Society

Pastor and Mrs. Duncan P. Cameron were honor guests at a reception Tuesday evening in the Presbyterian church. A program was given as follows: Selection by the church choir; prayer, Pastor John A. Linn of the Methodist church; address of welcome, H. A. Galloway; greetings from the Sunday school, superintendent Shaw; selection by quartet, Mrs. Victor Chambers, Mrs. Roy Short, Mrs. George Matthews and Mrs. C. C. Cruson; welcome from Cottage Grove ministers, John A. Linn; vocal solo, Mrs. Victor Kenn. A social hour followed and dainty refreshments were served.

About 20 friends gathered Monday evening at the home of Mrs. J. H. Heard complimenting her daughter, Mrs. Clyde Laffoon, a recent bride. The evening was spent in social conversation, the guests relating incidents of their wedding days. Refreshments were served at a late hour. A beautiful linen table cloth was presented to Mrs. Laffoon.

The ladies' aid society of the Methodist church will conduct a bazaar in the church Wednesday afternoon and evening. Several booths containing fancy work, aprons, candy, flowers, harvest products and other articles, will be conducted. A fish pond will be one of the features. A chicken dinner will be served in the evening following the bazaar.

The La Comus club was entertained Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock luncheon by Mrs. H. A. Miller. The rooms were decorated in a clever color scheme of pink and white. A bowl of chrysanthemums centered the dining table and place cards bore a descriptive sketch of each guest. The afternoon was devoted to needlework and pleasant conversation.

Mrs. H. W. Titus was hostess Tuesday afternoon to the M. P. G. club. Mrs. C. A. Hood, mother of Mrs. Titus, was a special guest. A two course luncheon was served at the close of a pleasant social afternoon. The table was beautifully decorated with yellow and lavender chrysanthemums.
