

SOCIETY

Mrs. A. L. Wynne was hostess Tuesday afternoon to the M. P. G. club. The rooms were attractively decorated with spring flowers. Fancy work and social conversation, the usual diversions, were enjoyed and a delightful two-course luncheon was served. The table was centered with a large basket of sweet peas, baby breath and other spring flowers in pretty arrangement. Nearly all the members were present.

Members of the Utopia club, with their husbands, surprised their president, Mrs. C. E. Frost, Tuesday evening. When Mrs. Frost returned from a brief visit at a neighbor's she found the guests in possession of the house. Card games were the diversion and dainty refreshments of ice cream, cake and coffee, which the guests had brought with them were served. The club presented Mrs. Frost a gorgeous davenport pillow of old rose taffeta trimmed with gold lace. Those to enjoy the affair were Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Umphrey, Mr. and Mrs. S. I. Mackin, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Hays, Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Grannis, Mr. and Mrs. Omer Moore, Mr. and Mrs. N. G. Baull, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Richmond and Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Durham.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Stevens entertained the Tillieum club last evening at an apron and overalls party. The front room was attractively decorated with lavender anemones and lilacs. A large pink and white May pole was in the center of the dining room. Dog-wood and other spring flowers were also about this room. A mock wedding caused much amusement. Five hundred, the usual diversion, was also enjoyed. Mrs. W. W. McFarland was the winner in the hunt for cornucopias filled with candy and received a large stick of candy as a prize. A most delicious two-course luncheon was served. Invited guests of the club were Mr. and Mrs. S. V. Allison, Mr. and Mrs. Cleve Miller and Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McFarland. Mrs. W. J. White has invited the club to meet next Wednesday at her home.

A number of relatives and a few friends hold a picnic dinner Sunday at the Isaac Land home at Dorena, the occasion being the seventy-seventh birthday anniversary of Mr. Land. The table was set in the yard. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Land, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kelly and daughter and son, Miss Rita and Lawrence, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Garoutte and son, Walter and Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Garoutte, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Garoutte and son Ceford, Mr. and Mrs. Perry VanSchoick, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Garoutte and son Colin, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Garoutte and son Alden, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Darnwood, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Patton, Alex Garoutte, Bob Stacey, Frank Snodgrass, Beryl Arthers, Andrew Land, Mrs. Della Abbott, Misses Sarah and Laura Riley, all of this city or vicinity; Mrs. Eva Wells and granddaughter, of Portland, and Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Roy and son Lynn, of Seattle.

Mrs. S. S. Lasswell was hostess to the Tuesday Bridge club this week at its regular 1 o'clock luncheon. The centerpiece of the table was an artistic bouquet of willow orchids and the place cards harmonized with the centerpiece. Red carnations were the attractive decorations of the living room, where the afternoon hours were pleasantly spent at bridge. Mrs. C. S. Roberts securing high honors. Mrs. Raymond Grube was an invited guest of the club.

Mrs. Victor Chambers was a hostess Tuesday to the Elmarites club at its regular social afternoon. They completed their plans for Better Homes week, which this club is sponsoring. A tempting luncheon was served, the table being centered with an artistic bouquet of orchids fixed in moss. Mrs. A. L. Thomas, who is a house guest at the home of her sister-in-law, Mrs.

Chambers, was an additional guest for the afternoon.

APPROACHING EVENTS

The officers of the Tuesday Evening Study club will entertain the club at a 6:30 banquet Tuesday evening at Hotel Bartell. Following the dinner the annual business meeting will be held at the home of the club's president, Mrs. George Matthews. The club will then disband for the summer.

Mrs. C. A. Bartell will be hostess to the LaComus club at its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon.

ART EXHIBIT GIVEN HERE

Proceeds Go to Buy Pictures for Local Schools.

The grades of the public schools are sponsoring an art exhibit being held in the high school gymnasium. The pictures are reproductions of famous pictures and are especially adapted to school rooms and were sent here by a picture publishing house. The proceeds of the exhibit go for the purchase of pictures.

The west side school furnished an entertaining program last evening. Musical numbers, a minuet and another dance number, vocal numbers and playlets were included in the program. A clever impersonation of "Alburtus the Great," was put on by Glenn Swanson. A memory drill staged by thirteen junior high students showed remarkable ability and intensive training.

This evening, which concludes the exhibit, the east side school will give a program of musical numbers, vocal numbers, dances and other drills.

Walter and Roy England motored to Rajada Sunday on business. Everett Holstrom, of Marcola, is visiting at the home of his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Kirk of Dorena.

