SCHOOL CHILDREN RESPOND TO APPEAL

On Thursday The Sentinel printed an editorial in which attention was called to thoughtlessness of school children in parking their cars where they shut off the view of an elderly woman who gets her only real pleasure by watching traffic pass on the street; also

Watchcase Vanities
of Cara Nome Powder and Rouge

are the last word in convenience for the handbag or purse—likewise in beauty.

A real mirror, generous contents, a dainty lamb's wool puff, non-tarnishing case, a chic design, a catch that holds firmly, yet easy to open at your wish.

Altogether a vanity in which you may take genuine pride!

COTTAGE GROVE, OREGON

their disregard for the rights of others shown by throwing old papers and lunch refuse on the parking along this woman's property.

Upon the following day The Sentinel was informed by Superintendent Hays that the condition had been remedied, that no more cars would be parked so as to obstruct the woman's view of the street and that the refuse thrown along this woman's property would be removed by the school children.

Superintendent Hays stated that, contrary to a report made to the city council, he had not taken the matter up with the school children previous to the time the report was made to the city council but that the moment he spoke to the children the parking of cars at the place referred to was stopped, and it was stopped upon the forenoon of the day that the editorial was printed.

The Sentinel is pleased to make mention of this handling of the matter by the superintendent of schools and to learn that discipline in the schools is such that a request by the superintendent is complied with without any ands, ifs or buts. That is the way it should be. So far as we know, that is the way it always has been during the time Mr. Hays has been superintendent.

Assessor Miller, of Yamhill county, would put household goods back on the tax rolls. His idea is right.
It is an unjust and unfair exemption that lets the rich man out of taxation on $50,000 worth of household goods and the poor man out of taxation upon $200 or $300 worth of the same kind of property.
For favoring the wealthy, the household goods exemption takes the cake, plate and all.

Of 863 first year students at the University of Oregon, 43 per cent were unable to pass the English test. They didn't know their onions, as it is expressed by the high school kid of today.

Just Proved It.
One doesn't look for humor at a medical convention, but during the last one held in Los Angeles, there was at least one good laugh.
A very distinguished physician had just finished a lengthy discourse and the chairman arose and said:
"The speaker who has just closed is a striking example of the efficiency of the doctrines he so eloquently advocates. Hale and hearty at 80 years of age, he could tire out many a man younger than himself."
"He did!" came a voice from the audience.

Society

Mrs. Claude Sherman entertained at her home Saturday evening in honor of her sister, Mrs. S. A.
Walkinshaw, of Santa Ana, Calif.
Guests were Mr. and Mrs. S. A.
Walkinshaw and son Ralph, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Chestnut, Mr. and Mrs. William Chestnut, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hands, all of this city; Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Davis and daughter, of Yoncalla; Mr. and Mrs. S. Chestnut, Clarence and Ralph Chestnut and Miss Joy Fredericks, of Springfield.

Mrs. O. W. Hays entertained the Utopia club at her home Thursday afternoon. A business session was held and members brought articles to be sent to Portland for the Oregon bazaar. A social hour followed and a two-course luncheon was served. Bright-colored nasturtiums and yellow place cards were the table decorations. Names were drawn for the annual Christmas tree. The club will meet next month with Mrs. S. L. Mackin.

A number of friends and neighbors of Mrs. W. S. Keyes met at her home last Monday for a surprise hamkorechief shower, the occasion being Mrs. Keyes' birthday anniversary. At the close of the social meeting a community club was organized. Miss Aileen Hawley was elected president, Mrs. Mildred Trunnell vice president and Mrs.
Esther Trunnell secretary-treasurer.
The club will hold its next meeting Friday, October 2, in the Latham school house.

A few friends of Mrs. Amanda Spriggs met at her home Friday afternoon for a surprise birthday party. Birthday cards were presented to Mrs. Spriggs and light refreshments were served by Mrs.
A. C. Spriggs. Those present were Mrs. Anna Lane, Mrs. Anna Teeters, Mrs. Sina Vaughn, Mrs. Emma Tompkins, Mrs. Eliza McKibben and Mrs. Harriett Leonard.

The Social Twelve met Thursday afternoon with Mrs. Herbert Eakin. A short business session was held and needlework occupied the remainder of the afternoon.
A tempting luncheon was served.
House decorations were choice dahlias and Caroline Testout roses.
Mrs. Caroline Brand and Mrs.
Mabel Merryman were invited guests.

Miss Lula Currin entertained Saturday afternoon with an informal card party in honor of Mrs. Ernest Wyatt, of Eugene. The time was spent in playing 500. Light refreshments were served. Invited guests were Mrs. H. H. Vetch,

Miss Myrtle Kem, Miss Kathleen Kem, Miss Esther Silsby, Mrs.
Clara Burkholder, Miss Belle Burkholder and Mrs. Ernest Wyatt.

The ladies' bible class of the Methodist church entertained the men's class at a dinner Friday evening. The women met in the afternoon and tacked a name quilt which was presented to Pastor and Mrs. Ebert at the dinner. A social evening followed the dinner.
About 45 were present.

The Keepers of the Den met Thursday at Hotel Bartell for their weekly luncheon. Officers were elected as follows: Mrs. G. C. Drott, president; Miss Ruth Stewart, vice president; Mrs. C. A. Bartell, treasurer; Mrs. O. M. Miller, secretary.

The Tillieum club will meet Wednesday with Mrs. G. M. Scott for the first meeting of the fall season.

Leads to Be Restricted.
The county court will soon take action to protect the highways by restricting load weights. O. E.
Crowe, commissioner, has stated.
He warns farmers and others who expect to haul heavy loads that they should haul them before the rains set in, softening the roads.
