

"GIFTS THAT LAST"

MENDENHALL Jewelry Store

Cottage Grove, Oregon

High Grade Jewelry and Watches

Newest and Latest

Fine Watch Repairing

S. P. WATCH INSPECTOR

MONUMENTS FOR LESS

Until February 1, 1925, we are making reduced prices on all memorials in stock. Any memorial ordered now will be delivered before Decoration day and need not be paid for until June 1, 1925. See us now while stock is complete and you can save money. We will be pleased to call at your home and show you what we have to offer. E. C. Lake, 58 W. 11th St., Eugene, Oregon. d11-22p(2)

Tales of the Town

Upon renewing his subscription to The Sentinel, H. H. Scott, of Corvallis, writes that he is still looking forward to the time when he can again make this city his home. He wrote that he must have The Sentinel, as that was the next best thing to living in Cottage Grove.

Ray Nelson, auto electrician, Ninth and Main streets.

Mrs. Carrie Hemenway has received a copy of an Indianapolis newspaper which announces that Madge Ginn, a second niece of Mrs. Hemenway, has won the second prize in a limerick contest conducted by the newspaper.

FAULTLESS BREAD

Keep you and your family feeling fit and your money at home. Always ask for Faultless Bread and be sure you get it.

The Cottage Grove Electric Bakery
G. A. Sanders, Prop.

Starr fixes watches right. tf2

Mrs. L. A. Powell had an abscess removed from her throat the latter part of last week.

Lee and Harry Tennis motored to Centralia Saturday and brought back their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Tennis, for a visit here.

Christmas shoppers are enjoying Wynne & Kime's reduced prices on Christmas hardware.

Samuel Adcocks, of Stamford, Tex., left Friday, after a week's visit at the O. E. Woodson home and at Creswell at the home of his brother-in-law, J. E. Woodson.

A shingles in the warehouse, $3.50. Brick, lime, cement, plaster and a lot of other builders' needs. S. L. Godard. (2)

DATES TO REMEMBER!

Monday, Dec. 29, or Monday, Jan. 5

The Enrollment Dates for the Winter Term at the Eugene Business College.

Hundreds of our students are making good in the business world and you can do the same. Ask us about it and we will be more than glad to tell you how.

Eugene Business College

A. E. Roberts, President

992 Willamette St. Phone 666 Eugene, Oregon.

expects to return home the first part of the year.

Scholl is your home optometrist. (m)

The William Telford family, of Roseburg, visited during the week at the home of Mrs. Telford's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Sams.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bartell returned last evening from attending the Oregon-Washington hotelmen's convention held in Portland Friday and Saturday. They also visited in St. John's at the home of Mrs. Bartell's mother.

Mrs. Frank King and son Galin returned to their home in Edmond yesterday, after a short visit here with relatives.

The N. J. Nelson Jr. family were in Eugene yesterday to attend the funeral of Mrs. Nelson's brother-in-law, Louis Stass, of Coburg, who was instantly killed Friday, when a tree fell on him while he was working near Coburg.

Miss Ruth Powers, of Longview, is visiting today and tomorrow at the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bartels.

Lowell Sikes, recently of Trent, is making his home here at the home of his sister, Mrs. George Bjorset. Mrs. Sikes will arrive soon.

Mrs. L. S. Hill, with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Odell, all of Portland, who were in Eugene on business, visited here briefly Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Hill and daughter are former residents here.

Mrs. Addie Pipes, of Oregon City, spent the latter part of the week at the C. J. Kem home.

Mrs. P. H. Jones has returned from a Eugene hospital.

Mrs. C. W. Partin and her mother-in-law, Mrs. Amanda Gibson, have moved here from Dothan and have bought the Ralph Hand property. Mr. Partin, who is a Southern Pacific employe, will join them about the first of the year.

Don't forget Wynne & Kime's closing out prices on Christmas hardware.

