

RADIO

Nationally Advertised
Sets and Parts

Radio Corporation Super
Heterodyne

Fada Neutrodyne

Crosley Trirdyn

Genuine Radiotron Tubes

Ray Nelson

Ninth and Main Sts.—Phone 201

Tales of the Town

Mrs. Herbert Adams came up from Portland Saturday and spent the week end with her husband at the Bartell hotel returning Sunday.

Elmer Halstead, teacher in the Springfield public school, was a visitor in Cottage Grove Friday and Saturday.

Dr. Hagen will cure your goiter. Hazel May Loucks returned home for a visit over the week end from Eugene where she is teaching school.

Elvira Dyer, teacher in the Cottage Grove schools, visited at her home in Eugene over the week end. Walter Rondeau has bought a used Buick roadster from Billy Hall.

Human hands never touch Powell's pasteurized milk.

R. W. Harris, of Cloudfit, N. J., in response to a telegram arrived Saturday and spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. J. E. Loucks, who has been seriously ill. Mr. Harris has been a physician and surgeon at his home in the east but he left last evening for Pasadena, Calif., where he is to take charge of the practice of the late Professor Miller. He is contemplating establishing a large laboratory in Los Angeles. Ralph Welch, nephew of Mr. Harris, expects to join him later in the laboratory work.

Ray Nelson for Radio Supplies.

W. M. Hall left Saturday by motor for Portland on a few days' business trip.

The first car load of steel rails has arrived for the new Chambers railroad. Work is expected to start on the right of way immediately.

Elza Holderman has gone to Tiller to erect a barn for the Forest Service.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hauser, of Eugene, spent yesterday with Mrs. Hauser's mother, Mrs. A. C. Hawkins.

Dr. Hagen will cure your goiter. Archie and Lamar Piper, of Portland, spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Piper, parents of Archie and grandparents of Lamar.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Y. Allison, and

Mrs. Allison's brother and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Jones, and Mrs. Orville Allison, of Roseburg, were guests yesterday at the F. H. Allison home.

Galloway writes insurance.

Ole Demoune, an employe of the Anderson & Middleton Lumber company, fractured his left ankle Friday while at work. He was taken to a Eugene hospital for treatment. He has returned home and is getting along satisfactorily.

L. L. Harrel was in Roseburg today on business.

Harry Rentele spent the week end in Grants Pass as a guest at the home of his brother, Dan Rentele.

UM!—BOY, THAT'S GOOD!

And when it comes to judging in doughnuts or any other baked goods, you can usually depend upon a boy's taste. He knows what is good and shows his preference in no uncertain manner. If you want to know how good our baked goods are, ask any boy who has ever eaten any—and we'll abide by his answer.

CITY BAKERY Autin Lindsey, Proprietor.

Mrs. Mary Crawford, of Portland, who was enroute to Pasadena, Calif., arrived Saturday for a two weeks' visit at the home of her nephew, R. C. Quigley.

Beware of unclean milk. Buy Powell's pasteurized milk and play safe.

The G. O. Hankins family, of Eugene, have moved to this city and have rented the Mary Owens property on west Main street. Mr. Hankins is a brother of L. M. Hankins, of this city. He is to be the local agent for the Watkins company. The W. M. Norris family which has been occupying this property has moved into the back of their store.

Let Max Schwartz, the tailor, be your tailor. j26-f29p(2)

M. Eastham, of Waldport, and M. Eastham, of Monroe, have recently moved to this city.

Mr. and Mrs. William Quigley, of Eugene, spent yesterday at the home of Mr. Quigley's brother, R. C. Quigley.

No chance for dirt or germs in Powell's pasteurized milk.

Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Bennett, returned to their home in Portland today after attending the wedding of Mrs. Let Sanford, mother of Mrs. Bennett. Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Bressler and Mrs. Bressler's son, Ren Sanford, and Mrs. Marion DeLay, of Gervais, a daughter of Mr. Bressler, who was also here for the wedding took Mr. and Mrs. Bennett as far as Eugene by motor. Mrs. DeLay will return to her home tomorrow.

J. E. Young's law office has been moved to Cooper & McKernan building, Fifth and Main streets. j1-5p

An eight and one-half pound daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Yearous Saturday.

N. J. Nelson Jr. and Mrs. Nelson will motor to Portland tomorrow. They expect to return Friday.

Mrs. Carl Witte and Mrs. Lorraine Morelock Lusk were visitors in Eugene Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Frost were business visitors in Eugene today.

Fuller Brushes lighten work—cost little. Phone 124-J. G. B. Arnest. f2-23p

Two cases of diphtheria have developed in the B. Music home at Curtin. Mr. Music is an employe of the Pioneer Lumber company and recently came here from Washington. The family was exposed to the disease before arriving here.

