

An Iser

The Bank that has grown up with Cottage Grove. Not a "is going to be" nor a "has been" but "an iser."

Capital .....$25,000.00
Surplus and Profits .....$30,000.00
Assets .....$900,000.00

Carefully managed by experienced bankers, each of whom is selected by reason of his special fitness for the position, and not on account of relationship or nationality.

Established for nearly a score of years, its strength has been so conspicuous in depressed periods and financial panics that it has become known throughout the entire State as

"The Old Reliable"

The FIRST NATIONAL BANK
of Cottage Grove

Tales of the Town

Vern Wicks, who was hurt while loading logs at Rujada several weeks ago, is now at home and is recovering slowly. He was dismissed from a Eugene hospital Saturday and returned to his home at Rujada Monday.

Mrs. E. W. Frans and parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. J. Dunn from Houquiam, Wash., are visiting E. W. Frans who is employed in the Anderson & Middleton mill here.

Shirley Rae Wells arrived Monday from Vancouver, Wash., for a visit with her mother, Mrs. C. P. Doe.

John O'Shea, arrested here some time ago, was found not guilty of the charge of murder against him by the Klamath Falls jury. He will be tried again on a robbery charge in connection with the hold up of the pool hall in which Oscar Erickson lost his life.

Spirella Corsets and accessories also Shaugnessy lingerie will be sold at reduced prices for a limited time. Mrs. E. C. Shay, phone 137-R. 112-26p(T)

Mrs. Merrill Watts and son Kenneth, of Baker, have returned home after spending two weeks here at the home of Mrs. Watt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Adams.

The Picture Shop is offering a number of beautiful pictures at cost and less this week to make room for additional stock.

J. Reswitz, of Marinette, Wisconsin, arrived here Tuesday evening for a visit with August Luneau. Mr. Luneau and Mr. Reswitz were friends in Wisconsin a number of years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. James Redford returned from Portland last night where they had been visiting Mrs. O. O. Veatch, sister of Mrs. Redford, who is in a Portland hospital recovering from an operation.

James H. Wheeler, arrested here Monday on a charge of passing bad checks, was taken to Hillsboro Tuesday by officers from there.

Eat at the Elite and watch for Saturday candy specials. 112-26p(T)

Amiel Hawkins was fined $2 in police court Monday for destroying property by mutilating the door of the armory. It is said that a number of boys have been disturbing the dances at the armory recently and the arrest of Hawkins was made in this connection.

An important meeting of the Cottage Grove Commercial club will be held this evening in Phillips hall. It is expected that practically all members will be present.

New sport ties for ladies at The Fair Store.

Work on the logging railroad to be built by J. H. Chambers and son is expected to start as soon as weather conditions will permit. No definite estimate can be made as to the number of men who will be employed on the road as yet.

Mr. Chambers expects to do some of the work himself and let the rest on contract, but so far no contracts have been made.

J. H. Chambers left Tuesday for San Francisco on a business trip. He expects to return in a few days.

Dry fir wood, just right for the range and easy to split. O. S. Rounselle, phone 76. 112-19p(2)

Mrs. Carrie Hemenway has received word of the death of a nephew, Harry Ginn, in Veedersburg, Indiana, on January 29. He was 57 years old and had been in poor health for some time suffering from heart trouble caused by an attack of influenza four years ago. He was a veteran of the Spanish-American war.

W. B. Cooper was here from Eugene Tuesday looking after the work of remodeling the Bartell hotel. The work is progressing rapidly.

See Scholl and see your money longer.

Mrs. May Irving, of Portland, is visiting with her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Daugherty. She expects to make an extended visit.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelly went to Portland Tuesday to visit with Mrs. Kelly's sister, Mrs. W. F. Hart.

$1.00 pair pure silk hose, a wonderful bargain at The Fair Store.

Mrs. C. C. Fouts is working in the Burkholder and Compton store, again.

Mr. and Mrs. Karl K. Mills, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bartell, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Helliwell, Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Nelson Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Roy Short and Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Lasswell attended a meeting of the service clubs of Lane county held in Eugene Tuesday evening.

Apron bargains—one lot 75c at The Fair Store.

Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Johnson are visiting with friends in California. They plan to be gone on a southern California trip for the next month and will visit Tia Juana before returning.

C. W. McGee left Wednesday forenoon for Winlock, Washington, where he expects to stay for some time. He returned from Reedsport Monday where he has been for several months.

Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Odenburg and daughter, Mrs. Ben Huntley arrived Tuesday from Albany and are visiting with Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Swanson. Mrs. J. O. Larson, of Hillsboro, also arrived at the Swanson home Tuesday for a visit. Mrs. Huntley will go to California for an extended trip after her visit here.

E. C. Lockwood sold the Lee Williams place in the north part of the city to William Kelly. Mr. Kelly moved onto the place last Saturday. L. Morris purchased the William Kelly residence last week.

Pay Nelson for Radio Supplies.

The Cottage Grove high school will meet the Springfield high school at Springfield this evening in the first game of the year with that school. Tomorrow evening the Junior high team will meet Eugene junior high in a return game.

Umbrella sale at The Fair Store.

G. O. Knowles was recently elected president of the men's discussion class, and Mrs. Marrison president of the women's discussion class at the Presbyterian Sunday school. These classes have grown so large that it has become necessary to do some remodeling of the church building.

A divorce complaint alleging desertion has been filed in Eugene by J. A. Lang against Clara Lang. They were married in Minneapolis, Minn., September 15, 1917.

Miss Flossie Mathes was in Eugene on business yesterday.

Grace Neet, of Eugene, was here yesterday visiting friends.

Fuller Brushes lighten work—cost little. Phone 124-J. G. B. Arnest. 112-23p

Mrs. A. C. Loucks left yesterday for Aurora to visit friends. While gone she will also make a business trip to Portland.

Some beautiful pictures at unusually low prices this week to make room for new goods. The Picture Shop.

Mrs. J. W. Craig and daughter Gail, of Drain, visited during the week at the home of Mrs. Craig's daughter, Mrs. M. V. Walden.

Mrs. A. C. Hawkins and sister, Mrs. Mattilda Kohl, who is here from the east spending the winter, left yesterday for Eugene to visit at the home of Mrs. Walter Hauser, daughter of Mrs. Hawkins and niece of Mrs. Kohl. Mrs. Kausser is entertaining today in honor of Mrs. Kohl's 81st birthday anniversary.

New books 69c at The Fair Store.

Jack Clopfenstein and J. R. Smith, who have been down from the Bohemia district since Christmas, returned yesterday morning to Mr. Smith's property in that district.

Walter Kincaid, of Oakland, spent yesterday with the W. M. Norris family.

W. H. Haight, of Caldwell, Ida., is here conducting revival meetings at the Free Methodist church.

Galloway writes insurance.

Mrs. C. W. Newth returned this morning to her home in Lebanon, after visiting at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jephtha Hart.

W. A. Heck and Dwight King left today by motor for Portland on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. William B. Edwards and son and daughter, of Roseville, Calif., arrived today to visit at the homes of Mrs. Edward's mother, Mrs. Jephtha Hart, and Mr. Edward's mother, Mrs. M. V. Phillips.

It pays to list your property with Hall & Lang.

A son was born February 6 at San Francisco to Mr. and Mrs. Clay Mosby, of this city. He has been named Robert William. The father is a former resident of this city and is a son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Mosby, of this city.

A nine pound son was born Monday to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Proudfoot, of Star. He has been named Keith Owen.

Hugh Proudfoot, who was injured some time ago in a saw mill accident, left today for Portland for medical treatment.

You can work on a seamer too, You don't have to be a sailor But when it comes to making clothes You have to be a tailor.

Let Max Schwartz, the tailor, be your tailor. 126-126p(2)

The Overhailer Brothers have resumed work at their saw mill on Silk Creek. They only have a small force employed at present but they are expecting to be able to run a larger force a little later on.

Mrs. Amelia Phelps arrived today from Tillamook for a few days' visit at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Archie Proctor. She will leave from here soon for Alameda, Calif., to visit at the home of another daughter, Mrs. A. B. Christensen.

Marvin Smith returned yesterday from Portland, where he had been on business.

Ray Nelson, auto electrician, Ninth and Main streets.

Archie Knowles joined his family yesterday in Eugene, where they are making their home now. He with his father-in-law took up the remainder of their household goods at that time.

John Tonoli, of Divide, received severe burns on his right arm Saturday, when the handles of a boiler which he was taking off from a stove came off pouring the boiling water upon his arm. The burn are getting along satisfactorily.

Mrs. Dale Horton and children left this morning for Turner after visiting yesterday at the home of Dale Cutsforth. Mr. and Mrs. Horton have been living in Riddle but expect to make their home in Turner in the future. Mr. Cutsforth is a brother of Mrs. Horton.

