Why Henry Went Out

It was pouring rain and dreadfully cold. He came in, kicked off his wet shoes, slid his tired feet into a pair of comfortable carpet slippers, sat down in an easy chair, drew forth his pipe lighted it and declared that nothing would make him stir from the house until next morning.
"Henry, my dear," said his wife, "did you mail my letter?"
"Of course I did, my love," he answered.
"I asked mother to postpone her visit for a while," the wife went on; "you see—"

More Reform

(Washington Star)
"I am in favor of reviving the old dances."
"I'm not," answered Senator Sorghum. "We've got enough reforms on hand trying to teach people how to use their heads and stomachs without endeavoring to instruct them in the way to use their feet."

Distinctive in shape and in flavor

We can picture the new shape Tru-Bake Cracker for you and point out its advantages:

- It fits the bite.
Eats neater—fewer crumbs.

Much daintier when served with soups, salads, hot chocolate.

But, we can't place a Tru-Bake between your lips—and let you enjoy its fine flavor. That's up to you.

Once you taste a Tru-Bake, you will always tell your grocer to send
