Keep Coolidge and Elect Dawes

Vote For the Common Sense Candidates
—Their Records Recommend Them

"I am for economy. After that I am for more economy."—Coolidge

He proved his faith by his works. This administration has saved the people $6,000,000 daily in taxes as compared with 1921. It has loped off 95,456 employees from the federal payrolls.

Dawes, the budgeteer, put the country on a business basis by cutting out the deadwood in governmental affairs. Deficits in former years have been turned into surpluses. The national debt has been reduced $2,750,000,000 in three years.

FOREIGN POLICY SPELLS PEACE ABROAD AND PROSPERITY AT HOME

The Dawes plan has made possible rehabilitation of Europe, which means better markets and better prices for America's farm crops. Limitation of armaments is an administration policy and makes for peace as well as reduced costs of government.

The Republican tariff, linked with restrictive immigration, has brought prosperity to the man who toils. Wages were never so high, they would never buy so much, as today.

COOLIDGE POLICIES HAVE RE-ESTABLISHED PROSPERITY—CONTINUE THEM

When this administration took office, it faced all the problems of reconstruction. Deplorable conditions existed. The people were suffering from a tremendous deflation. Interest was high and capital scarce. There was general acute financial distress. Our citizens were compelled to sell their government bonds around 85 that they had bought in wartime at par.

A complete change has been accomplished. Never before in peace time has there been such constructive accomplishments as since March, 1921. Prosperity for all the people has replaced general distress. Industrially, the country was never on firmer ground. Agriculture, in dire plight when the Republican party came into power, faces a brightening future. Our depreciated government bonds have all risen above par and one is selling at better than 106.

SOCIETY

The birthday anniversary of Mrs. Isaac Land, of this city, and her brother, George Gross, of Portland, who was here visiting, were the incentive for a reunion of the children of Mrs. Land Sunday. The affair was held at the Land home near Dorena. Mr. Gross's eightieth anniversary fell on Saturday and Mrs. Land's seventy-eighth anniversary on Tuesday. Her six children, M. P., Verne, Roy and Alex Garoutte and Mrs. Frank Kelly, all of this city, and Mrs. W. F. Hart of Portland, with their husbands or wives or families were present together with a few friends, totaling about 40. A birthday dinner was served at noon, the table being centered with a huge birthday cake lighted with candles. The afternoon hours were spent socially.

Mrs. Herman Edwards entertained the Elmarites club at a 1 o'clock luncheon Tuesday at Hotel Bartell. The tables were effectively decorated with autumn leaves of brilliant hues, orange lighted candles and Halloween place cards and favors. The dining room was also attractively decorated with autumn leaves and Halloween trimmings. The afternoon hours were spent at five hundred, Mrs. Charles S. Hall winning high honors and Mrs. Fred Anderson receiving the consolation prize. Additional invited guests were Mrs. Dale Hawkins, Mrs. Charles S. Hall, Mrs. Ted Mayes, Mrs. D. A. Weir, Mrs. Harris Ellsworth and Miss Ruth Stewart.

Miss Ila Cooley and Miss Charlotte Cooper, artistically gowned in Chinese costumes, were attractive hostesses to the King's Herald band Saturday afternoon at its regular meeting held in the Methodist church parlors. The study of titling and stewardship was taken up. Chinese mite boxes were given each member. Refreshments of punch, wafers, cookies and cake were served. The election of officers resulted as follows: Ila Cooley, president; Charlotte Cooper, vice president; Genevieve Woodard, secretary; Dorothy Umphrey, treasurer; Francis Mackin, pianist. The next meeting will be held November 8, with Miss Ruth Ebert and Miss Alma Morgan as hostesses.

A towel shower for Mrs. Dale Hawkins, a recent bride, was held last evening in connection with the regular meeting of the Toujours Prete club, of which Mrs. Hawkins is a member. The affair was held at the home of Miss Rita Kelly and was a complete surprise to the honor guest. The rooms were attractively decorated with dahlias of brilliant shades. The hours were pleasantly spent at sewing and in social conversation and a dainty luncheon was served. Miss Connie Coleman and Miss Elsie Milna were additional guests for the evening. The next meeting of the club will be held November 5 with Miss Ermine Violette.

Mrs. Elbert Smith was hostess Tuesday afternoon to the M. P. G. club at its regular meeting. Fancy work and social conversation were the diversions. A delicious two-course luncheon was served, the tables being most attractive with their autumn decoration. A large basket filled with fruit centered each of them. Autumn leaves of bright colors and fall flowers were the decorations for the rooms. Mrs. D. E. Hamant was an invited guest of the club.

The Presbyterian ladies' aid society realized $16.25 from its experience social held Wednesday afternoon of last week. About 65 women were present. Sides had been chosen to increase interest in the social. The side of which Mrs. James Porter was captain turned in $80.25 and the side of which Mrs. A. W. Swanson was captain turned in $80.00. A dollar has been contributed since.

The Jolly Bunch held their first dance of the season Friday evening in Phillips hall, with Mrs. Vernon Hazen, Mrs. A. W. Harrington and Mrs. M. P. Garoutte as hostesses. About forty couples were present. Following the dances dainty refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Vessey, of Portland, guests at the A. E. Hamloth home, were additional guests for the evening.

About 20 members were present Friday afternoon at the regular meeting of the W. C. T. U. held in the Baptist church. Mrs. H. C. Hart, who returned that afternoon from the W. C. T. U. state convention at Corvallis, gave an interesting account of the convention. The Methodist church was selected as the regular meeting place of the organization.

The Social Twelve met Thursday last at the home of Mrs. R. L. Stewart. Fancy work and social conversation made the afternoon hours pass pleasantly. Dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. C. S. Roberts and Mrs. H. W. Stevens, the latter of Berkeley and a house guest of Mrs. B. E. Job, were invited guests.

The H. D. S. club met informally Sunday evening at an impromptu pot luck dinner held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Chaloupka. Following the dinner the hours were spent socially. The club will hold its first regular meeting since the summer vacation tomorrow evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Dickson.

Most of the members of the W. R. C., but only four members of the G. A. R., were present at the quarterly dinner held Saturday noon in honor of the birthday anniversaries of members of those organizations. Mrs. Carrie Hemenway entertained the Tillicum club last evening at its regular meeting. Five hundred was the diversion and a delightful two-course luncheon was served. Dahlias of gorgeous shades and African marigolds were the attractive decorations of the rooms. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Graham, Mrs. Inna Bengar and William Thum.

Mrs. W. A. Garoutte entertained a few relatives and friends at dinner Monday evening in honor of Mrs. H. J. Jorgensen, the occasion being her birthday anniversary.

Mrs. N. J. Nelson Jr. entertained the Tuesday Bridge club this week at its regular 1 o'clock luncheon. Fall flowers were the artistic decorations.

Miss Anna Cothwall and Miss Beth Bede were hostesses yesterday afternoon to Mrs. George Matthews' Sunday school class.
