mr. Medley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Medley, and with his aunt, Mrs. John Barker, left Saturday for Oregon City to visit other relatives before returning home.

Mrs. E. C. Branstetter, of Portland, accompanied by her son Kelly, of Eugene, visited Sunday at the home of Mrs. Branstetter's sister, Mrs. John Barker.

A shingles in the warehouse, $3.30. Brick, lime, cement, plaster and a lot of other builders' needs. S. L. Godard.

A second Miller motor lumber carrier has been installed at the Walter A. Woodard lumber docks.

Miss Alice Griswold, of Eugene, returned home Sunday, after a week's visit at the home of her aunt, Mrs. E. W. Arnes.

Albert Woodard spent the fore part of the week in Seattle at the home of his sister, Mrs. Chester Horton.

Watch our windows for new fall sweaters at The Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sherwood and daughter Marjorie, accompanied by Mrs. Sherwood's sister, Miss Gladys Hastings, former residents of this city, but now of Portland, who were enroute to their home from a motor trip to Crater lake, the Oregon caves and other points of interest in southern Oregon, spent the week end at the home of Mr. Sherwood's mother, Mrs. B. F. Thrasher.

The Sentinel is entitled to the salesbook business of Cottage Grove on the basis of quality and price.

Mrs. H. T. Jorgensen, of Los Angeles, arrived Monday from Salem, where she had been called on account of the death of a sister, and is now visiting at the home of Mr. Jorgensen's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jorgensen.

Miss Ruby Baugh, of Dorena, and Miss Beatrice Tidd, of Wendling, were guests of Miss Marian White Sunday afternoon.

Lowest first cost. Lowest maintenance and highest resale value. OVERLAND. Nelson sells 'em.

Mrs. L. I. Douglas, of McCloud, Calif., but a former resident of this city, who was recently seriously injured in an automobile accident near Grants Pass, is getting along satisfactorily but very slowly. She is now in a San Francisco hospital under care of a specialist. Her physician hopes to have her up on crutches next week but at present her injured limb is in a cast.

Mrs. Douglas is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bartels, of this city.

Bookkeeping outfits of every kind. The Sentinel.

Mrs. S. V. Allison returned Wednesday last week from Portland, having completed a course in marcelling. The Ansel Abbott family, of Portland, brought her home by motor and spent a few days here, returning Friday accompanied by Miss Eloise Atkins, of Portland, Christmas, who had been visiting at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Redford, returned to her home here that day.

Shadow-proof slips, step-in suits at reduced prices at The Fair.

Homer Patten, an employe at the Anderson & Middleton lumber company's camp near Rujada, was taken to a Eugene hospital Saturday with a fractured left arm. He was struck by a piece of wood while working around a donkey engine.

C. A. Bartell was in Portland the fore part of the week on business.

Miss Maude Lamson, who spent most of her summer vacation in Walla Walla with relatives but who is now visiting in Corvallis with other relatives, is expected home soon. Miss Lamson, with Mrs. Francis Lacey, of Corvallis, were here last Thursday and Friday visiting at the home of John Lamson, father of Miss Lamson and an uncle of Mr. Lacey. Mrs. Lacey also visited Mrs. Clyde Leonard.

DANGER AHEAD—The season approaches when cars skid easily. In ten seconds you may have a collision that will do $5000 personal damage to someone. You can't afford to run the risk of a heavy damage suit when insurance policies are so cheap. I have a very attractive policy at a low cost. See me. Tom Aubrey.

Ernest W. Arnes underwent a major operation Saturday at the Southern Pacific hospital in San Francisco. He is getting along satisfactorily.

Miss Juda Trunnell, manager of the local telephone exchange, left Saturday for a week's visit in Portland with friends. Upon her return, she is in company with her parents will motor to southern Oregon, where they will visit with relatives. Miss Myrtle Potts is filling Miss Trunnell's position during the latter's absence.

A shingles in the warehouse, $3.30. Brick, lime, cement, plaster and a lot of other builders' needs. S. L. Godard.

The H. B. Griggs family left Saturday for Pendleton for a two weeks' visit at the homes of relatives.

Mrs. F. G. Stinnett has returned from a Eugene hospital.

The John Allen family and Mrs. Frank Golden and son Lee, of Portland, visited during the week at the home of Mrs. Charles McKibbin, a niece of Mrs. Golden and Mr. Allen.

