LONDON.

(Special to The Sentinel.)
Nov. 14.—Elisher Geer went to Eugene Wednesday for a week's visit with relatives and friends.

A physician was called from Cottage Grove Tuesday to attend Joe Geer and his two small sons. They were all suffering from tonsillitis, but are much improved.

John Massey killed another coyote Thursday, making three in as many weeks.

Among the many in Cottage Grove Wednesday were Mr. and Mrs. Bert Newton, Joe Abeene, Elisher and Levi Geer, N. S. Hays, Howard Cox, Mrs. George Sutherland, Mrs. Jack Hopman and Mrs. W. L. Townsend.

An eight-pound daughter was born Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Harold Abeene.

Axel Berggren has been unable to work for several days because of an injury to one knee, caused by a broken strand of cable imbedding itself in the flesh.
