Legislative Sidelights

By ELBERT BEDE.
STATE CAPITOL, Salem, Ore., Feb. 21.—(Special.)—There are but three or four members of the joint ways and means committee of 14 members who use the weed. In the house membership of seven, but one smokes and he but sparingly.

The session is caught in a sand cave from which it may not be rescued for a week, and by that time it may be dead, as was Collins, with its body secured under an avalanche of gubernatorial vetoes.

There may be some significance in the fact that the only bill introduced by Senator LaFollette, the champion tightwad from Salem, bears the number 23. The Marion county solon, who is nearly 80 years of age, is due for the skid-doo.
He is too tight even for tightwad Marion county.

In the discussion of a house bill which provides for egg-laying contests, a facetious member wished to know whether the bill regulated the size of the egg the hen must lay and that she must work only union hours.

It is a peculiar coincidence that hardly could happen again that a house committee reported in a substitute bill for house bills 129 and 131 and that another house committee reported in a substitute bill for senate bills 129 and 131.
Incidentally this is the second time that I know of that the house has reported a substitute for a senate bill. That is an unusual proceeding but there seems to be no rule against it.

An echo of recent events in Lane was heard when Winslow, of Tillamook, referred to dissatisfaction there with a timber cruise by W. G. Nense, whose name was mentioned again in connection with legislation yet to be considered.

Thursday was the first time I have ever seen a member rise to discuss a bill before the author had been given a chance. Representative Woodward did not understand exactly the situation and got in ahead of Carkin on one of Carkin's bills. However, Carkin had his say.

Some of the members are looking for some leven in the prohibition enforcement department since the recent appointment of a new head for that department.

Many speak slightly of the legislature and want to know what it is doing that amounts to anything. The answer is that it is doing fully as well as it would do were the criticizing members here.

Representative Woodward usually discusses only serious subjects like education and these in an ultra-serious way, but sometimes he springs a bon mot, as he did Friday during the discussion of the Dennis resolution to amend the constitution so as to inhibit income tax laws for 15 years. Woodward asked unanimous consent to amend by inserting after "income tax" the words, "also taxes on real estate and other property," his facetious purpose being to make all taxation inhibited by the constitution. The amendment was not made.

Senator Dennis, the author of the famous resolution to inhibit income and inheritance taxes for 15 years, has sold his newspaper business at La Grande, the sale being made while Dennis has been attending the session. That explains why he doesn't want income and inheritance taxes.

The legislators are in good repute again. One of them stated on the floor yesterday that the governor had referred to him as an intelligent person.

Mrs. Senator Kinney has been waiting for two years to pay her compliments to Senator Jay Upton for overlooking her in the appointment of a special committee two years ago when he was president of the senate. She got her opportunity the other day when she thought he referred to the mud rats of Astoria. She handed Up-ton a real package, only to be informed when it was all over that he had merely referred to the mud flats and she had misunderstood him.

Often in legislative procedure the first shall be last and the last shall be first. The first bills on the calendar in each house has not yet been acted upon, while some of the last to be introduced have become law.

All members of the Lane county court arrived today to see what may be done to apply opiates to Howard's bill that would re-create the conservation and supervising commissions for the state. Representatives Wheeler and Potter will oppose Howard and there is likelihood that Lane county affairs may get an airing if the bill succeeds in getting a final hearing. At present it is snoozing in a pigeonhole on the clerk's desk labeled, "laid on the table."

The house adjourned at noon Friday while it was under the order of call of the house. This is the first time I have seen this done, and, under the rules of the house, it could not be done. Speaker Burdick was not in the chair at the time. Under a call of the house the doors of the chamber are locked and the sergeant-at-arms goes after the missing members.
The result was that, while locked in the house chamber, theoretically speaking, the members actually were scattered about the city eating lunch.

Representative Howard Friday asked that the courtesies of the house be extended to the cyclops of the Howard clan—which was either his wife or his son, that portion of the legislator's remarks being drowned in the laugh that rippled over the chamber and into the lobby.

The assembly does not know where it is going, or when it will come back, if it succeeds in getting there. "I never saw such a funny session." That was the remark of a legislator who has attended several sessions.

SOCIETY

The Community club held its regular business meeting Saturday afternoon at the home of its president, Mrs. W. L. Darby. A good attendance was out and much interest is being taken in the community work.

Fourteen young folks got together Wednesday evening for a social evening in honor of Melvin Coffman, who left the next day with his parents for Marshfield, where the Coffmans are making their home. The affair was held at the home of Mrs. Susie Carlile.
Games and dancing were the diversions of the evening hours and dainty refreshments were served at a late hour. Those in the party were Miss Alverda Williams, Miss Laura Stewart, Miss Laura Belle Edmiston, Miss Ila Mason, Misses Vivian and Marguerite Carlile, Miss Helen Ostrander, Miss Delta Hopper, Kenneth Ward, Dale Gates, Glenn Breedlove, Lynn Walker, Orville Hazen, George Brunel and the honor guest, Melvin Coffman.