Mrs. C. E. Jones from Roseburg is visiting Mrs. Carrie Hemenway.

O. O. Veatch and son Samuel 2, went to Portland to visit Mrs. O. O. Veatch who is in a hospital there.

About fifty men were present at the men's bible class at the Christian church Friday evening. Claude Gray, from Eugene, was the principal speaker of the evening.

Tomorrow evening will be the regular church evening at the Christian church. The junior boys classes in the Sunday school will give the entertainment.

Powell's pasteurized milk is pure milk. tf

The Ladies aid of the Christian church will give a tea Wednesday afternoon.

Friday February 27 will be interdenominational day at the Presbyterian church with a meeting at 2:30 in the afternoon.

Mrs. Ida Dysinger, from Roseburg, attended the wedding of her aunt, Mrs. Pet Sanford, to Mahlon Bressler, Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Allison visited over the week end with Mrs. Allison's brother, B. M. Atkins, of Kelso, Washington.

John Akeo, a resident here about 12 years ago, was visiting in Cottage Grove last week.

Scholl's kryptoks make you see. (n)

Mr. and Mrs. Victor Kem left Sunday by motor for Portland to visit with Mr. Kem's sister, Mrs. C. M. Shian. They are expected to return Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elbert Bede and two daughters Beth and Flora motored to Newport Saturday afternoon. Mrs. Bede and baby will visit with her grandmother Mrs. Daniel Olsen and her aunt Mrs. J. L. Torrens. Mr. Bede and daughter Beth went to Salem Monday morning to attend the legislature.

Norval Armes and Jack Beager came home from O. A. C. Saturday morning and returned Sunday. Both are students in the Agricultural college.

Galloway, insurance, 511 Main. Miss Eunice Van Valin is recovering from an attack of diphtheria which has kept her confined for the past two weeks.

The Anderson & Middleton company of Oregon started Mill "B" Friday instead of Monday as planned last week. The plant was started two days earlier than originally intended because of the large supply of logs on hand.

M. T. Nolan, evangelist, will start the second week of preaching at the Methodist Episcopal church this evening. The evangelist comes from a revival just finished in the Methodist church at Junction City. Interest and attendance at the local meetings are increasing daily.

It pays to list your property with Hall & Lang.

Frank Allison, of Portland, brother of S. V. and F. H. Allison, of Cottage Grove, is confined in a Portland hospital receiving treatment for Diabetes.

Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Allison returned from Portland Sunday with a new Essex car.

Clifford Allen was slightly injured last week at the Rujada logging camp when he was struck in the face with a limb. He was able to return to work in a short while.

Have 300 tiers of last year's 16-inch slat wood, $4 a load. Quimby Bros. Phone 124-L. j22f9p(2)

Justice-of-the-Peace J. E. Young has moved his office to the Cooper and McKernan building on Fifth and Main street.

Frank E. Taylor, sheriff of Lane county, and Earl Humphrey, state traffic officer, were in Cottage Grove Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Foley and two children have moved here from Tucson, Ariz. Mr. Foley was transferred here as S. P. signal maintainer.

Have some old growth fir cut last summer, $2.59 tier. Quimby Bros. Phone 124-L. j22f9p(2)

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Crabb, of Yakima, Wash., with their son and daughter, were guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Crabb. S. E. Crabb is a brother of Chester Crabb, of this city.

Hugh Proudfit, who was injured while loading logs a few weeks ago, was in Cottage Grove from his home in Row River Saturday. He is recovering from the injury as rapidly as could be expected.

W. H. Hand, of Corvallis, district representative of the North American Accident Insurance company, was calling on friends in Cottage Grove Friday and Saturday.

Ray Nelson, auto electrician. Ninth and Main streets.

Mrs. Frank Jones and daughter were in the city from Dorena Saturday.

Mrs. Albert Rissau, of Mosby Creek, spent Saturday in Cottage Grove.

THE QUESTION IS

Where can you get any better bread than that made by us?—where can you get any better or more pleasant service than at our bakery?—where will your money do more good than when spent for home-made Faultless Bread!

The Cottage Grove Electric Bakery
G. A. Sanders, Prop.

Mildred and Grace Smith, of Dorena, spent Saturday in Cottage Grove.

Warren Kelly, who lives on the Row River road this side of Dorena, was a business visitor in Cottage Grove Saturday.

Mrs. Mendell and daughter Patricia spent Saturday in Cottage Grove.

Scholl is your home optometrist. (m)

W. A. Heck, who was manager of the local Farmer's Union store has resigned his position. The vacancy will be filled by H. E. Quimby, who has been one of the clerks in the store.

A number of delegates from the locals of the Farmers' Union in this vicinity attended a meeting of the Union Friday in Springfield.

