SOCIETY

About 50 members of the Perini families of this city and vicinity held a reunion Thanksgiving day at the home of Mrs. Mary Dellaguardi, of Divide, daughter of D. Perini. A bountiful dinner was served and the afternoon hours were spent socially.

Miss Esther Sibly entertained the Social Twelve club this afternoon at its regular meeting. A profusion of yellow and white chrysanthemums made the rooms attractive. Fancy work and social conversation were the diversions.

The birthday anniversaries of Miss Daisy Johnson and Ken Sanford were the incentive for an informal affair Monday evening at Miss Johnson's apartments. Games and music were the diversions and a delicious luncheon was served at the close of the evening.

A delicious two course luncheon was served, the table being centered with a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums in artistic arrangement. Invited guests of the club were Mrs. Mary Smith, Mrs. O. M. Kem, Mrs. Amelia Currin, Mrs. Mary McCargar, Mrs. A. R. Spearow, Mrs. F. E. Mendenhall and Mrs. Connell.

The Methodist women's foreign missionary society met yesterday afternoon at the home of Mrs. S. L. Mackin. The study program was made interesting by Mrs. J. R. Hendricks, leader. Additional guests for the afternoon were Mrs. F. L. Grannis and Mrs. Safley. Mrs. D. A. Forbes has become a member of the society. Tea and wafers were served.

A wedding of interest to the bridegroom's friends here is that of Joe Arnold, of Portland, son of Mrs. Josiah Porter, of this city, to Miss Guera Hage, also of Portland, which took place Thanksgiving day in Portland at the home of Mrs. Roy Romaine, a Christian church minister officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Scott entertained the Tillicum club last evening. Five hundred, the usual diversion, was enjoyed and a delicious two-course luncheon was served, the table being centered with a beautiful bouquet of white chrysanthemums. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Swanson and Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Wheeler were additional guests for the evening. The club will hold its annual Christmas tree at its next meeting, December 17, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Meeks.

The Past Noble Grands' club honored and completely surprised Mrs. John Veatch, one of their members, today by dropping in for a social afternoon. This was the regular meeting day of the club, and as Mrs. Veatch hasn't been well enough to attend the club meetings for some time, the club decided to spend the afternoon with her. Refreshments, which the club members had brought with them, were served.

The girls' glee club of the high school will entertain the football boys at a banquet tomorrow evening in the lunch room of the high school. The election of a football captain for next year will follow.

Mrs. Ivan Warner will entertain the Elmarites club this evening at an informal bridge party. Mrs. Charles Hall is to be an invited guest of the club.

The Elmarites club holds its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Samuel Veatch at the home of her mother, Mrs. K. R. Meeks.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Short will entertain the H. D. S. club tomorrow evening at its regular meeting.

The M. P. G. club will meet Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. A. L. Wynne.

The Kensington club will hold its regular session tomorrow afternoon.

Not So Dense.
"I think that children are not as observing as they should be," said the inspector to the teacher.
"I hadn't noticed it," replied the teacher.
"Well, I'll prove it to you;" and turning to the class the inspector said:
"Some one give me a number."

"Thirty-seven," said a little boy eagerly.
The inspector wrote 73 on the board, and nothing was said.
"Will some one else give me a number?"
"Fifty-two," said another lad.
The inspector wrote down 25 on the board, and smiled at the teacher. He called for another number and young Jack called out:

"Seventy-seven; now see if you can change that."—Pupile Opinion (London).

The Tuesday Evening Study club met this week at the home of Mrs. H. W. Titus, with Mrs. Titus and Mrs. R. A. Trask as leaders. The program was on the castles and abbeys of Scotland, the Shetland and Orkney Islands and the manufacturing districts of Glasgow.

The Mrs. C. J. Powell entertained at dinner Thanksgiving day, their guests being Mr. and Mrs. Major B. Huntley, of Springfield; Mr. and Mrs. Ira Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hecker and Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Powell, of Albany.

Mrs. R. E. Short and Mrs. K. K. Mills attended a 1 o'clock luncheon today at the Osburn hotel, Eugene, at which the Eugene chapter, Ladies of the Nile, entertained in honor of the queen of Nydia Temple, of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. John Trunnell Jr. gave a birthday dinner November 28 in honor of Mrs. Trunnell's father, F. B. Van Nortwick. Mr. Van Nortwick succeeded in extinguishing 53 candles with one breath.

The Christian ladies' aid society held a business meeting yesterday afternoon in the church parlors. Plans for a bazaar and dinner in the near future were completed.

Delight Valley Society.
Mr. and Mrs. William Ellsworth Nixon celebrated their fortieth wedding anniversary Wednesday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. E. J. Kent. The couple recalled the day of their wedding at Belleview, Kans., December 3, 1884, when Mr. Nixon borrowed the only spring wagon in that part of the country and he and his bride, Sarah Catherine Pickford, drove 30 miles to the county seat, making the return trip by the same method. That was a good day's driving then but in these motorized days it is only a matter of two hours.

A color scheme of blue and white was carried out in the decorations of the Kent home and beautiful Oregon chrysanthemums were the decorations for the living room.

Reside Mrs. Kent the children are: Lee and Hugh, of Delight Valley; Ray, of Portland, and Mrs. Viva Lindamood, Rosalie, Neb. There are 11 grandchildren.

The honored couple received a number of beautiful, valuable and useful presents.

The guests were the Hugh Nixon, Lee Nixon, E. J. Kent, C. A. Moore, T. D. Hodges and J. A. Joll families; Messrs. and Mesdames M. A. Horn, W. A. Keene, E. J. Sears, C. H. Haight, J. J. Thatcher, W. A. Witcher, William Pickard, Walter Pentico, Roy Murray, S. W. Sowers, Charles Conner and A. W. Cornutt; Mesdames Alma Sears, Cora Thatcher, Lillian Fulton (Agenda, Kans.) and H. H. Cotter, and Edwin Anderson.
