SAW MILLS ARE DOWN FOR HOLIDAY SEASON

Saw mills and logging camps of this section are down for the holidays. Some will resume on Monday following Christmas, some will resume on Monday following New Year's, while others will be down several weeks.

Anderson & Middleton, the largest operators here, closed down mill A Saturday for three weeks while construction work is being completed at their Rujada logging camp. Mill A had not been operating. The Bohemia Lumber company's plant at Divide shut down Wednesday and will resume Monday. The Wiese mill on Cedar creek also closed down Wednesday to resume Monday.

Woodard Is Wanted Booster.
 Albert Woodard has become a more ardent booster than ever for Cottage Grove. He advertised for a loan on a house. He wanted the money to use in building another. The ad brought him the desired results and he will add another home to the several he already has erected.

ANNOUNCING a CHANGE IN POLICY

At the instance of the Ford Motor Company, and due to existing conditions over which we have no control, this business will, commencing with the New Year, be conducted on a

STRICTLY CASH BASIS

The rigid financial policy of the Ford Motor Company requires that we pay cash for everything we buy; consequently sound business principles demand that we collect cash for what we sell.

We wish to state this is no reflection on the integrity of the many friends with whom cordial credit relations have existed in the past, and we wish to express our appreciation of that business. We solicit your continued patronage on this new cash basis, which will assure you of the lowest possible prices consistent with high quality merchandise coupled with adequate reliable service.

Very truly yours,
