

JITNEY

I have purchased the Powell Jitney Service and have moved the headquarters to the

Beaulieu & Harrel Garage

Where I may be reached for day or night calls. Prompt, efficient and courteous service.

JOE T. SHORT
PHONE 18

Tales of the Town

E. R. Spencer was a visitor in the city from Eugene Thursday.

Frank Sly, of Eugene spent Thursday in Cottage Grove.

Scott Benjamin, brother of Mrs. W. L. Darby, visited in Cottage Grove Thursday and Friday of last week. He left for his home in Seattle following his visit here.

Mrs. H. C. Mitchell returned Friday from a two weeks' visit in Walla Walla with relatives. On her return trip she stopped for several days in Albany visiting with relatives there. Mr. Mitchell motored to Albany Thursday afternoon, returning Friday forenoon with Mrs. Mitchell.

Ren Sanford, A. Ralph Spearow and Mrs. Ida Miller returned Wednesday evening from a motor trip to Salem and Portland. Mrs. Miller remained in Salem with her brother, A. D. Smith, while the men went on to Portland on business.

U. G. Walker, of Portland, former resident of Cottage Grove, was a visitor here over the weekend. He was assistant sergeant-at-arms of the house at the recent legislative session and came up from Salem Friday with Elbert Bede, who filled his old position as reading clerk of the house.

George J. Willett returned Thursday night from Salem, where he had been acting as mail clerk in the senate during the legislative session.

Galloway, insurance, 511 Main. Miss Crystal Robinson left Saturday for Portland for a brief visit with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Akers, of Oakland, Ore., were week end guests at the home of Mrs. Akers' brother, H. W. Titus.

H. Orton Wiley, president of the Northwest Nazarene college, will speak at the Baptist church Thursday evening. He will be assisted by E. J. Lord, superintendent of the north Pacific district of the Nazarene church.

Six thousand feet of films of Japan, showing the trip of A. R. Spearow, will be shown at the Arcade theatre tomorrow evening under the auspices of the extension division of the University of Oregon. A fifteen minute talk on Japan will precede the show and there will be a running explanation of the films as they are being shown.

It pays to list your property with Hall & Lang.

Mrs. George Morris went to Newberg Friday to visit her daughter, Mrs. E. C. Duncan.

Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Woodson motored to Albany Friday in connection with business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. John Keating Jr. returned from Portland Friday morning. Mr. Keating will be bookkeeper for the sewer company and they will reside in cottage Grove while the present work is going on.

While jumping from the mill dock onto a car at the Comstock

The small son of Norman Pholl is recovering from a severe illness. The boy was taken sick last Wednesday.

See Nelson for used cars of quality at right prices.

George Combs, of Drain, was a visitor in the city Saturday.

Z. E. Merrill, assistant general manager, and George McClennan, general superintendent of the Mountain States Power company were in the city Saturday from Albany.

Mrs. Ella Wilson, of Eugene, a former Cottage Grove resident spent the week end here visiting with relatives.

Nelson has special bargains in used cars as follows:
1924 Studebaker light 6 with license
1923 Overland, like new, new tires
1920 Studebaker special, fine shape good tires.
1924 Chevrolet roadster, A1 shape
1916 Dodge roadster, with license, new tires.
Fords all models from $35 up.

Claude Beairto, manager of the Cottage Grove branch of the Lane auto company, will move into the Bert Richards house on Sixth street.

Wilbur Spray will do outside work for the Mountain States Power company. His place in the office is being taken by Miss Nola Banton.

Cottage Grove high school lost the game with Roseburg played at Roseburg, Friday evening by a score of 21 to 14.

Ray Nelson for Radio Supplies.
The trial of G. S. Bumgartner, arrested here some time ago charged with unlawful possession of liquor, has been set for March 30 in the justice court of J. E. Young. Bumgartner, whose home is in Corvallis, is now in a hospital in Coquille. The check for $100 which he gave for bail was returned today marked "not sufficient funds."

Olaf Hammer recently returned from a trip to Newport. While there he secured a contract to supply crushed rock for a section of highway under construction in that vicinity.

Our new office and warehouse is just north of the depot. Visit us. Godard & Randall.
The two year old daughter of William Kelly of west Main street has been ill for several days with bronchial pneumonia. She is now recovering from the attack.

Mrs. E. C. Shay left today for Portland to attend a convention and the Spirella school of cosmetology which is being held in that city during this week.

Miss Agnes McCormack, of Klamath Falls, spent Thursday and Friday at the M. A. Burcham home.

Mr. and Mrs. S. B. Cooper, of St. Helens, were week end guests at the homes of Mr. Cooper's sisters, Mrs. Henry Hohl and Mrs. George Hohl.

