THE GUARD IS KINDLY.

The Eugene Guard is not to be outdone in its efforts to please all parts of the county.

Also to show that it takes no umbrage at the Sentinel's mild suggestion of the possibility of county division, it does not hesitate to say that The Sentinel is the best twice-a-week newspaper in Lane county. We are deeply appreciative of the compliment,

We are not to be outdone by the kindness of The Guard. If there can be two best, it is easily one of the two best dailies in the county.

But let The Guard speak for itself:
"The Cottage Grove Sentinel, which, we hasten to say at the outset, is the very best semi-weekly newspaper published in Lane county,

"For the first time in years," declares the Sentinel, "Nesmith county, with Cottage Grove as the county seat, has been seriously considered." And, "It could be said with equal force that if the western end of the county wishes to be set aside in a new county, very much in the latter manner argued the advocates of the secession of the Pacific coast states in the trying times of the civil war.

"May the suggestion be permitted that the Sentinel's suggestion does not go far enough, and that it is rather discriminatory? Junction City is a live, virile town nowadays. There ought to be a new county created out of northern Lane, with Junction City as the county seat, and how about the Oakridge section? There is no more hustling town in all Oregon than Oakridge. It ought by all means to be made a county seat, with a county carved around it to suit.

"By all means let's divide up this county, but let's make the partition complete and impartial.
Let's have, not three counties as the Sentinel suggests, but five, or maybe six. Let's divide our lands, our towns, our solidarity—everything, except our money. Let's cut up our county jail and send a section of it to each of the new county seats. United we stand; divided we fall' is all out of date, in the Sentinel view. Let's do something about it. If we can make six counties blossom where one blossom now there ought to be county offices enough to go around, so that each and every one of us could hold office and we could all stop working so hard.

Representatives of the entomology department of Oregon Agricultural college were here Saturday making an examination of fruit trees in a search for the cherry fruit fly pest.
No trace of it was found in this part of the valley.

SOCIETY

Miss Altie Hays, of this city, and Charles Arthur Henson, of Eugene, were united in marriage Saturday evening at the home of the officiating pastor, A. J. Adams. Following the ceremony the newlyweds went to the Kent home in Delight valley, where a number of friends had gathered for a charivari. A wedding breakfast was served yesterday morning, with only immediate relatives present. The bride graduated from Cottage Grove high school in 1922 and had spent the past three years in Colorado, where she met Mr. Henson. The couple will bride her home in Eugene. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Lee Nixon and a cousin of E. J. Kent, both of Delight valley.

Miss Evelyn Veatch and Mrs.
Cleo Morelock were hostesses Thursday evening to the Toujours Prete club at its last regular meeting of the season. The affair was held in the arbor at the rear of the Roy E. Short home. The arbor had been artistically transferred into a Japanese scene. Lighted Japanese lanterns hung from the trees added to the effectiveness of the scene. Fruit punch was served during the fore part of the evening.
A business session was held and the remainder of the hours were pleasantly spent socially.
Tempting refreshments were served at the close of the evening.

A Portland wedding of interest here was that of Miss Alice Evans to Floyd Bowles, both of Portland, which took place yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Judge and Mrs. Walter H. Evans. The bride taught in the local high school a year ago and the groom is also well known here. Bishop Walter Taylor Sumner read the ceremony in the presence of about 100 guests. The couple left at once for a trip north. They will make their home in Portland.

As the final session for the season the Keepers of the Den motored to Eugene Thursday noon and held a 1 o'clock luncheon at the new Eugene hotel and a theater party in the afternoon at the McDonald theater. Those present were Mrs.
R. L. Stewart, Mrs. Gavin C.
Dyott, Mrs. W. A. Garoutte, Mrs.
Fred Anderson, Mrs. N. J. Nelson
Jr., Mrs. A. W. Helliwell, Mrs.
O. M. Miller, Mrs. S. S. Lasswell
and Mrs. K. K. Mills.

Mrs. George Hohl and Mrs.
George Currin, noble grand and vice grand of the Rebekah lodge, entertained the Past Noble Grands' club Thursday afternoon in I. O.
O. F. hall. This was the last meeting until September. The afternoon hours were pleasantly spent socially and a delicious two-course luncheon was served. Mrs. Fred Smith, who is here from Harris, Minn., was an invited guest.

The Eugene Daughters of the Nile held their final session for this season Wednesday afternoon at the Osburn hotel. Mrs. K. K.
Mills, Mrs. C. A. Bartell, Mrs.
H. W. Titus, Mrs. R. E. Short, Mrs.
Victor Chambers, Mrs. W. A.
Garoutte and Mrs. Earl Hill, of this city, attended. During the afternoon hours 25 rag dolls were made for the Shriner's children hospital in Portland. Dainty refreshments were served.