Mrs. Claude Holdredth, of Mc Minnville, spent Saturday at the home of her aunt, Mrs. Ida Miller.

William Sovereign, of Portland, was a dinner guest yesterday of his aunt, Mrs. Ida Miller.

S. S. Lasswell was a business visitor in Portland Thursday.

Mrs. Ellen Jones was called to Aberdeen, Wash., Friday by the illness of her brother, George Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bartholomew, of Springfield, Frank Lowry and Mrs. Faulkner, of Portland, visited Friday with W. A. Heck.

Mrs. C. W. Partin returned Friday from Portland, where she had spent a week with her mother-in-law, Mrs. C. W. Partin, who is ill, and at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs. J. O. Johnson and Mrs. S. M. Ramsey.

An I. O. O. F. regalia over 50 years old has been framed and is on display at the local order's lodge rooms. It was given to the lodge over a year ago by Mrs. Melia Currin but it has only recently been framed so that it could be on display. The original owner of the regalia was John P. Perkins, brother of Mrs. Currin, a member of the I. O. O. F. order in Clinton Mo. Upon his death, about 15 years ago, he gave the apron to Mrs. Currin and the collar to Mrs. Sarah Wynne, another sister. After Mrs. Wynne's death about 5 years ago the collar was given to Mrs. Currin.

The library report for January is as follows: number of fiction, 1,239; non-fiction, 90; juvenile, 576; total, 1,905; new cards issued, 35; money received $9.40; money expended, $1.46. Twenty new books have been added.

The Nelson DeYoung family, Mrs. Hugh Milligan and son Verlin and Clarence Stoneburg motored to North Bend Friday and spent the week end with relatives.

Miss Genevieve Rice has been ill during the week and the Disston school, where she is teaching has been closed.

Mrs. J. P. Rasmussen, of Portland, visited during the week with Mrs. E. R. Lemley.

Mrs. A. Henniman, of Curtin, visited during the week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Charles Cooley.

W. B. Cooper, of Eugene, was here during the week on business.

Miss Ella Canady returned Saturday from Portland, where she was taking medical treatment.

The Earnest Purvance family, of Bellingham, Wash., who were enroute by motor to California or Arizona for the health of Miss Margaret Purvance, visited here briefly Saturday. They spent that night in Roseburg with Mrs. Purvance's mother, Mrs. Lucy Currin, who has been quite ill.

SOCIETY

A wedding beautiful in its simplicity and of great interest here was that of Mrs. Pet Sanford to Mahlon C. Bressler, Sunday evening, at the home of the bride. A. Ralph Spearow, pastor of the Presbyterian church, performed the ring ceremony. The rooms were artistically decorated with carnations, smilax and callalilies. The bride was attractively dressed in a gown of African brown eut chemille over brown satin and with a rhinestone ornament. Following the ceremony a delicious two-course luncheon was served, the table being centered with red and white carnations in pretty arrangement. The guest list included Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Bennett, of Portland; Mrs. Ida Dysinger, of Roseburg; Mrs. Marion DeLay and son Marvin, of Gervais, William West, of Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Spearow, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bressler and children, Mrs. Ida Miller and Ren Sanford. The bride has been a resident of Cottage Grove for about 31 years and Mr. Bressler has been a resident for over a year. The couple will make their home at 205 Adams avenue.

Miss Lula Currin was hostess Friday evening to the members of the Joker club at a covered dish dinner. Mrs. H. H. Veatch, one of the members, whose birthday anniversary was the next day, was honored with a large birthday cake with her name written on it with the icing and decorated with lighted candles. Following the dinner five hundred was enjoyed. Invited guests of the club were Mrs. W. W. McFarland, Mrs. A. W. Swanson and Mrs. K. K. Mills. Cake and ice cream was served at the close of the evening. Mrs. H. A. Miller has invited the club to hold its regular meeting Friday evening at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Lasswell entertained the H. D. S. club Friday evening at their home. Spring flowers were the attractive room decorations. Five hundred, the usual diversion, was enjoyed, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Woods securing the high honors of the guests and Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Kem receiving the high honors of the members. Additional guests for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cruson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Adams and Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Smith.

The Social Twelve held their regular meeting Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. H. A. Galloway. Beautiful pink Carolyn Testout roses were about the rooms. Fancy work and social conversation were the diversions and a delightful two course luncheon was served. Mrs. N. E. Compton and Mrs. J. A. Merryman were guests of the club.

Mrs. C. A. Stevens entertained the Past Noble Grands' club at its regular meeting Thursday afternoon. A business session was held and the remainder of the afternoon hours were pleasantly spent socially. A delicious two-course luncheon was served.