Ray Nelson, auto electrician. Ninth and Main streets.
Mrs. A. Ralph Spearow and baby daughter returned home today from a Eugene hospital.

Mrs. E. J. Howe returned yesterday from a Eugene hospital, where she had been receiving medical attention. She is getting along nicely.

The small son of J. T. Allen, of Latham, is recovering from an attack of bronchial pneumonia with which he has been ill for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Walton and son Fred spent Thursday evening with Mrs. T. M. Doak, who has been laid up for some time with a fractured hip. Mrs. Doak is improving satisfactorily and is now able to get around a little with the aid of crutches.

Scholl's kryptoks make you see.
Miss Genevieve Rice, teacher of the Disston school, was a guest yesterday at the George Mote home.

Abe Gilbert, of Oregon City, spent Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. George Hawley. During his visit here, Mr. Gilbert with Mr. Hawley visited Emmett Sharp.

Mrs. May Irvin, who makes her home with her daughter, Mrs. W. H. Daugherty, left today for Newport for a few days' visit.

Ernest Oberg, who had been attending a home missionary convention at Mountain View, Calif., and who was enroute to his home in College Place, Wash., spent the week end here at the home of Mrs. R. S. Trask, a sister of Mrs. Oberg. Mr. Oberg was accompanied by Mr. Stevens, a minister from Washington D. C., who is general superintendent of the home missionary department of the Seventh Day Adventist denomination and he also spent the week end at the Trask home.

Mr. and Mrs. William Bartels returned Saturday afternoon from Portland, where they had been to attend the funeral of Mrs. Bartels' mother, Mrs. Catharine Carter. Mrs. John Mullady, of Eureka, Calif., accompanied them here and spent the week end at their home. Mrs. Mullady is an aunt of Mrs. Bartels. She left this afternoon for her California home.

The Overhalzer boys are clearing the Old Heinrich place on Silk Creek which they recently purchased and where they plan to build a new sawmill in the near future.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hawkins and their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hawkins, motored to Roseburg yesterday and spent the day at the home of Mrs. C. A. Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hawkins. Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Hawkins remained in Roseburg for a week's visit with the Smiths, but Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hawkins returned last evening.

Charles Cochran and his son and daughters, Herbert, Gertrude and Melba, and his mother, Mrs. S. E. Cochran, motored to Roseburg yesterday and spent the day at the home of H. U. Cochran, son of Mrs. Cochran.

THE VERY BEST
When you order by phone or come here in person to select your groceries, you can count on getting the very choicest catables possible to obtain.

McQueen's Grocery
PHONE 65

ronce Simmons, Mrs. T. O. Russell and Mrs. Frank E. Dunn. Mrs. Percival with her son Robert returned yesterday to their home in Portland, after a brief visit at the Dyott home.

Nearly 40 were present at the annual interdenominational meeting held Friday afternoon in the parlors of the Presbyterian church. Mrs. H. W. Titus presided at the meeting and Mrs. A. J. Adams had charge of the devotionals. Papers on missionary work were given by a member of the missionary society of each church. Those to represent the churches in this were: Miss Grace Blackwell, Methodist; Mrs. E. A. Trask, Presbyterian; Mrs. Strom, of Santa Clara, Christian; and Mrs. Ponsford, Baptist. In addition vocal solos were given by Mrs. Roy Leonard and Mrs. Glenn Haney and a vocal duet was given by Miss Helen Ostrander and Miss Delta Hopper.

Miss Ellena J. Shortridge, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Shortridge, of this city, became the wife of James H. Maust Friday in Eugene.

Charles Burkholder Jr. was honor guest at a birthday dinner held yesterday in Corvallis at the home of Mrs. Lydia Stouffer, grandmother of Mr. Burkholder. Daffodils were the attractive decoration of the rooms and table. Others to enjoy the affair were Mrs. Clara Burkholder, and Mrs. C. E. Frost, of this city, and Miss Belle Burkholder, of Corvallis. Mrs. Burkholder and Charles Burkholder returned last evening but Mrs. Frost and Miss Belle Burkholder went on to Portland for a few days' business and pleasure trip. Mrs. Frost plans to return here Tuesday.

Mrs. F. L. Grannis was one of the honor guests at the regular meeting of the Killcare club, Eugene, Thursday afternoon. The club entertained in honor of former members and Mrs. Grannis was a member of the club when a resident of Eugene. Mrs. Grannis was a house guest of Mrs. Bert Vincent, of Eugene, Thursday and Friday.

The Rinkeydinks enjoyed an egg breakfast yesterday morning in the basement of the Presbyterian church.

