

The Cow As a Factory

If more of the dairy cows of the country were examined from the critical basis of efficiency, as a factory is examined by the owner, there would be many of the cows for sale or trade. Inefficient cows for milk production are cutting down the incomes of thousands of dairymen.

The First National bank knows that there is a constant need for improvement in dairy herds of this community as well as in other sections. We are keenly interested in this profitable production and are glad to assist in building up and bettering the herds of farmers who are in our banking territory.

We urge every progressive dairyman to attend the Pacific International Livestock Exposition at Portland, October 31 to November 7. Here not only the best beef and dairy cattle will be exhibited but also the largest gathering of hogs, horses, sheep, goats and poultry ever assembled under one roof in America. It is close at hand and offers a liberal education of inestimable worth.

Rubber stamps. The Sentinel. x Scientists See Ending of Niagara's Grandeur

Once more the scientists have been casting a calculating eye upon Niagara falls. In the news headlines we are told of a situation gaining in gravity on the Canadian side through the recession due to the wearing away of the limestone bed of the river. In a report to the Smithsonian institution, says the New York World, we read that, in effect, the falls are committing suicide and that the speed of the operation increases relentlessly.

However, as we read on in these forecasts we find comfort for wedding tourists and exposition promoters alike. The falls, it appears, have taken 10,000 years to go seven miles in their recession to date. On the Canadian side they are now receding five feet a year, at which rate it will take rather more than a thousand years to score only another mile.

While a thousand years may be but yesterday in the sight of science, it is really quite a space of time in the affairs of commerce and the tourist trade.

Combined Attack of Gulls Drove Off Hawk

Seagulls' victory over a hawk is described by Albert R. Keen of North Devon in a recent issue of the London Times. He says: "I was visiting Lynton recently and from the high cliffs above the sea I witnessed a most remarkable air battle between about a dozen or more seagulls and a hawk. Their organization and method of attack on the hawk was very much like air battles in the World war. The attack lasted for about fifteen minutes, until the gulls had driven the hawk entirely away from their domain where they were nesting and chased him off down the coast for a mile or two. The gulls all together cleverly pounced on him with severe pecks and then the other gulls closed in around. It was a very interesting sight."

BOY SCOUT TROUP MAY BE FORMED HERE

Father and Son Banquet to Be Held to Stimulate Interest.

Organization in the near future of one or more Boy Scout troops for Cottage Grove was discussed last night at a meeting of representatives of the American Legion and local churches. L. S. McCready, president of the Lane county Boy Scout council and Delbert Obertouffer, scout commissioner, both of Eugene, explained the purpose of the scouts and methods of organization.

A father and son banquet will be held, probably next month, to stimulate interest in the Boy Scout movement. Efforts will be made to have several local men interested attend a series of instruction courses in scouting. These classes, which will be under the direction of Dean Bovard of the University of Oregon, will be held each Monday night in the university gymnasium. The first class will be held October 26.

A Boy Scout troop was in existence here a few years ago and was later disbanded. Some of the members will be available for the new troop. The American Legion has offered to get behind the movement here and will have the cooperation of local churches.