Stewart for good plumbing.

Miss Alice Garetson, a former resident of this city, but now of Berkeley, Calif., returned Tuesday from a week's visit in Portland as a house guest at the W. F. Johnson home. The Johnsons are also formerly of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Lancaster motored to Seattle Saturday to visit with relatives.

Special ruled forms of every kind. The Sentinel.

J. T. Smith has let the contract for the erection of a modern bungalow on his Washington avenue property.

The S. L. Mackin family returned Sunday from an outing at Ocean-side.

Dale Wyatt returned Thursday last from the Southern Pacific hospital, where he underwent an operation for the removal of his tonsils.

Galloway for insurance, 511 Main.

J. H. Callahan motored up from Portland Saturday and on the following day took home Mrs. Callahan, who had been receiving treatments at Boswell springs. They were accompanied by Mrs. Callahan's sister, Mrs. Harold Dugan. Mr. Callahan returned Monday on business, with the city council.

Miss Adelaide LaCasse has returned from a trip to Portland. She also visited with her brother in Seattle and with friends in Seaside.

Ray Nelson, auto electrician.

John Trunnell transacted business in Eugene Monday.

where they had been visiting at the home of their mother. Miss Bosley plans to leave in a few days for Medford to visit at the George Troctor home. From there she will go on to California to spend the winter with Mrs. Troctor's mother and attend high school.

Frank King returned Monday to his home at Redmond, after spending several days here looking after property and visiting at the home of his mother, Mrs. Edgar King. He rented his residence at the corner of Jefferson avenue and Twelfth street to Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Johnson.

George Marksberry left Monday to attend Buyers' week in Portland.

Miss Lillian Leonard returned Friday evening to spend the remainder of the summer at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Leonard. She attended the summer session of the normal at Monmouth and afterwards visited two weeks with friends in Willamina, former home of the Leonards.

The H. E. Eastland family, of Reedsport, were guests Friday at the F. L. Grannis home.

Mrs. Lloyd Smith and daughter Marie returned to their home in Portland Sunday, after a visit at the home of Mrs. Smith's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ashby. Miss Marie had been with the Ashbys for five weeks and Mrs. Smith for a week.

The W. O. Wilson family have returned from a two weeks' outing at Mt. Rainier park, Wash.

John W. Veatch shipped a carload of sheep to Portland the fore part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hemenway returned Sunday evening from a week's visit in Portland at the homes of their daughter, Mrs. C. E. Price, and Mrs. Hemenway's sister, Mrs. Frona Giltner.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bartell and Miss Donna May Bartell went to Bart's Inn at Lundpark Saturday, taking with them Miss Maxine Nelson. Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Nelson Jr. and son Bobby were guests of the Bartells at the cabin over Sunday. Mr. Bartell returned Sunday evening but Mrs. Bartell with the two little girls will remain there the remainder of the month.

Miss Ray Godard was in a Eugene hospital last Thursday and Friday receiving medical attention. She accompanied Claude Freeman, who is employed here in building the new school house, to Salem Sunday for a visit at the Freeman home. Mr. Freeman returned Monday but Miss Godard remained for a longer visit.

Miss May Robinson and Miss Gladys Oakes, of Springfield, were here Sunday looking for apartments preparatory to returning for the opening of school next month. Both are teachers in the grade schools.

The Archie Knowles family returned yesterday from their motor trip to Crater lake.

Mr. and Mrs. True Moulton and daughter, of Long Beach, Calif., were guests during last week at the home of Mrs. Moulton's cousin, Mrs. J. T. Short.

Mrs. E. J. Howe and daughter, Miss Bertha, returned Monday from a three weeks' visit in Hamilton, Wash., at the home of Mrs. Howe's parents and in Everett with other relatives and friends. Upon their return they stopped in Gresham and visited briefly.

Arkel McClure, of Berkeley, Calif., spent Saturday night at the home of his cousin, James T. Short.

Addison Williams, of Divide, fractured his right leg just above the ankle Monday evening, when he caught his foot in the bottom of a hay rack into which he was loading baled hay at the B. H. Knis farm. Mr. Williams is getting along satisfactorily.