Mrs. Annie Petrie, a life-long resident of Cottage Grove, and John R. Griffith, who has handled circulation for The Sentinel for a number of years, were married Tuesday, June 23, at Roseburg.
Pastor Mow, of the Christian church, performed the ceremony at his residence. They will make their home at Grants Pass, where Mr.
Griffith is interested in a newspaper.

Mrs. R. R. Meeks was hostess Thursday afternoon at a swimming party at the steel bridge, the affair being in honor of her nephews, Verlin Milligan, Dale and Lester Gates and Lloyd DeYoung, all of whom had birthday anniversaries during June. After the swim, refreshments which included a birthday cake were served on the banks of the river.

Members of the Elmarts club and their families will hold a picnic Thursday as the final session for this season. The members will go out in the afternoon and the men will follow after business hours.

Members of the LaComus club and their families will picnic tomorrow at the Curran bridge. The women and children will go out in the afternoon and the men will follow after business hours. This event will close the meetings of this club until fall.

Nearly 50 were present Thursday evening at the Constellation club picnic held at the foot of Curran's hill on Row river. This was the last gathering of the club until fall.

One of the prettiest weddings of the season was that performed at the Christian church last evening after church services, when Miss Veta Plaster became the bride of Leslie Hull, both well known members of the younger set of the city.

The ring ceremony was read by the pastor, A. J. Adams in the presence of 65 invited guests and as many others as the church would hold. The altar was beautifully decorated in pink and white.
A double arch was in the center of the platform, with pink and white streamers running from it to the rear of the platform which was banked with green foliage.
Tiny pink rambler roses were entwined around the arch and a large pink and white wedding bell hung in the center of the arch.
Immense bouquets of white lilies and pink roses were about the platform. The wedding vows were exchanged under the arch. The bride was beautiful in a gown of white satin. She was attended by Miss Nola Banton as maid of honor, who was gowned in white and by Miss Inez Jones, Miss Winifred Grannis, Miss Lula Hull and Miss Hazel Fuhrer as bridesmaids, prettily dressed in gowns of pastel shades. Little Lois May Stoneburg, niece of the bridegroom, was a pretty flower girl. Brighter Leonard was Mr. Hull's attendant.
Mrs. Glen Hancy sang "O Promise Me." The wedding march and processional were played by Mrs.
Claude Sherman. The bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Plaster, gave an informal reception to the bridal party immediately following the wedding. Ice cream and cake were served. The couple left last evening by motor for Washington to visit for a few days with relatives of Mr. Hull.

Mrs. T. J. Hanna entertained a few relatives at dinner yesterday in honor of Mr. Hanna's 74th birthday anniversary. His son, R. B. Hanna, and Mrs. Hanna, his daughter, Mrs. Albert Wise, and Mr. Wise, of Creswell were present.
Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Rente, grandchildren of Mr. Hanna, were also present.

Mr. and Mrs. N. J. Nelson Jr. had as dinner guests last evening Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Chaloupka and Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Chaloupka. The latter two are of Los Angeles and are spending the summer here. They were guests during last week at the Chaloupka home.

The W. C. T. U. will entertain the elderly and shut-in women of the city July 10 at a lawn party at the H. H. Titus home.

The Cottage Grove Ladies of the Orient, who were losers in a recent membership contest with Eugene, were hostesses Saturday evening at a banquet to the Eugene women.

The Methodist ladies' aid society will not meet during the month of July.

Swimmers Lose Valuables.
The pleasure of swimming these warm days has been marred for some by petty thievery which has been carried on, probably by boys.
One swimmer lost $9 in cash from his clothes, although a watch and other valuables were not disturbed.
Another bather lost a watch which he had left in his clothes.

Twin Deer Are Born.
Twin deer were born Friday morning to Flossie, one of the does in the Bartell park opposite the hotel. The other deer are to be moved to the new park east of the city which Mr. Bartell has prepared, but Flossie and her family will be left at their present location during the summer as an attraction for tourists and others.

THE QUALITY STORE—GOOD SERVICE

STORKS will live ONLY in REPUBLICS —Or so people used to think in the 16th century.

This is the 20th century. But we are still superstitious; for example, when we pay fancy prices for eastern lubricants in spite of the fact that the best crudes so far discovered for the manufacture of a motor oil are obtained from wells on the Pacific Coast.

Experience explodes the anti-western oil superstition

Zerolene actually lubricates better—and because it does it lubricates more cars in the Pacific Coast states than any other oil made —low and high priced cars alike. The most advanced refining process is this Company's patented high-vacuum process, during the use of which Zerolene is submitted to 15 positive checks for quality. Zerolene's special filtration through 40 tons of Florida Fuller's Earth gives you an oil that's absolutely pure and safe.

Zerolene will increase the gasoline mileage of your car, reduce carbon accumulation and lengthen its working life.