Mrs. Charles Adams entertained Saturday afternoon complimenting her mother, Mrs. R. B. Job, and Mrs. Herbert Eakin, whose birthday anniversaries occurred on the 22nd and 23rd of this month. It being one day prior to George Washington's birthday anniversary, patriotic decorations were used.
Flags were about the room. The afternoon hours were pleasantly spent socially and a delightful two course luncheon was served. Red carnations were the attractive center piece of the table and the pine cards had a picture of Washington in the corner. The national colors were the color scheme which were cleverly carried out in the table decorations and also in the refreshments.

More than 150 were present at the George Washington birthday dance given Friday evening by the American Legion auxiliary for the benefit of the community house fund. The hall was appropriately decorated with patriotic trimmings.
Bunting and flags were around the walls, the lights were shaded with red crepe paper and a picture of the father of our country hung from the front lattice work of the ceiling. Vocal numbers by Frank Snodgrass and Mrs. Victor Kem were features of the evening.
Punch was served through out the dancing hours from an attractive booth draped with flags. The stand which the punch bowl was upon was an artificial stump of a tree with a hatchet leaning on the side of it.

Mrs. Irl Groves entertained a number of relatives Thursday evening at dinner, complimenting Mr.

Lane Groves, the occasion being his birthday anniversary. Following the dinner the evening was spent socially. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Groves, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Childs, S. W. Boyd and the George Boyd family.

Mr. and Mrs. William Landess observed their fifty-fourth wedding anniversary Thursday evening at their home. They were married at Oak Grove, Polk county, Oregon, and have lived in Oregon all their wedded life. Mrs. Landess was Mrs. Ella Boone.

Mrs. O. M. Miller entertained the Joker club Friday evening at its regular meeting. The usual diversion, five hundred, was enjoyed and was followed by the serving of a luscious two course luncheon. Red carnations and ferns were the artistic decorations of the rooms and the tables. In remembrance of George Washington, whose birthday anniversary occurred yesterday patriotic place cards were used. Each card had an original verse on it which cleverly brought out the name of each guest. Invited guests of the club were Mrs. J. P. Graham, Mrs.
W. W. McFarland, Mrs. G. M.
Scott and Mrs. G. O. Knowles.

Complimenting and surprising Mrs. Georg Bjornet, Mrs. D. C.
Bosley was a gracious hostess to a number of the honor guest's friends Thursday evening at a shower. Games and music were the evening diversions. The approach of George Washington's birthday anniversary was the motif for the decorations and also the idea was carried out in the refreshments. Brick ice cream with Washington's profile in the center, cake with a hatchet formed in the icing and cherry punch was served.
Those invited for the affair were Mrs. Arch Proctor, Mrs. Victor Chambers, Mrs. H. A. Hagen, Mrs.
Merville Veatch, Mrs. S. R. Veatch, Mrs. Clyde Leonard, Mrs. Ivan
Warner, Mrs. E. T. Blakely, Mrs.
Dwight King, Mrs. Herman F.
Edwards, Mrs. Glenn Haney, Mrs.
Victor Kem, Mrs. Harris Ellsworth, Mrs. Ray Nelson, Miss Bethel Gowdy, Miss Marian White, Miss Kathryne Penner, Miss Margaret Galloway, Miss Ruth Stewart and Miss Ruth Bede.

Miss Arlie Morris celebrated her eighth birthday anniversary Saturday afternoon when seven of her little playmates responded to invitations to spend the afternoon with her.

A group of congenial friends got together Saturday evening at the H. B. Breedlove home for a social evening planned in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Lemon, newlyweds.

Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Titus entertained the members of the H.
D. S. club Friday at its regular evening of five hundred. Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Helliwell won the prize for high honors at the card session.

Mrs. W. E. Lebow, Mrs. H. K.
Metcalf and Mrs. C. A. Bartell were hostesses Thursday afternoon at the regular meeting of the Constellation club. Because of the approach of the birthday anniversary of George Washington, the room decorations were of the patriotic nature.

WHY SUFFER SO?

Get Back Your Health as Other Cottage Grove Folks Have Done.

Too many people suffer lame, aching backs, distressing kidney disorders and rheumatic aches and pains. Often this is due to faulty kidney action and there's danger of hardened arteries, dropsy, gravel or Bright's disease. Don't let weak kidneys wear you out. Use Doan's Pills before it is too late!
Doan's are a stimulant diuretic to the kidneys. Doan's should help you. Here is one of many Cottage Grove cases:
Mrs. M. Kebebeck, Birch & J.
Sts., says: "I was subject to kidney weakness for a long time and never found anything that helped me until I began using Doan's Pills. I used Doan's occasionally and they keep me free from all kidney ailments."

OVER SEVEN YEARS LATER, Mrs. Kebebeck said: "I always recommend Doan's for they put my kidneys in good order."