A new residence on south Sixth street, which was owned by William M. Monroe, has been sold through E. C. Lockwood to Allen M. Brown, recently of Creswell. Mrs. Brown was Miss Juda Turner, of this city.

A few odd beds at less than cost. Bressler & Son.

Mrs. Ivan Warner returned Saturday evening from Portland, where she had been for a medical examination.

Eight of the American Legion men from here attended a meeting Saturday evening in Eugene and took the 40-8 degree.

Beef and veal wanted. Bill Bartels.

Charles Murphy, of Portland, is visiting at the R. H. Kenady home.

A shingles in the warehouse, $3.50. Brick, lime, cement, plaster and a lot of other builders' needs. S. L. Godard. (M)

N. J. Nelson Jr. returned Saturday from a business trip to Portland, bringing a new Willys-Knight coupe sedan de luxe. Mrs. A. W. Kime, of Portland, accompanied Mr. Nelson here and is visiting at the Nelson home and with other friends.

Galloway, insurance, 511 Main. M. Charles McKibben returned Thursday from a Eugene hospital, where he had been receiving treatments for blood poisoning in his right hand. The middle finger had to be amputated. He is getting along satisfactorily.

Did you see the new hollow silverware at Mendenhall's? (M) Victor Pierrard, of Shelton, Wash., spent Friday at the A. N. Ward home.

Mrs. H. H. Veatch spent the week end in Portland with Mr. Veatch.

Scholl's kryptoks make you see. (m)

Herman Edwards and Ray Nelson attended an American Legion meeting in Eugene Thursday night.

A. B. Smith and daughter Beulah and Mrs. Mary Aldridge have returned from California, where they visited briefly after accompanying the body of Mrs. Smith there for burial.

Beautiful silverware at Mendenhall's Store. (M)

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Bede and daughter, Flora Elsie, spent the week end in Dallas with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Richardson. Mr. Bede attended a meeting of the Franklin printers held there Saturday evening.

Mrs. M. P. Garoutte has received word from her son, Frank Snodgrass, of Oakland, Calif., that he

SOCIETY

Twenty-three girl schoolmates of Miss Genevieve Woodard helped her spend a happy twelfth birthday anniversary Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Mary Smith. Yellow chrysanthemums and marigolds in artistic arrangement were about the rooms and a decorated Christmas tree was in one corner. Christmas contests and games were played and refreshments of pineapple sherbet and two kinds of cake were served. A huge birthday cake, with a smaller one on top and the legend "Miss Genevieve, 12 years" and 12 candles forming part of the decorations, had been sent Miss Woodard by Mr. Stump, cook at the Walter Woodard's main camp. As the guests were ready to depart a knock at the front door and the ringing of bells were heard. A Santa Claus entered with his pack and presented each little guest with a popcorn ball. The guest list included Isabelle Safley, Donna Bartell, Vera Scott, Edna Harvey, Ila Mason, Jerene Burrows, Louise Wynne, Madelle, Beidler, Adeline Adams, Beth Bede, Caroline Grannis, Dorothy Umphrey, Frances Mackin, Julia Morris, Maxine Nelson, Jean Allison, Hesper Hubbell, Kathleen Beidler, Frances Beauhieu, Evelyn Smith, Grace Carlile, Mildred Bennett and Jean Short.

Mrs. Martha Guiley, Lane county W. C. T. U. president, was present at the regular meeting of the local W. C. T. U. organization Friday at the Methodist church and gave an interesting account of the state convention held recently in Corvallis.

Mr. and Mrs. F. F. McCullough, Mrs. Anna Newcomb and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Patton entertained the Jolly Bunch club Friday evening at their regular dance in Phillips hall. Dainty refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

Mrs. S. V. Allison entertained the Past Matrons' club today at a 1 o'clock luncheon at Hotel Bartell. The table decorations were in keeping with the holiday season. Following the dinner the members were taken to the Allison home, where a Christmas tree awaited them.

