

Reflecting the Progress of This Community

In the building of the Bank of Cottage Grove at Main and Sixth streets, and adjoining quarters, is being constructed a new, thoroughly modern banking home.

When the remodeling is complete, residents of Cottage Grove and vicinity will have access to financial facilities surpassed by none. There will be provision not only for convenience and comfort but for the rapid, proficient transaction of all financial business. And the building itself will reflect credit upon this community and indicate something of the progressiveness which characterizes its citizens.

Our Growing Business Demands Still Larger Quarters

The remodeling which is anticipated will be completed about May 1, is the result of a growing volume of business which finally has reached a point justifying the Bank of Cottage Grove in placing at the disposal of its patrons and the general public, equipment complete and modern in every particular.

President Coolidge's claims to being a politician are considerably reinforced by this story, related by an attack at the Boston state house when Coolidge was in the Massachusetts legislature. One day he called into his office the young lady who was stenographer for one of the committees of which he was chairman and said: "Miss Pounder, you are a very handsome young woman."

"Oh," gasped the typist blushing. "You dress neatly," continued Cal, "and you have a well-modulated voice. I might add that your deportment is also above reproach."

"Oh, Mr. Coolidge, you shouldn't pay me compliments."

"That's all right," said Coolidge grimly. "I merely wanted to put you in a cheerful frame of mind before taking up the matter of your punctuation and spelling."

My Garden.

I love to watch my garden grow, to dig the earth and turn the sods. I love to take my trusty hoe and swat the weeds and smash the clods. To shoo the bugs and neighbor's hen; to pole the beans and brush the peas, is better than the haunts of men; is richer than a life of ease.

I love to watch my garden grow. I live to coax the lettuce green. I love to spade and plant and sow the radish and the festive bean. I love to scratch the cabbage head, to tickle the cucumber's spine. I love to make the onion's bed and train up the tomato vine.

I love to watch my garden grow and ripen in the summer sun. I love to watch things sprout, but oh! to see them gathered is such fun. 'Tis joy to reap the luscious spud; my Bantam corn rare pleasure brings. My ripe tomatoes stir my blood and give me joy unknown to kings.

I love to watch my garden grow, for in it all my toil and sweat will turn to something good. I know, and I a harvest grand will get; and those I love will better feed for what I've conquered from the sod. My garden holds the cure for greed, for in it I have worked with God. —O. A. STILLMAN.

FARMERS' UNION HEAD URGES GREATER COOPERATION

Two Hundred Delegates Are Present at County Meeting Held Here Friday.

Herbert Egbert, state president of the Farmers' union, was the principal speaker at the quarterly meeting of the Lane county organization held here Friday. He pointed out the loss to the producer through the expense of marketing through several hands and gave hope that this condition, which has always existed, may yet be remedied. He expressed the belief that some forward steps might be taken at the national meet at Kansas City which was in progress at the time he was making his address here. A large attendance at the state convention, to be held May 19, 20 and 21 in Corvallis, was urged to act upon suggestions of the national meet and to take other steps for putting agriculture upon a more profitable basis.

Mrs. G. B. Jones, of Polk county, state secretary, spoke briefly.

County Agent O. S. Fletcher spoke upon the alfalfa projects, anti-smut projects, seed certification projects and rodent control campaign being conducted through his office.

H. C. Jackson gave a brief review of the growth of the union in Lane county since its organization May 27, 1922.

Cloverdale, Coast Fork, Creswell, Dorona, Hadleyville, Jasper, Lorane, McKenzie, Mt. Vernon, Spencer Creek, Trent, Vida and Willamette locals were represented in an attendance of 200.

Mrs. George Kappauf, of Coast Fork local, is a member of the committee arranging the program for the state convention.

Car Stolen and Recovered.

A Ford coupe belonging to Robert Stacey was stolen at about 9 o'clock last evening from in front of the I. O. O. F. hall. It was recovered at about midnight at Roseburg, word of the theft having been telephoned by Night Police McFarland. It had been taken by two young men who were thought to be deserters from the army. Mr. Stacey went to Roseburg this forenoon to bring the car back.

Little Unemployment Reported.

That there is now almost no unemployment on the west coast and that in a few districts there is even a shortage of some kinds of skilled help, is indicated by reports from 4L employment service offices in various northwestern cities received at 4L headquarters in Eugene. Labor demand and supply appear to be nearer a balance than at any time since early last fall.

Sam was a good teamster and had amazed his passenger with the dexterity in using his whip to snap blossoms from the flowers or leaves from the trees which they passed. He never missed his aim. Commenting on his dexterity, the passenger suggested that Sam try his luck on a hornet's nest snuggling under the limb of a tree.

"No, sah," Sam replied, "I don't try no whp on those hornets. No, sah, they's organized, that's what they is."