SOCIETY

A wedding of interest to the bride's friends here was that of Miss Perle Robinson, of this city, to John Keating Jr., of Portland, which took place Monday evening in Portland. The couple are making their home in that city.

The Social Twelve held a no-hostess luncheon at 1 o'clock today at the home of Mrs. Herbert Eakin.

The Tuesday Evening Study club met this week at the home of Mrs. George Matthews, with Mrs. Matthews and Mrs. S. L. Mackin as leaders. Mrs. Mackin gave an interesting account of the life, style and works of Bernard Shaw, an Irish drama writer. Mrs. Matthews gave a review of "Arms and the Man," one of Shaw's works. Mrs. Roy Leonard was an invited guest of the club.

The LaComus club met Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. G. B. Pitcher. Pussyswills were the attractive room decorations. Chatting over fancy work made the afternoon hours pass pleasantly and speedily. A tempting two-course luncheon was served, the table being centered with a cyclamen.

Mrs. M. P. Garoutte, Mrs. Herbert Eakin, Mrs. Melia Curran and Mrs. Anna Gowdy entertained the Presbyterian ladies' aid society yesterday afternoon at its regular meeting held in the church parlors. A short business session was held at which the aid gave a vote of thanks to the classes of the Sunday school of which Mrs. R. L. Stewart and Mrs. George Matthews are teachers. Both classes had made donations to the aid which will be used for the plumbing of the church. Mrs. Stewart's class donated $6.50 and Mrs. Matthews' donated $2.50. The remainder of the afternoon hours were pleasantly spent socially. Late in the afternoon the guests were taken to the dining room which was attractively decorated with Valentine trimmings. The table had red hearts scattered around it and Valentine favors and napkins were used. Dainty refreshments of brick ice cream with a heart molded in the center and cake were served. About 30 members were present. The annual election of officers will be held at the aid's next meeting, March 11.

Mrs. E. B. Dodd entertained six little playmates of her daughter Helen, Monday afternoon, the occasion being Helen's seventh birthday anniversary. Games and play made the afternoon hours pass happily for the small guests. A luncheon was served at the close of the afternoon. Those invited for the affair were Georgetta Knowles, Margaret Wilson, Alice and Margaret Stoneburg, Dorothy Newell and Marjorie Stover.

Over 200 were present to enjoy the social and dance given last evening by the Constellation club for Masonic and Eastern Star members with their families and friends. The affair was for the benefit of the carpet fund of the Masonic temple and was held in the armory. The hall was effectively decorated with Valentine trimmings, the lights being shaded with red crepe paper, red hearts hanging from the lattice work of the ceiling and hearts being on the walls of the hall. An entertaining program was given the fore part of the evening and was followed by dancing. Refreshments of sandwiches, pie and coffee were served. One hundred and fourteen dollars was realized from the affair.

Saginaw Society. The Anti-Cat class of the Saginaw Sunday school with its teacher, Miss Flossie Mathes, held a comic party Friday evening in the Delight Valley school house. The room was artistically decorated with evergreens and pussyswills. Games were the diversion of the evening hours and dainty refreshments were served. Mrs. Lowell Benston and Melvin Powell received the prizes for the best costumes.

Approaching Events

The women's relief corps will hold its regular business meeting Saturday afternoon.

Mrs. C. C. Cruson will be hostess Tuesday afternoon to the M. P. G. club at its regular meeting.

Mrs. H. A. Hagen will entertain the Elmertes club at its regular meeting Tuesday afternoon.

The Tuesday Bridge club will hold its regular 1 o'clock luncheon next week at the home of Mrs. R. L. Stewart.

The Toujours Prete club will meet next Wednesday evening with Mrs. Dale F. Hawkins.

Mr. and Mrs. G. O. McQueen will entertain the Tillicum club next Wednesday evening at its regular meeting.

The Jolly Bunch club will hold another one of its jolly dances Friday evening, with Mr. and Mrs. Arbie Harrington, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kent and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kelly as hosts and hostesses.

Mrs. O. L. Nichols will entertain the Past Matrons' club Monday afternoon.

The W. C. T. U. will hold regular meeting tomorrow afternoon in the Methodist church.

The Tangefoot club will hold its regular dance Tuesday evening in Phillips hall, with Mrs. Victor Chambers, Mrs. C. J. Kem, Mrs. J. T. Smith, Mrs. C. C. Cruson, Mrs. Schofield Stewart, Mrs. H. A. Hagen, Mrs. A. W. Helliwell and Mrs. B. G. Koehler as hostesses.