Announcements have been received here of the wedding on Monday last of Miss Hilda Mae Harden, of San Diego, to Harley E. Rice, also of that city, Miss Hardin is a former teacher here.

Thirty-four friends of Mrs. Char once Stoneburg honored and surprised her Friday evening with a handkerchief shower held at the home of Mr. Stoneburg's mother, Mrs. Bert Stoneburg. The evening hours were pleasantly spent socially and dainty refreshments were served.

APPROACHING EVENTS

The Constellation club will hold their annual Christmas tree Wednesday afternoon in the banquet room of the Masonic temple, with Mrs. C. E. Frost, Mrs. R. E. Short, Mrs. W. A. Garoutte, Mrs. Victor Chambers, Mrs. Herman Edwards, Mrs. N. E. Glass and Mrs. R. A. Trask.

The Elmarats club will hold its annual Christmas meeting next Monday, when a 1 o'clock luncheon will be served at Hotel Bartell, after which the Christmas tree will be held at the home of Mrs. Victor Chambers.

The Tillicum club will hold a covered dish dinner at 7:30 Wednesday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Meeks. This will be followed by the club's annual Christmas tree.

The Tuesday Bridge club will hold their regular 1 o'clock luncheon Wednesday at the home of Mrs. G. C. Dyott. The club's annual Christmas tree will follow.

Mrs. Herbert Eakin and Mrs. B. R. Job will entertain the Social Twelve Thursday afternoon at the Eakin home. This will be the club's annual Christmas meeting.

The Tuesday Evening Study club will hold its regular meeting this week at the home of Mrs. Elbert Smith, with Mrs. Smith and Mrs. C. E. Umphrey as leaders.

Miss Hazel Swanson will entertain the Toujours Prote club Wednesday evening at the club's annual Christmas tree.

The Christian ladies' aid society will hold its annual Christmas tree tomorrow afternoon in the church parlors.

Mrs. F. L. Grannis will entertain the Utopia club Thursday afternoon at its Christmas meeting.

Mrs. R. E. Short will entertain the M. P. G. club Thursday afternoon at their annual Christmas tree.

Mrs. W. E. Lebow will entertain the LaComus club tomorrow afternoon at its regular meeting.

The Sentinel will assist you in the preparation of any special ruled or printed form. Give your home live wire print shop an opportunity to meet competition in anything a

Old Santa Told Us

What to get in Christmas Groceries. We let him make the selections and have just what each Christmas shopper will want.

McQueen's Grocery

Tree Puts Power Wire Out of Business

Electric service was interrupted at noon yesterday when a tree at the S. L. Godard place south of the city fell onto the Mountain States Power company's 11,000-volt line. The tree gave way under the weight of the season's first snow flurry. Walter Woodard's Latham plant is fed by this wire and had to close down for several hours.

School Pupils Sell Seals. The Tuesday Evening Study club completed its sale of Christmas seals in the stores of the city Saturday evening but the school children have taken up their sale and will continue with it until Saturday. The sales so far have been quite satisfactory.

Mrs. Eakin Gets New York. Many long-distance records are being made by local radio fans. Mrs. Herbert Eakin "picked up" the Wolff-Astoria, New York, a few nights ago. She did not, however, order one of the meals being served while the orchestra played.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our many friends for the beautiful flowers and the sympathy shown us during our recent sorrow.

A. B. SMITH, BEAULAH SMITH, CLARENCE SMITH, MRS. MARY ALDRIDGE.

Attention, Masons!

Special communication at 7:45 Tuesday, December 16. Work in F. C. degree. Visitors cordially invited and members urged to be present. H. W. LOMBARD, Secretary. By order W. M.