J. J. Carr, who spent his furlough at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Carr, returned last week to Seattle, where he will board the U. S. S. Mississippi. Mr. Carr has two more years with the navy.

A. J. Pierce returned Friday to his home at Alpine, after a visit at the home of his niece, Mrs. Tom Miller.

Mrs. Boone Shortridge underwent an operation last Thursday for the removal of cataracts. Mr. Shortridge accompanied her to Eugene, where the operation was performed.

Mrs. Rosetta Pitcher accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Jan the Jenks, who had been visiting here, upon her return Friday to her home in LaConner, Wash. Mrs. Pitcher will remain there for a visit.

An eight-pound daughter was born Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. David H. Rempel.

A six-pound daughter was born Tuesday to Mr. and Mrs. Avery Hartzell.

Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Dreher, of Seattle, who are camping in the Bohemia district, are getting some wonderful views of the scenery there. Mr. Dreher's profession is scenic photography.

J. L. Brogan, who had been in the Bohemia district several months, has gone to Canyonville to prospect.

Mrs. M. L. Waples and daughter Helen have returned from a three months' visit in Waldow, Kan., at the home of Mrs. Waples' mother, Mrs. Hattie Pitzer.

Mrs. A. E. Hand visited during the week at the home of her sister, Mrs. M. C. Robbins.

Mrs. W. L. Darby is spending a week at Foley Springs taking treatments for rheumatism.

Ren Sanford and his mother and aunt, Mrs. Pet Sanford and Mrs. Ida Miller, spent Sunday in Salem at the home of A. D. Smith, brother of Mrs. Miller and Mrs. Sanford, and Richard Burch, nephew of the two women. Upon their arrival home that evening they were welcomed by Mrs. Ida Dysinger and Charles Chalmer, of Roseburg, who spent the evening here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Latin and the C. A. Harmony family, of Buckley, Wash., who were returning home from an outing trip to Crater

What Can We Do for You, Madam?

Beg Pardon? Vegetables? Yes, plenty. Deliciously fresh and very tempting. Won't you stop in—today—and take some along to go with your luncheon or evening meal? While you're in, look over our shelves—stocked high with an ever-complete line of Canned, Package or Bottled Goods very reasonably priced. How's that? You haven't the time. Then phone us—No. 65—for anything you may need in the grocery line. We'll deliver promptly.

McQueen's Grocery

lake, spent last Thursday evening at the C. E. Umphrey home.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Veatch have moved into the Omer apartments.

The C. E. Umphrey family left Monday morning to spend Mr. Umphrey's vacation at Portland, Seaside and the Tillamook country.

The Cottage Grove Electric bakery has bought a new Overland delivery truck from N. J. Nelson Jr.

A fire at the former creamery building on north Seventh street brought out the fire department Saturday evening but it was extinguished without aid from the department.

Emery George, who had been visiting with his uncle, William George, returned last Thursday to his home in Harding, Mont.

H. Hiramanda and family, of Azalia, and the John Clifton family, of Petaluma, Calif., visited during the week with Mr. and Mrs. I. B. Morris.

Joseph Taylor, of Medford, accompanied by his son, was here Friday looking after property interests.

Mrs. Lydia Sarff, of Salem, was a guest Saturday at the home of her son, C. L. Sarff. Mrs. Sarff is 84 years old but very active for one of that age.

William E. Thurn has returned from a Eugene hospital.

W. A. and Boyd Kelly were in Eugene Saturday on business.

Lincoln Taylor returned Sunday from a Eugene hospital, where he recently underwent an operation.

The Roy Bellows family and Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jones, of Roseburg, spent Sunday evening with Mrs. Carrie Hemenway.

Herman Edwards motored to Portland Saturday to meet Mrs. Edwards, who was returning from a three weeks' visit with her parents at their summer home at Gillette park, Newman lake, near Spokane. They arrived home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin B. Marlow and Mr. Marlow's sister, Miss Lillie Marlow, of Sunnyside, Wash., who had been visiting at the J. E. Banton place at London, left Thursday for Tucson, Ariz., on account of Mr. Marlow's health.

Mrs. Augusta McCormick is in a Eugene hospital suffering from a nervous breakdown. A serious report reached here yesterday as to her condition was unfounded.

Mrs. J. G. Cann returned Tuesday to her home in San Luis Obispo, Calif., after a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Robinson.

