Then He Sat Down.

At a conference a speaker made a number of disparaging remarks regarding the universities, finally expressing gratification that he himself had not been corrupted by contact with a college.

"Do I understand that the gentleman is thankful for his ignorance?" asked the chairman indignantly.

"Yes," said the other, "if you like to put it that way."

"Then," continued the chairman, "all I have to say is that you have much to be thankful for."

Always Give the Home Print Shop the First Chance

A Generous Job.

A Holyoke, Massachusetts, man in Worcester found that he had spent all his money, and began looking about for a chance to earn some. Seeing a group of men digging for the foundation of a new building he asked the foreman if he could go to work.

"Sure," said the foreman, "help yourself to a shovel." Picking up an idle shovel the newcomer worked way for a couple of hours. Finally, when he paused for a rest, one of the men who was working beside him said: "I don't seem to know you—where do you live?"

"I live in Holyoke," replied the newcomer. "What are you doing here?" asked the other. All of us Worcester men are giving a day's work free to help build the new Presbyterian church."

Your home print shop is always ready to help you in the preparation of copy for intricate forms of any kind.

E. U. LEE SUCCEEDS TO MAYORALTY AT EUGENE

Resigned Under Fire.

Eugene, Ore., Nov. 28.—(Special.)—Ernest U. Lee, former county clerk and now engaged in the abstract and realty business, today was elected mayor of Eugene by the city council at a special meeting of that body. He succeeds Lawrence Simmons, president of the council, who acted as mayor for a few days after Mayor Parks' resignation the first of the week.

Mr. Lee in accepting said he felt that the affairs of the city were nearing a crisis and that he would take the reins of government only temporarily until the finances are straightened out and reserved the privilege of resigning at such a time as he felt that affairs were in good condition again.

Longevity Pay Arrives.

Bukowski, Sergeant Wilbur Spray, Sergeant Henry Hubbell, Sergeant George Foster, Sergeant H. H. Hatch, Sergeant Harry Conner, Corporal E. Porter, First Class Private W. Porter.

Captain C. C. Cruson, Lieutenant D. M. DeLong and Second Lieutenant W. S. McCaleb received their longevity pay with their regular encampment checks.

It Can Be Done.

Somebody said that it couldn't be done, but he with a chuckle replied that maybe it couldn't, but he would be one who wouldn't say so till he'd tried. So he buckled right in with the trace of a grin on his face. If he worried he hid it. He started to sing as he tackled the thing that couldn't be done, and he did it.

Somebody scoffed: "Oh, you'll never do that, at least no one has ever done it." But he took off his coat and he took off his hat and the first thing he knew he'd begun it. With the lift of his chin and a bit of a grin, if any doubt rose he forbid it; he started to sing as he tackled the thing that couldn't be done, and he did it.

There are thousands to tell you it cannot be done, there are thousands to prophesy failure; there are thousands to point out to you one by one the dangers that wait to assail you, but just buckle right in with a bit of a grin, then take off your coat and go to it. Just start to sing and tackle the thing that cannot be done and you'll do it!—Sam Walter Foss in New York Tribune.