GUARANTEED HOSIERY, SAMPLE your size free to agents. Write for proposition paying $75 weekly full time, $1.50 an hour spare time, selling guaranteed hosiery to wearers; must wear or replaced free. Quick sales, repeat orders. International Stocking mills, 6234, Norriston, Pa. n10j11e2

FOR SALE—FIFTEEN ACRES river bottom land, $1500—$500 cash. Four-roomed cottage, orchard. One mile from Dorena high school—Seven miles from city, on Row river road. C. L. Campbell. n24-j1p(2)

FOR SALE—NO. SIX MARTIN ditcher and grader. In A-1 shape, $50. Also dry mixed hard wood, $3 the tier. Leslie Hull. Phone 37F5. d4-15p(2)

MITCHELL WAGON, 3 1/4-INCH, IN good condition, for only $40. Charles White, phone 39F3. d8-15p2

FOR SALE—NEW AUTO KNITTER. Terms if desired. Owl Cleaners. d8-15p(2)

ELECTRIC WASHER FOR SALE. S. E. Beach, Imperial Barber shop. d11-18p(2)

A 70-POUND SHOAT WANDERED onto the J. N. Town place, one mile northeast of city, Thanksgiving day. Owner may have same by paying expenses. d11-15c

STRAYED—HEREFORD STEER, 4 years old, ears split, had tag in ear. John G. Murry, Cottage Grove. d11-15p(2)

GIRL OR MIDDLE AGED WOMAN, the latter preferred, wanted for housework. Phone 12F54 or write M. F. Marketta, Comstock. d11-18p(2)

RAW FURS WANTED—AM BUYING furs direct from trappers, best price paid. See me at Service Garage after 2:30 Wednesday and Saturday, December 17 and 20. Buyer, A. M. Rathman. d15p

FOR RENT—FURNISHED HOUSE—keeping rooms, one sleeping room. Apply at 37 north Sixth St. d15p

TO LET—FURNISHED HOUSE—keeping rooms, 356 Adams avenue. d15p

Gifts like these cannot fail to please

Give something practical, useful and you may feel assured you gift will please. In return for every practical gift you give, your kindness, consideration, love and thoughtfulness will be long remembered. Here are a few suggestions of the many practical gifts shown at this store—look them over—come to the store today.

- Men's silk neckties packed in holiday boxes cost no more here, each.....75c, $1.00, $1.25, $1.50
- Women's silk top umbrellas, new, short handles, each.....$3.95 to $9.50
- Men's shirts, with or without collars at special holiday prices.....$1.25, $1.50, $1.95, $2.50 to $6.50
- Dress gloves for women in fabrics or fine leather, a pair.....65c to $3.95
- Women's silk vests and step-ins, lavender, pink and peach, each.....98c
- Men's all wool coat sweaters and vests in attractive yarns, price range.....$3.75 to $8.50
- Women's handkerchiefs in colors and white—fine linen, lineweave and mercerized materials, lace trimmed or emoroidered, price range, each.....5c to $1.25
- Men's and boys' dress gloves in wool yarn, kid leathers, cape and fine horsehide—lined and unlined in all styles—priced.....65c to $4.50
- Women's silk and silk and wool stockings in holiday boxes, priced a pair.....$1.00 to $3.50
- Blankets and robes are here in many weights of cotton, cotton and wool and pure wool—many of the better grades made in Oregon, priced.....$1.95 to $15.00
- Luggage of dependable quality here in suit cases, bags or trunks—let us show them to you today.
- All toys at special reduced prices—see east balcony.

Umphrey & Mackin

THE QUALITY STORE—GOOD SERVICE

Diphtheria Situation Improves. The diphtheria situation in this section shows decided improvement. Those who have contracted the malady are either out of quarantine or will be within a few days and no new cases have been reported during the week. One case of scarlet fever, that of Irwin Small, has been reported during the week.

Band to Give Concert. With the rent for their hall being paid by the commercial club, the band has started practice for a concert to be given in the near future. Charles Cochran is their director and Loren Harvey their manager. Twenty-five musicians of the city are now members of the organization.

Three thousand people read The Sentinel each week. What have you to tell this vast throng? xxx print shop can produce.