Mrs. E. G. O. Groat entertained with a 1 o'clock dinner, Friday, in honor of her husband's 91st birthday anniversary. Those present were Mrs. Martha Marsh, of Elmira, F. H. Safley, of Drain, and Mr. and Mrs. Boil. In the evening a number of members of the Baptist church called to congratulate Mr. Groat, who held the pastorate of the local church for many years. A song and prayer service was held by the young people.

CANNED FRUITS

Preserved Peaches, Pears, Plums and many other delicious Canned Fruits—that would go well with that big Sunday dinner.

McQueen's Grocery

PHONE 65

Mrs. Ethel Bartels Norman, of this city, was married January 27 to Edward Chow, of Dunsmuir, Calif., in that city. The couple are making their home there. They are expected here soon for a short visit with the brides parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Bartels.

The losers in the recent Rebekah membership drive entertained the winners of the drive at a banquet held Friday evening in I. O. O. F. hall. Following the dinner, a short session of the lodge was held and then a musical program was given by the winners of the drive. The only winning side won by only one point. About 125 were present.

Mrs. Roy Garoutte entertained about 32 relatives and friends yesterday at dinner complimenting and surprising Mr. Garoutte, the occasion being his birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Willits Is Honored.

Mrs. J. Q. Willits, who is grand marshal of the Rebekah assembly, has been appointed by the Grand Master of the Oddfellows and the president of the assembly as a member of the advisory committee. The committee is to prepare for the Sovereign Grand lodge of Oddfellows to be held during September in Portland.

APPROACHING EVENTS

The Elmaros club will hold its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Harold Dugan.

Mrs. L. L. Harrel, Mrs. Frank Knox and Mrs. Andrew Brund will entertain the Constellation club Thursday afternoon at its regular meeting.

The date for the approaching Constellation social affair has been set for February 11. It is for the benefit of the carpet fund of the Masonic temple.

Weather Report for January. The weather report for January as kept by Miss Nellie Stewart, local observer, is as follows: mean maximum, 49.8; mean minimum, 37.9; mean 43.85; maximum, 64 on January 21; minimum, 30 on January 15; total precipitation, 8.42 inches; clear days, 3; partly

Will Be Held Responsible. Guard—Better keep your head inside the window.

Passenger—I can look out of the window if I want to.

Guard—I know you can. But if you damage any of the ironwork of the bridges you'll have to pay for it.—Pathfinder.

Who Makes the Programs?— (Christian Advocate.)

Invalid—"There'll be music in heaven, won't there, miss?"

District visitor—"We are told so."

Invalid—"Oh, I do 'ope they'll know 'the 'Oneysuckle and the Bee.'"

Notice Alumni!

Every member is urged to be present at a very important business meeting to be held at 7:30 o'clock Thursday evening at high school auditorium. f2p

CALL FOR BIDS FOR WOOD.

Notice is hereby given that the directors of school district No. 45, Lane County, Oregon will receive sealed bids for the delivery of 65 cords of four-foot wood, 160 cords of 2 1/2-foot wood, and 200 tiers of 16-inch wood, as per specifications on file with district clerk. The bids should be filed with district clerk on or before February 10, at 7:30 p. m., the board reserving the right to reject any and all bids. 225(T) WORTH HARVEY, Clerk.

A Steak You'll Enjoy

We don't believe there is a single man in this town who wouldn't enjoy sitting down to one of our Steaks. Cut from the best quality beef, right where the meat is most tender and the juiciest, it is a wonderfully good dinner.

Quality Market

PHONE 46

New Goods AND New Bargains

Just received a large shipment of D. M. C.; all the good shades obtainable, new metal embroidery hoops, new notions and novelties, new dress goods, new aprons, and new hosiery.

Umbrella bargains every day. New cut glass, new dinner ware; we can furnish you complete sets in the Queen Mary and Princess Dago dinner ware.

VALENTINES—1c to 35c; call and look them over. New lot of candy hearts and other candies.

SPECIAL—Uncle Sam and Big Yank work shirts $1.00

Extra good shirts for men.....75c

Boys' shirts.....75c

Boys' blouses.....65c

MEN—75 pairs men's mixed black socks, a pair.....35c

Three pairs for.....$1.00

Our February Bargains will save you money, every day we offer specials that will interest you, call in whenever you can and look.

The Fair Store

612 MAIN STREET

Over 6000 Items Wright & Caldwell

Announcement

I wish to announce that after February 1 I will be associated with Smith & Short and we will conduct two separate stores, one will be a cash grocery with as low an overhead as possible without delivery, where, if you feel that you want to economize on your groceries you can do so without sending your money out of Cottage Grove.

The other store known as Smith & Short grocery will be conducted the same as before (a real service store) with delivery and credit. We feel that a combination of this kind will give us a buying power so we can best serve the people of south Lane county.

SMITH-SHORT
R. A. TRASK

Watch This Space Next Week