Mrs. O. M. Miller returned yesterday from a visit in Portland.

Mrs. A. C. Loucks is in Portland attending Buyers' week.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Allison returned Tuesday night from Portland, where they had been visiting, and left yesterday for points of interest in southern Oregon.

Mrs. J. C. Wallace received word Tuesday from Portland of the serious illness of her father, Thomas Allen.

T. H. Churchill, of Los Angeles, is visiting at the home of his sister, Mrs. Minnie Nichols.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sturges, Grants Pass, returned home yesterday, after a brief visit at the home of their son, D. W. Sturges. Mrs. W. E. Nicholson, sister of Mr. Sturges, also of Grants Pass, accompanied by her son, who was returning home from a visit in Brownville with relatives, stopped over Tuesday night at the Sturges home and accompanied Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sturges home.

Louis Sturges has returned from Grants Pass, where he spent the summer at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Sturges.

Mrs. S. A. Howe and Miss Laura Howe, of Eugene, have spent a few days here this week at the home of their daughter and sister, Mrs. K. B. Mills. Miss Howe is convalescing from a long illness and this is her first visit to Cottage Grove in several months.

N. J. Nelson Jr. sold the following cars the past week: Claude Arne and Oliver Jones, Overland blackbirds; William Thurn, Overland redbird; Electric bakery, Overland speed delivery; Stanley Brookhart, used speedster and John Stiger, used Gray roadster.

The R. C. Quigley family motored to Albany Sunday and spent the day with Mrs. Quigley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. V. McEfee.

Miss Mary Ellen Benson and Miss Louise Wynne returned Monday from Wolf Creek where they spent last week visiting Miss Benson's father, J. S. Benson.

Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Robbins, former residents of Cottage Grove, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Olson, all of Oakland, California, were guests Monday of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Miller. They were returning from a northwest trip.

Mrs. Raymond Trask and two sons Dan and Burdick, accompanied by Mrs. Trask's mother and sister, Mrs. J. B. Lewis and Mrs. Ernest Oberg, left Tuesday for Portland. Mrs. Lewis accompanied Mrs. Oberg on her home with the Obergs. Mrs. Trask and two sons went on to Forest Grove to attend an Adventist camp meeting for two weeks.

Frank Safley underwent an operation at a Eugene hospital Monday.

Miss Luella Hurley returned Sunday from Tacoma, where she spent her vacation.

William Heck, of the Farmer's Union store, is in Portland this week on business.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Cornutt and daughter Miss Lucile are on a motor trip to the Tillamook beaches.

Miss Ardis Lewis left Tuesday morning for Blue Earth, Minn., where she is a teacher in the high school, after spending the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Lewis.

Mrs. Rebecca Medley is suffering from a broken collar bone and three broken ribs, injuries sustained Saturday when she fell down the rear steps at her home on north Ninth street. A daughter, Mrs. C. Neas, of Oakland, and another daughter and a son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Cad Harmon, of Portland, are here to visit Mrs. Medley. A son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. E. K. Medley, of Eddyville, spent Saturday and Sunday here, returning home Monday morning.

Miss Ethel Livesley, of Salem, returned home Tuesday, after spending a ten-day vacation here as the guest of Miss Naomi Wynne.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Lebow returned Monday from Gold Beach, where they spent three weeks visiting Mrs. Lebow's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Johnson.

Mrs. E. A. Mills, of Seattle, is a visitor at the home of her brother, E. A. Kappaff.

Mrs. Sidney Richardson, sister of the late Mrs. Lucy Holland, visited Sunday with Mrs. George Kohl, on her way to Portland from her home in Montague, Calif.

Miss Hazel Swanson and Evelyn Veatch returned Tuesday night from a two weeks' vacation trip to Alaska.

Here's Two Jits for You

When you buy for cash you are entitled to a better price than when you buy on credit. The better your credit is, the easier it is for you to pay cash. The more you save by paying cash the better your credit will be. We give to our customers the two "jits" on every dollar to which they are entitled for paying cash.

ALL DAY DELIVERY

People's Cash Market

Cutsforth & Dickson, Props.

- PICKLES
- OLIVES
- BUTTER
- BREAD
- CHEESE
- CLEANLINESS
- QUALITY
- SERVICE
- PRICE