THE WRECKING CREW.

The interest some of the democratic papers are taking in the family troubles of the democratic party is amusing—probably even more amusing than the interest some republican papers take at times in the family affairs of the democratic party.

Some democratic newspapers are very much concerned just now because the republican party objects to the membership therein of Senators LaFollette, Brookhart and others of their ilk.

If these democratic newspapers are so solicitous about the welfare of these unworthy gentlemen—if they dislike to see them out in the cold where they may catch a fatal political sickness—there is nothing to stop these newspapers from welcoming them into the democratic party.

It is quite plain that they do not belong in the republican party.
The republican voters have spoken upon that point.

LaFollette carried only his own state, with hundreds of thousands of socialists voting the republican ticket. Even Minnesota and the Dakotas, with their strong radical elements, turned him down cold.
Minnesota even went so far as to retire Magnus Johnson, a bulwark in the senate of the LaFollette obstructionists.

In Iowa, republicans to the number of some 200,000 voted for the democratic nominee for the senate as a rebuke to the obstructionist policies of their own candidate, Brookhart, who had repudiated Coolidge.

As a matter of fact, LaFollette, Brookhart, Magnus Johnson and the others who bolted the party, did not have to be read out of it.
They removed themselves from it.

In our ordinary lives we do not welcome as business associates those who have just failed in a superhuman attempt to ruin the business with which they were once associated. When LaFollette and his tribe did their utmost to wreck the republican party, when they formed a party of their own and repudiated the republican nominee, they made their own bed and now they should be satisfied to lie in it.

It is presumptuous on their part to expect important committee appointments at the hands of the party they attempted to wreck and which they still hope to wreck.
If they meant what they said in the recent campaign, they should be above wishing to associate with the kind of men they represented Coolidge and the leaders of his party to be. Surely they should want no part in helping to carry to fruition the promises made by the republican party.

They want no such part. They want important committee assignments for the sole purpose of attempting to block the republican program.

Coolidge and the republican party made certain promises. Those who elected Coolidge and the republican candidates expect such promises to be fulfilled.

Coolidge and the republican party are responsible for the fulfillment of such pledges.

It is plainly up to the republican party to put in important positions those who will help in the fulfillment of the pledges made.

LaFollette, Brookhart & Co. are not the men for such places. Honest-to-goodness, died-in-the-wool democrats would be much preferable.

SOCIETY

Corvallis Gazette Times: Mrs.
Lydia Stouffer and her granddaughter, Miss Belle Burkholder, were guests of Miss Minnie Sievers and Miss Ruth Stewart of the O.
A. C. hospital at dinner Sunday, it being the 79th birthday anniversary of Mrs. Stouffer. Mrs. Stouffer came to Oregon in 1878, settling at what is now Cottage Grove, but was then called Slab Town. She and her family came in a covered wagon from California, as the railroad was not yet built over the mountains. At that time Jacksonville and Phoenix were the leading towns of southern Oregon. Had Mr. Stouffer lived until November 11, it would have been the 58th anniversary of their marriage. Mrs.
Stouffer is a native of Missouri but says she prefers Oregon to any state in the union. She is one of the two living charter members of Cottage Grove Eastern Star Chapter No. 4, one of the first organized in the state.

A Thanksgiving reunion was held at the James Potts home, those outside the family present being Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Griffin and Hal Hunnicut, of Eugene, the G.
W. McQueen family, Mrs. William Ostrander and two children, Albert Griffin, Mrs. Bird Petrie, Elmer Neet and Jerry Wilkins, the latter of Eugene.

Sixty or more were present at the reunion of the Uncle Burne and Aunt Jane Veatch clan at the Robert Mosby home Thanksgiving day. A sumptuous dinner was served at 1:30. Mrs. Sam Veatch Sr. and Mrs. Elhanen Veatch, of Portland, were the only ones present from outside points.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beidler entertained with a Thanksgiving dinner party Thursday evening.
Guests were Mrs. Beidler's uncle, Sam Jones, of Los Angeles, Miss Daisy Johnson, Mrs. N. M.
Oglesby and Mr. and Mrs. J. P.
Graham.

Mrs. Melvina McKibbin, Mrs.
Marks and Mrs. Roy Morris entertained the Jolly Bunch club Friday evening at their Thanksgiving dance. Light refreshments were served following the dance.

The Willing Workers class of the Christian Sunday school honored Mrs. Wilson Stennett, one of their members, with a shower last Wednesday afternoon at the Stennett home.

Jap Is Injured In
Auto Wreck

Jimmie Cooper, a Jap, was seriously injured, the car in which he was riding was wrecked and the Lyman Adams car sustained minor injuries this afternoon when the latter car was struck by the car in which the four Japs were passengers. The accident happened a short distance south of the Mote store at Latham, near the point where another car owned by Adams was struck and wrecked several weeks ago.

Both cars were traveling south.
Mr. Adams had passed Mrs. Albert Hull and child, who live near his place a mile beyond and was slowing down to pick them up. He had given the stop signal, he stated.

The other car, traveling in the same direction, tried to get in behind the Adams car to avoid collision with a bar approaching from the south. The driver stated that when he noticed that the car behind was going to stop he stepped on his foot brake, which caused his car to skid and go into the ditch. As it went into the ditch it struck the right rear fender of the Adams car.

The injured Jap was brought here to the office of Dr. Frost.
He had sustained a partially dislocated shoulder and several cuts on the head.

The Japs were on their way to California from Portland.

Howe Store Is Again
Nearly Wrecked

A runaway team hitched to a heavy wagon was headed straight for Howe's confectionery Friday evening and probably would have done much damage had not one of the horses stumbled over the curb, which caused them to slow down, when they were stopped by a man whose name was not learned.

A plate glass window of the same store was wrecked a few weeks ago by an automobile.

Auto Thieves Interrupted.
Two thieves were interrupted Saturday evening just as they were about to make away with Frank Garouttes's Cleveland. The garage door had been opened, the car taken out and the men were shutting the door as Mr. Garoutte, who had heard them, came out of the house. They made their getaway.

Fords Crash.
Two fords, one driven by Mrs.
Albert Hull and the other by D. S. Forrester, crashed Sunday forenoon at the Fifth and Main streets intersection. A front wheel was taken off the Forrester machine and the Hull machine was severely damaged. Mrs. Hull stood the damages.

LONDON.

(Special to The Sentinel.) Nov. 28.—Hazel Thorn has been absent from school several days suffering from an infection in her arm.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cox and children went to Eugene Friday.
Thanksgiving day passed very quietly in this neighborhood. The Woodard mill gave all their employees the day off and several families entertained with family dinners. Mr. and Mrs. George Sutherland had as guests Mr. and Mrs. Howard Cox and children; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Lyons entertained Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wood and son Robin and Miss Jessie Pruitt; Mr. and Mrs. William Ewing ate dinner with their son Roy and family and Mr. and Mrs.
Robert Small had as guests Mr. and Mrs. John Small and son Carl, Mr. and Mrs. Julian Small, J. B.
Rouse and George White, the latter of Cottage Grove.

Mr. and Mrs. John Sutherland spent Thanksgiving with Mrs. Sutherland's relatives on Row river, and Mrs. Sutherland's mother, Mrs. Elmore, accompanied them home to spend the remainder of the week.