Divide Society.
Fifteen ladies of the neighborhood met at the W. E. Burkett home Thursday afternoon and held a miscellaneous shower in honor of Mrs. Frank Turner, who with Mr. Turner left that evening to make their home in Cottage Grove.

Church News

Presbyterian Church—A. Ralph Spearow, pastor. Sunday school at 10, forenoon service at 11, evening service at 7:30. Midweek services Wednesday evenings at 7:30.

Baptist Church—Tenth and Adams. Bible school at 10, preaching at 11 and 7:30. Young people's meeting at 6:30. Prayer meeting Thursday evenings at 7:30.

Christian Church, the "home-like" church—A. J. Adams, minister. Sunday school at 9:45, sermon and communion at 11, Christian endeavor at 6:30, evening service at 7:30.

Methodist Church—Rev. J. H. Ebert, Pastor. Sunday school at 9:45, morning worship at 11, Epworth league at 7, evening service at 7:30.

Free Methodist church—Corner of at 7:30. Everybody is welcome to attend all of these services. Monroe avenue and south Fifth street—D. S. Forrester, pastor, Sunday school at 10, forenoon services at 11, evening service at 7:30. Prayer meeting at 7:30 Thursday evenings.

Christian Science Church—Corner of Jefferson avenue and Second street. Sunday services at 11 a. m. Wednesday services at 7:30 p. m.

Seventh Day Adventist Church—West Main street. Services every Saturday. Sabbath school at 10, church service at 11; prayer meeting Wednesday evenings at 7:30.

Sunday School services in the Latham school house every Sunday at 9:45. Mrs. Hugh Trunell, superintendent; Mrs. Winnie Hagerty, assistant superintendent.

SOCIETY

A wedding of much interest here was that of Mrs. Ilma L. Benger to William M. Thum which occurred Friday afternoon at the Presbyterian church in Eugene, A. Ralph Spearow, pastor of the local Presbyterian church, officiating. The couple left immediately after the ceremony for Portland, returning here last evening. They will make their home here.

The annual past Matrons and past Patrons night was observed Friday evening at the regular meeting of the Eastern Star chapter. An entertaining program was staged in honor of the past officers. Mrs. W. J. Woods, Mrs. C. A. Bartell and Mrs. A. A. Richmond had charge of the program. The regular lodge session was held and was followed by the serving of a dainty luncheon. Mrs. Charles Adams, Mrs. L. H. Harrel, Mrs. S. S. Lasswell, Mrs. E. C. Shay, Mrs. Victor Chambers, Mrs. Merville Ventch, and Mrs. Alfred White were the refreshment committee.

Mrs. Samuel Ferguson entertained the Past Noble Grands' club Thursday afternoon at the I. O. O. F. hall. A business session was held and then the remainder of the afternoon hours were spent socially. A delicious two course luncheon was served, the table being made very attractive with bouquets of daffodils. Guests of the club were Mrs. Marie Eastham and Mrs. Ferguson.

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Dyott motored to Eugene Tuesday evening and attended a dinner dance given at the Osburn hotel by the Assembly club of which the Dyotts are members. They had as guests for the evening Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Donahue, of Eugene; Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Koehler, of this city; Iner Olsen and Miss Jean Watson, of Portland.

Mrs. H. A. Miller was hostess Thursday afternoon to the Social Twelve. Hyacinths and jonquils were the attractive room and table decorations. Chatting over needle work was the diversion and a two course luncheon was served.

Mrs. N. G. Buell entertained the Utopia club at its regular meeting Thursday afternoon. Blue, gold and white were the colors used in the artistic color scheme of the room and table decorations. Large bouquets of violets were about the rooms. Social conversation and fancy work, the usual diversions, were enjoyed. A tempting two course luncheon was served, the table being centered with a bouquet of daffodils in artistic arrangement. The place cards were white with yellow daffodils in the corner and the favors were the white baskets filled with home made candy and tied with yellow ribbons.

Mrs. G. C. Dyott entertained a number of Eugene friends of her home guest, Mrs. Glenn Percival, of Portland formerly of Eugene, at a 1 o'clock luncheon Wednesday. Those invited for the occasion were Mrs. Charles Donahue, Mrs. Law-

Notice!
COME, COME to the Baptist Church at 7:30 p. m. THURSDAY MARCH 5 AND HEAR H. Orton Wiley president of Northwest Nazarene college deliver his address. He will be assisted by E. J. Lord, supt. of North Pacific dist. of Nazarene church

Special Music mch2p

A. W. Kime has arrived here from Portland and opened his office in the Cottage Grove Bank building. He will occupy the same waiting room as D. A. Forbes.

