SOCIETY

The M. P. G. club observed its eleventh anniversary Wednesday afternoon of last week at the home of Mrs. Roy Short. A business session was held at which the following officers were elected: Mrs. Elbert Smith, president; Mrs. W. J. Woods, secretary-treasurer. Bouquets of golden anemones, African marigolds and zinnias in pretty arrangement made the room attractive. Following a social afternoon, a two-course luncheon was served. A large birthday cake, adorned with 11 white candles, centered the luncheon table. At each end an attractive bouquet of pink sweet peas and daisies was placed. The party cards also carried out the color scheme. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Fannie Davis, of Lincoln, Neb., mother of Mrs. Woods; Miss Minnie Wilcox, of Portland, sister of Mrs. C. C. Cruson, and Mrs. E. J. Titus, who was here from Eugene visiting her son, Harry Titus. The club will hold its next meeting Tuesday at the home of Mrs. J. T. Smith.

Miss Marian White entertained a few friends Thursday last at an informal evening of five hundred in honor of Misses Bertha and Fern Hays, of Eugene, the object of the party being that the honor guests might become better acquainted with the Cottage Grove young people. The affair was held at the home of Mrs. Georg Bjorset. Garden flowers were the attractive decorations for the room and tables. Delicious refreshments were served following the cards. Those to enjoy the affair were Mrs. H. A. Hagen, Mrs. Ivan Warner, Mrs. H. P. Edwards, Miss Bethel Gowdy, Miss Evelyn Ventch, Mrs. Georg Bjorset, Miss Hazel Swanson, Miss Margaret Galloway and Miss Wilma White.

The Toujours Prete club enjoyed its annual no-hostess dinner party Wednesday evening of last week at the home of Mrs. R. L. Stewart. This was the first meeting since the summer vacation. Following the dinner a business meeting was held at which the following officers were elected: Miss Rita Kelly, president; Miss Ermine Violette, vice-president; Miss Clara Milne, secretary-treasurer. A social evening followed. The club will hold its next regular meeting September 24 at the home of Mrs. Fred Bennett.

The Baptist church congregation honored Mr. and Mrs. Avery Minter with a farewell party Wednesday evening of last week at the J. H. Ponsford home. The Minters have gone to Seattle, where Mr. Minter is taking up evangelistic work. A social evening was enjoyed, after which dainty refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Minter were the recipients of a beautiful set of tenpins. Mr. Minter's place as superintendent of the Baptist Sunday school has been taken by Roy Howard.

Completely surprising Mrs. Alvis Weeks, nee Miss Marie McCargar, about twenty of her friends gave her a kitchen shower Friday afternoon at the home of Miss Esther Silby. The presentation of the gifts was cleverly arranged. Miss Frances Mackin and Miss Madelle Beidler, made up as pickaninies, coming to Mrs. Weeks' door with a large basket, supposedly filled with clothes but in reality filled with gifts. After a social afternoon, dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. W. H. Osterander entertained about 20 friends last Thursday afternoon at a shower in honor of her daughter, Mrs. Clarence Spencer, of Eugene, who was visiting with her mother. Social conversation and needlework were the diversions enjoyed, after which dainty refreshments were served.

Miss Eloise Knox celebrated her tenth birthday anniversary happily Saturday afternoon, when 20 of her little playmates responded to invitations issued by her mother, Mrs. Frank Knox. Games and contests were played, after which a birthday lunch was served on the lawn.

Mrs. O. W. Hays entertained 30 school mates of her daughter Evelyn Monday afternoon, the occasion being Evelyn's ninth birthday anniversary. Games and play made the afternoon hours pass speedily. Dainty refreshments were served.

The Baptist ladies' aid society will entertain tomorrow evening at a benefit ice cream and watermelon social, to be held on the lawn at the K. K. Mills home. The object is to raise money for improvements at the Baptist church.

The Tuesday Bridge club will hold its first meeting of the season next Tuesday with Mrs. C. J. Kem.

The W. R. C. will hold their regular meeting Saturday afternoon.

The Tuesday Study club met this week at the home of Mrs. George Matthews. The study of several American composers was taken up and a 10-minute talk was given on each. Selections of Jessie L. Gaynor were given by Master Harold Mackin and Armand Wynne Jr. Mrs. George Matthews, who had the study of Carrie Jacobs Bond, gave her vocal number, "The End of a Perfect Day." Selections from the other composers were given on the violin. Guests of the club were Miss Esther Silby and Mrs. A. L. Wynne. The next meeting will be held September 23 at the home of Mrs. C. E. Umphrey.

The Methodist foreign missionary society met Wednesday afternoon of last week in the church parlors and elected the following officers: Mrs. J. H. Chambers, re-elected president; Mrs. C. A. Beidler, vice-president; Miss Grace Blackwell, secretary; Mrs. C. E. Umphrey, treasurer; Mrs. J. E. Hendricks, corresponding secretary. Mrs. J. H. Chambers had charge of the study program which was on the missionary work in Malaysia.

The LaComus club held its first meeting this season Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. C. J. Kem. After a social afternoon, a two-course luncheon was served. The rooms and table were attractive with fall flowers. The next meeting will be held September 23 with Mrs. W. W. McFarland.
