

COTTAGE GROVE HIGH ELEVEN TO PLAY ALBANY

Team in Good Condition for Game Saturday; Hopes Are Held To Avenge Old Defeat.

Spurred by their showing against the Eugene team here last Friday and determined to avenge a defeat of two years ago by the Albany team, Cottage Grove high football team will go to Albany Saturday with the avowed intention of winning the football game they play there that afternoon.

Coach Grannis' battlers are in good shape for the game, he said yesterday. None of them suffered greatly from the hard fight against the Eugene team. The lineup will be practically the same as that of last Friday.

Efforts will be made to have at least 100 students and football fans there to root for Cottage Grove.

Reservoir to Be Fenced.

The city property on reservoir hill is to be fenced with wire. In addition an eight-foot fence is to encircle the new million gallon reservoir, the second fence to be inside the first one.

One or more permanent ladders are to be placed in this reservoir to enable anyone accidentally dropping into the reservoir to get out. It would be impossible for anyone unaided to climb out on the sloping sides of the big pool.

A proposition to raise by a foot the contemplated water level has been referred to the water committee. The extra foot would add a hundred thousand gallons to the capacity of the reservoir.

Street Assessments Made.

Ordinances were passed by the city council Monday night making the assessments for the recent improvement of First alley south, between Seventh and Eighth streets, and for Adams avenue from Second street to a point near the east city limits. The assessment on the alley was approximately $1.45 the front foot and on Adams avenue approximately $4.39 the front foot, exclusive of work chargeable to individual property owners.

Scrutinizing Committee Appointed.

A committee has been appointed by the chamber of commerce to give its approval or disapproval to all charitable propositions presented to the business men of the city. This committee will simply decide whether charitable enterprises are legitimate and will in no way suggest contributions. It is the intention that no contributions be made by business men to any enterprise until it has first been scrutinized by this committee.

Veterans May Get Loans.

Oregon world war veterans who accepted the cash bonus from the state have until June 30, 1926, to return the money and make application for the state loan authorized under the same act, according to an opinion handed down by the state attorney general. This ruling will affect several local veterans who accepted the cash bonus and who now desire to convert it to a loan. June 1927 is the final time for filing applications for loans.

The sewer in the Harms addition, between Ninth and Tenth streets, being constructed by the city by force account, is nearing completion.

River at Low Mark.

Absence of fall rains, which usually come at frequent intervals this time of year, has brought the Willamette river at Eugene to the lowest point ever recorded there by weather observers. The stage of the river Tuesday was less than 4 of a foot. Records of many years past show the lowest level before was 5 of a foot.

Schools to Observe Day.

Cottage Grove schools will observe Frances E. Willard day tomorrow. Pastor John Linn will address the high school students and Pastor Duncan P. Cameron will speak to junior high school students. The day, which has been designated by an act of the legislature, will be generally observed in schools throughout the state.

New Road Is Asked.

A petition presented this week to the county court asks for construction of a three mile road to connect Lynx Hollow with the Cottage Grove-Lorane highway. The road would afford residents of the upper Lynx Hollow country a much shorter route to this city. At present the only route is to Walker and over the Pacific highway here.

Teams to Play Again.

Cottage Grove junior high and Springfield junior high will play a return football game on Delbert Kelly field Saturday. The two teams met in Springfield last Saturday, the local eleven coming home with the long end of a 14 to 6 score.

Big Spike Does Not Split Air Cured Timber

The added strength that is put into timber by the air seasoning process at the Standard Bridge company's plant south of the city, is illustrated by an exhibit at the plant. A 60-penny spike has been driven into a two-inch plank an inch or so from the end of the plank and there is no sign of the timber being cracked by the experiment.

On account of the added strength given the timber the company is able to use smaller timbers in its bridge construction work than it would have to use if the timber were dried in the open air or by dry kiln.

The amount of moisture removed is also remarkable. A record has been kept on half a hundred cars which have been shipped and the record shows that the weight per 1000 feet was reduced from about 3300 pounds to about 2000 pounds, a reduction in weight of about 40 per cent. The reduction in the

ACCIDENTS IN LUMBER CAMPS INJURE THREE MEN

Clifford Lebow, employed at the mill of the Blue Mountain Lumber company, lost two fingers of his left hand Tuesday when he slipped while operating the resaw, catching his hand in the whirling saw. The fingers were so badly lacerated that amputation was necessary. A local physician performed the operation.

A. J. Harris, donkey fireman for Anderson & Middleton at the Rujada camp, sustained severe burns to his hands and narrowly escaped serious injuries Tuesday when a gasoline tank he was filling exploded and the gas, igniting, set fire to his clothing. Harris jumped into the river nearby, extinguishing the flames. His injuries were treated by a local physician.

Gene Ryan, employed by the W. A. Woodard Lumber company, received painful injuries to his right leg Tuesday when he was caught between a tree and a line. The member was badly mashed and he will be unable to work for two weeks or more.

TWO THOUGHTS WITH BUT A SINGLE FORD. Coming or going—can you figure it out? The photographer couldn't. So instead of taking a front view of the contraption, he snapped a side view and decided to leave it to you readers to decipher it. This Ford—called 'the latest' of its kind, is a novel rigup on the part of an enterprising garage at Cicero, Ill. It's one car but has two steering wheels and motors to drive it in opposite directions. There is no reverse, for none is needed. The men driving it are 'Ike' and 'Mike'—a sobriquet they got through the claim that their Ford 'looks alike.' xx
