Right Now's the Time to Buy Tru-Bake Crackers in the larger packages

—You eat more crackers now than at any other time of the year.
 —For good taste demands that crackers be served with all soups, salads and hot chocolate. And hungry kiddies delight in cracker sandwiches with cheese, peanut butter, jelly or jam.
 —Then why not be economical and buy Tru-Bakes in the larger packages?

MANY ATTEND MEETING ON COAST FORK
 Chamber of Commerce Represented At Hebron Gathering.
 A large number of residents of the Coast fork district attended the meeting Tuesday night in the Hebron hall. S. T. White, Smith-Hughes instructor of the local high school, had charge and spoke on feeding of livestock. Miss Merle Bowen, domestic science instructor here, discussed the relationship of food to health.
 F. E. Mendenhall, secretary of the chamber of commerce, discussed the relations between the business man and the farmer. Vocal solos were given by Miss Joy Johnson and Miss Margaret Carter.
 The meeting was one of a series of regular classes conducted in this section of the country by Mr. White. Several other members of the chamber of commerce also attended.
 Mr. White will have charge of a similar meeting in Creswell tonight. Teachers of the local schools will put on a program of entertainment.

TWO MEN INJURED IN LOGGING CAMPS
 Earl Ishmael Is Seriously Hurt In Fall From Lumber Plume.
 Earl Ishmael, Cottage Grove youth, was injured, perhaps seriously, Tuesday afternoon, when he fell from the flume of the Bohemia Lumber company at Vench Spur, where he was employed. His back and shoulders were badly bruised and it was feared he might have suffered internal injuries. He was brought to the office of a local physician and after a hasty examination was taken to a Eugene hospital.
 Otis P. Corder was injured Tuesday at the Anderson & Middleton camp at Buja when a saw cut his left leg deeply. His injuries were treated by a local physician.
