SOCIETY

Mrs. Raymond Grube, Mrs. J. T. Smith, Mrs. L. W. Peters, Mrs. W. H. Daugherty, Mrs. R. A. Trask, Mrs. D. J. Scholl and Mrs. G. C. Dyott entertained the Tanglefoot club at its regular session Tuesday evening. The hall had been transformed into an attractive Christmas scene. Small fir trees, with Christmas trimmings, were in the nooks of the room and lights were shaded with green and red Christmas bells and artificial icicles hung from them. Punch was served throughout the evening.

Mrs. Alcinda Hawkins was honored and completely surprised Thursday afternoon, her seventy-ninth birthday anniversary, by a number of her friends. The affair was also an informal reception for Mrs. Hawkins' sister, Mrs. Matilda Kohl, who recently arrived from McGregor, Ia., to spend the winter here. A birthday cake, made by Mrs. Hawkins' youngest daughter, Mrs. Thomas Parkinson, of Portland was served.

A wedding pretty in its simplicity was performed at 7 o'clock Monday evening, when Miss Kathleen Durling became the bride of William H. Handy. The ceremony was held at the home of the officiating minister, A. J. Adams, of the Christian church, in the presence of only immediate relatives and a few friends of the couple. Immediately following the ceremony the couple left on a honeymoon trip to Portland and Longview.

Mrs. R. R. Meeks, Mrs. Rosa Currin, Mrs. James Jaster and Mrs. R. C. Quigley entertained the Presbyterian ladies' aid society yesterday afternoon in the church parlors. The hours were pleasantly spent socially and delicious refreshments were served.

Mrs. A. L. Wynne entertained the M. P. G. club Tuesday afternoon. Artistic bouquets of fall flowers were about the rooms and on the luncheon table. Fancy work and social conversation were the diversions and a delicious luncheon was served.

The Elmarles club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Samuel Veatch at the home of her mother, Mrs. R. R. Meeks. Fall flowers were the attractive decorations for the table and rooms. A delightful two-course luncheon was served.

Mrs. Merville Veatch, Mrs. Nelson Durham and Mrs. D. J. Scholl entertained the Constellation club this afternoon at its regular meeting. The hours were spent socially and tempting refreshments were served.

Mrs. S. V. Allison will entertain the Past Matrons' club Monday at its annual Christmas meeting. A 1 o'clock luncheon will be held at Hotel Bartell.

The W. C. T. U. will hold its regular meeting tomorrow afternoon in the east room of the Methodist church.

The Baptist ladies' aid society held its regular all-day meeting yesterday in the church parlors.

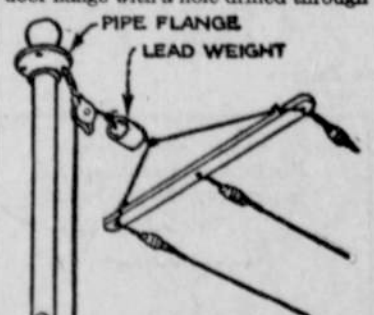

The women's relief corps will hold its election of officers Saturday afternoon.

Silk Creek Society.
Mrs. W. G. Bittering gave an old-fashioned quilting bee last Thursday, except that the comfortables were tied instead of quilted. Mrs. Bittering treated her guests to a bountiful and delicious dinner served cafeteria style.

Aerial Kinks

It is often quite a problem how to attach a pulley to the top of the aerial mast properly, especially if it is made of pipe. An excellent method of doing this is shown in the illustration. The end of the pipe is threaded and a floor flange with a hole drilled through

It is screwed on; it is then an easy matter to attach the pulley to the flange.

Another trouble frequently experienced is that the bridle breaks where it is tied to the rope or the rope itself breaks near this point, and both aerial and rope then come down, making it necessary to "shin" the pole to thread the rope through the pulley again. To prevent this trouble a small piece of pipe or other metal weight should be tied to the end of the rope, as shown, so that the rope cannot slip through the pulley but can be lowered and then tied to the bridle again.