Myrtle Smuer is recovering rapidly from the accident which happened on Knox hill last Tuesday when she was thrown from a buggy.

Dr. Hagen cures sleeplessness.

R. W. Evans, Roseburg, is a visitor in Cottage Grove.

Frank McFarland, of Grants Pass, passed through the city today on his way home from a visit to northern points.

J. P. Yeagan, deputy tax collector from the office of Clyde G. Huntly, Portland, has been in the city since last Friday for the purpose of conferring with Cottage Grove people in regard to filling out their income tax reports.

W. J. Weaver, owner and manager of the Hotel Umpqua, Roseburg, is a visitor in the city today.

Our new office and warehouse is just north of the depot. Visit us. Godard & Randall.
W. R. Evans, Roseburg, was a business visitor in Cottage Grove over the week end.

D. A. Reeves, of Lebanon, spent Sunday in the city in connection with business.

H. C. Adams, who has been day clerk in the Hotel Bartell for the past three years has resigned and expects to accept a position in Portland, C. L. Lawton has taken over the day shift and W. A. Heek will be night clerk.

Repairs will start in the near future on the front of the Imperial barber shop. The door will be moved from the east to the west side and other changes made.

Scholl is your home optometrist.
Frank Turner left today for Portland to serve on the federal grand jury.

William Bittinger was in Eugene today on business.

The Loren Harvey family spent yesterday in Roseburg at the homes of Mrs. Harvey's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Rand, and Mr. Harvey's mother, Mrs. Frank Harvey.

Nelson Whippes went to Black Butte today to take charge of the logging camp of the J. I. Jones & Son sawmill.

Fuller Brushes—prices reduced. Old orders delivered at new prices. G. E. Armstrong. f23m9p(M)

Mrs. S. E. Gordon, who has been nursing Z. L. Cox, who is ill in health, returned today to her home in Eugene.

The Loren Harvey family is moving today to the Craig property on south Third street from the property of Mrs. L. McAbay on south Sixth street.

The girls' basketball team of the

Faultless Bread
Put your teeth into a slice of our delicious Bread and you'll realize why so many housewives have quit baking their own. Fresh from our ovens daily—wholesome and well baked—fit to grace the table of a king. Give it a trial.

The Cottage Grove Electric Bakery
G. A. Sanders, Prop.

Our new office and warehouse is just north of the depot. Visit us. Godard & Randall.
A cable was received here this morning by the grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hemenway, telling of the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Madden, of Tokyo, Japan. Mrs. Madden is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hemenway.

J. J. Woodruff, former driller at the local oil well who has been residing in South Dakota, visited here during the week with his little daughter Melba, who makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Malla Miller.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold White and daughter and Mr. and Mrs. Orville Waller, of Eugene, were guests yesterday at the N. W. White home.

M. H. Anderson left today for Portland on a few days' business trip.

F. A. Cripp and family, of Eugene, spent yesterday at the George Schneider home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Motter motored to Portland today to visit with relatives.

PNEUMONIA CAUSE OF DEATH OF HEBRON GIRL
Viola Jane Gilham, 6-year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Gilham, of the Hebron district, near Woodard's mill, died this morning from pneumonia. The funeral is to be held at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon from the chapel. A. Ralph Spearow, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiating. Interment will be in the Taylor-Lane cemetery.

The child was born June 2, 1918.

"Almost every girl wants to marry a rich man."
"There aren't enough rich men to go around. What's the next step?"
"Marry what offers and nag him up the ladder."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

APPROACHING EVENTS
Mrs. John Coffman, Mrs. S. C. Coffman, Mrs. Roscoe Forward, Mrs. George Hohl and Mrs. J. H. Groom will entertain the Christian ladies' aid society at its regular business and social meeting to be held Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Dickson will entertain the H. D. S. club at its regular meeting Friday evening.

Mrs. J. P. Graham has invited the Joker club to hold its regular meeting Friday evening with her

A. F. & A. M.
Regular meeting Wednesday night at which the Benedict Degree will be conferred in full by G. G. E. degree team. Special program and special refreshments.

What Joy
And what a convenience to have one of our delicious sugar-cured Hams at home when the weather is too inclement to go out or unexpected company arrives.

Buy one of these excellent Hams, bake it yourself to the tenderness and sweetness you like, and you'll have a tasty meat item on hand for your luncheons or dinners.

Quality Market
PHONE 46
Culver & Anderson

159-J
Is Our Number

Call that number whenever you have an item for publication. The Sentinel wants all the news while it is news. If you know an item and don't tell it, it's your fault if it is not printed.

—THE—
SENTINEL