A number of relatives and friends of "Uncle" Isaac Land surprised him on his seventy-seventh birthday Sunday. About 25 spent the day with him.

L. G. Van Schoick motored to Roseburg Saturday for a visit with relatives.

Many National Parks in the United States

There are 19 national parks. They are: Hot Springs, located in middle Arkansas and containing 40 springs; Yellowstone, in northwestern Wyoming; Sequoia, middle California; General Grant, central California, created to preserve the General Grant tree, 35 feet in diameter; Mount Rainier, Washington, with 28 glaciers, Crater Lake, southwestern Oregon, extinct volcano.

Wind Cave, South Dakota, with miles of galleries; Platt, southern Oklahoma, containing sulphur springs; Sully Hill, North Dakota, a game preserve; Mesa Verde, southwestern Colorado, with prehistoric cliff dwellings; Glacier, northwestern Montana, with 60 small glaciers; Rocky Mountain, middle Colorado, with peaks 11,000 to 14,255 feet high; Hawaii, including the volcano Mauna Loa; Lassen Volcano, northern California.

Mount McKinley, Alaska, highest mountain in North America; Grand Canyon, northern Arizona; Lafayette, Desert Island, Maine, with a group of granite mountains; Zion, southwestern Utah, with canyon 2,000 feet deep.

In addition to these there are several dozen smaller reservations, with caves, natural bridges, battlefields and similar places of natural or historic interest. These are known as national monuments.

Scientific Basis for Chances of Greatness

The older the parents when the child is born, says an authority on heredity, the surer its chances for greatness.

The first and last born are more likely to attain eminence. The more children a mother has the longer she lives—and the longer she lives, the longer the children live.

Children of professional people—lawyers, physicians and the like—have a better chance for fame than those born to wealth or those whose parents lacked educational advantages.

The offspring of fathers under thirty-one are more likely to become soldiers; artists come from fathers between thirty-one and forty; between forty-one and fifty there is more of a tendency toward statesmen; over fifty-one come the philosophers like Confucius, Bacon and Franklin.

Ninety per cent of the investigated criminal cases show them to be the offspring of younger parents. If your father is more than sixty, and you are the youngest child in a large family—you should become famous.

A Doctor's Life

The doctor sent a bill for $10 to the terrible-tempered Mr. Bangs. The bill read: "Two visits—$10." "You're a robber," said Mr. Bangs. "Five dollars a visit! It isn't worth it."

"I'll rewrite the bill," said the doctor and Bangs smiled. "They couldn't put anything like that over on him." Then the doctor wrote: "Getting out of bed at 2 a. m., answering telephone, disturbing wife, dressing, going to garage, cranking 'tin Lizzie,' two-mile drive in the cold, saving baby's life, return to garage, waking wife, undressing, getting back into bed—$10."

He said to Bangs: "I won't make any charge for the second visit, and you need not pay for the first unless you feel I have earned the money." Mr. Bangs paid the bill.—Boston Globe.

Uncle Sam Gives Bargain

Nobody likes to get a letter on which there is postage due. One of the R. F. D. carriers tells a funny yarn about a woman, a foreigner, who received a letter from the old country marked 20 cents due. He offered it to her, asking for the 20 cents. She refused it, shaking her head. He stayed a moment, not knowing exactly what to do. Finally, he noticed that he had made a mistake and that the postage charge should have been 15 cents. So he called to the woman, trying to explain.

As soon as she heard 15 cents she smiled, showing all her teeth. She cheerfully gave him the money. She thought she had got the best of a bargain.—G. Edward Snyder in the American Magazine.

Poor Advertisement

Good advertising should look not merely to the present but to the future. It must have been a short-sighted house painter that inserted the following announcement in his home newspaper: "To the public: The reason why I have hitherto been able to do painting so much cheaper than anybody else is because I am a bachelor and do not need to make profit for the maintenance of a wife and children. This now my duty to inform the public that this advantage will shortly be withdrawn, as I am about to be married. You will therefore do well to send in your orders at once for the old rate."—Youth's Companion.

Making Him Useful

The plumber worked and the helper stood looking on. He was learning the business. This was his first day. "I say," he inquired, "do you charge for my time?" "Certainly," came the reply. "But I haven't done anything." The plumber, to fill in the hour, had been looking long at the finished job with a lighted candle. Holding the two inches of it that were still unburned to the helper, he said, witheringly: "Here, if you must be so conscientious, blow that out!"