The American Legion Auxiliary dance which was planned for February 21 will be given February 20 in order to avoid conflict with an American Legion entertainment given in Eugene on the 21st.

The American Legion Auxiliary will give a covered dish supper Monday evening at 6:30. The committee in charge consists of Mrs. Marvin Smith, Mrs. F. B. Grannis, and Mrs. Ray Nelson.

Church News

Presbyterian Church—A. Ralph Spearow, pastor. Sunday school at 10, forenoon service at 11, vesper service at 5. Midweek services Wednesday evenings at 7:30.

Baptist Church—Tenth and Adams. Bible school at 10, preaching at 11 and 7:30. Young people's meeting at 6:30. Prayer meeting Thursday evenings at 7:30.

Christian Church, the "home-like" church—A. J. Adams, minister. Sunday school at 9:45, sermon and communion at 11, Christian endeavor at 6:30, evening service at 7:30. Methodist Church—Rev. J. H. Ebert, Pastor. Sunday school at 9:45, morning worship at 11, Epworth league at 7, evening service 7:30.

Free Methodist church—Corner of at 7:30. Everybody is welcome to attend all of these services. Monroe avenue and south Fifth street—D. S. Forrester, pastor, Sunday school at 10, forenoon services at 11, evening service at 7:30. Prayer meeting at 7:30 Thursday evenings.

Christian Science Church—Corner of Jefferson avenue and Second street. Sunday services at 11 a. m. Wednesday services at 7:30 p. m.

Seventh Day Adventist Church—West Main street. Services every Saturday. Sabbath school at 10, church service at 11, prayer meeting Wednesday evenings at 7:30.

Sunday School services in the Latham school house every Sunday at 9:45. Mrs. Hugh Trunel, superintendent; Mrs. Winnie Hagerty, assistant superintendent.

THE WINCHESTER STORE

Why Have a 1910 Model

Take every advantage to plan that new home for the conveniences you have always wanted.

Let us show you 1925 HARDWARE, PAINTS, PLUMBING FIXTURES and LIGHTING EQUIPMENT that will place your home on par with balloon tires and four wheel brakes.

Your hardware—like the Claxon horn—is the smallest cost but noticed more.

Darby & Liston

"Quality" "Service"

Everything for the Home Except the Lumber

FOR EXCHANGE—7-PASSENGER Chandler car for small house and lot or vacant lots. J. A. Allen, box 548, city. 112-19p(2)

CARD OF THANKS. We wish to express our sincere thanks to the many friends for their kindness and sympathy given us during our recent bereavement. The floral tributes were also appreciated. 112p HENRY RISSUE and family.

FOOD SALE. Ladies Aid of Christian church will hold a Food Sale, February 14, and will present a Valentine with each purchase sold. 112-12p

Notice! TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN: I will not be responsible for any bills or debts of any kind made by my wife, Mary J. Class, after February 5, 1925. Her present post office address is unknown to me. Dated February 4, 1925. 112-9-12p A. F. CLASS.

J.C. Penney Co.

A NATION-WIDE INSTITUTION - Incorporated
571 DEPARTMENT STORES
417-421 MAIN STREET, COTTAGE GROVE, OREGON

It's Time for Spring Coats!

Smart Styles—Reasonable Prices

Be it balmy or cold, a woman knows by instinct just when it is time to buy a Spring Coat! Don't you feel that you want your new Spring Coat now?

This Store is showing the latest Spring Styles direct from New York. Each feature of the coats, style, material, color, and lining, seems the height of desirability. Appealingly priced. We want you to see these coats!

All the New Colors

The very names of the new colors are fascinating, but they are not half so stunning as the colors themselves. Rust, Titian, sand, cranberry, mahogany, pearl gray, reindeer, and of course Tiger's eye are popular shades.

Full Value at Each Price

Whatever you pay for a Coat here, you get full value! Our quantity purchasing by our New York Buyers makes possible splendid quality at each price.

$9.90 to $39.75

DEMONSTRATION

of Golden West Coffee

By Mrs. McIlvain

We would be very pleased to have you come in this week and have a cup of coffee with us. Mrs. McIlvain makes a real cup of coffee out of real coffee roasted and packed in the state of Oregon.

GOLDEN WEST

Smith-Short Grocery

The Store That Appreciates Your Trade