Partners In Prosperity

You and your home town are partners. If your town prospers, you prosper—if the town goes backward, you lose. Your interests are here. Keep your money where your interests lie. When you patronize outside merchants the money you spend can never be used toward the growth of this community. When you spend your money here you invest it and the investment will pay dividends in making our home town a better place in which to live.

STORY ON THE CANNY SCOT

Inventor Had Taken No Chances Of Losing.

Surely the Scotch are the most tolerant people in the world, as they bear the brunt of most of its so-called humor. But there is reason for the theory that the Scot is canny. Here is an authentic yarn, vouchered for by Harry Furniss in his "Some Victorian Men," that illustrates the point.

When Bessemer, the genius who gave to steel his name, came to make his discovery public, he put a lump of the famous steel in his pocket and made his way to Nasmyth, of steelhammer fame.

Placing the metal on Nasmyth's desk, he told him that he had made an extraordinary discovery which would revolutionize the whole metal world. Then came a little incident which shows what wonderful heads these Scotch financiers possess. What do you think Nasmyth said to this excited inventor?

"Eh, mon, it's very risky to show your wonderful invention to the world is very dishonest."

To which the inspired inventor replied: "Right, Mr. Nasmyth, I just calculated whom I was coming to see, so with my last half-crown I registered the invention on my way."

Scotland Forever. Jean entered a butcher's shop in a little town in Scotland and demanded to see a sheep's head.

"Is it English?" she asked when one was shown her.

"No, lass, it's Scotch," replied the butcher.

"Then it'll no do," said Jean. "Mistress is English and she said I was to be sure and bring English meat."

"Here, Joek!" said the butcher, tossing the sheep's head over to his assistant, "take the brains out of that, will you?"—Vancouver Province.

No Excitement.

"What's all this noise about, you young rascal?"

"Well, Mary said if I kept on crying a great big mouse with big green eyes would come and sit on the end of my bed, and I've kept on, but it hasn't come yet!"—London News.
