Creswell Jail Burns.
The city jail at Creswell burned to the ground early Monday morning. There had been no lodgers in the jail since the night before and it was thought that the fire must have smoldered for a day. Creswell residents were startled by the sounding of the fire alarm which had not been used for a long time.

Compton-Ashworth. At a simple but beautiful wedding last-night at 8 o'clock at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. E. Compton their daughter Neta was united in marriage to William Ashworth of Eugene. The wedding was performed by Pastor John A. Linn of the Methodist church. The ring ceremony was used. The bride's sister, Miss Lois Compton, and Brighton Leonard were the only attendants. The ceremony took place in the large living room, which had been banked with potted ferns and palms interspersed with tall vases of bronze and yellow chrysanthemums. The bride was charmingly attired in champagne colored georgette over rose pink silk, while her sister wore a gown of Alice blue crepe, embroidered with silver beads. Following the ceremony a dainty wedding supper was served. The guests were seated at small tables centered with bouquets of chrysanthemums. Mrs. Ashworth, who has been recently employed as book-keeper for the Sweet-Drain Auto company in Eugene, lived here for many years when a girl. Mr. Ashworth is a salesman for the same firm. After December 1 the couple will be at home at 1168 Ferry street, Eugene. Guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Sweet, Mr. and Mrs. J. Medford, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ashworth and Miss Fay Mallory, all of Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Cooper of Cottage Grove.

Due to an error in Monday's Sentinel only a part of the officers elected last Friday by the Rebekah lodge were named. The corrected list is: Past noble grand, Mrs. Elsie Curran; noble grand, Mrs. Alice Conner; vice grand, Mrs. Lena Sears; recording secretary, Mrs. Elizabeth Fullmer; financial secretary, Mrs. Clara Stevens; treasurer, Mrs. Eva Hatch.

Mrs. L. McAboy was hostess Friday afternoon to the Mothers' club. The time was spent in piecing quilts and refreshments were served at the close of the meeting. Four quilts are near completion and will make a total of seven to be pieced by the club. Plans were made for the care of several needy families. Mrs. McAboy issued a call for used clothing, stating that she had many requests for wearing apparel. Mrs. W. L. Darby, president of the club, who has been ill, was reported improving.

Mrs. Ivan Warner was hostess yesterday afternoon to the Elmcrest club. Additional guests were Mrs. E. W. Frans and Mrs. Ivan Barker. Mrs. L. E. Liston is a new member of the club. The rooms were artistically decorated in autumn foliage. The afternoon was devoted to bridge, after which a delicious two-course luncheon was served. Mrs. Frans won high honor while Mrs. Barker received the consolation prize.

Mrs. G. B. Pitcher was hostess Tuesday afternoon to the La Comus club. Beautiful bouquets of pink and white chrysanthemums added to the attractiveness of the rooms. The afternoon was spent in needlework and a delicious luncheon was served.

The regular meeting of Constellation club, which was to have been held this afternoon, has been postponed until December 10 on account of Thanksgiving day.

Leland Willets, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Q. Willets, and his aunt, Mrs. L. S. Willets, both of Klamath Falls, are spending the Thanksgiving holiday at the Willets home.
