THE IRON HORSE TELLS OF WINNING OF WEST

"The Iron Horse," shown Thursday, Friday and Saturday at the Arcade theater, stands out as one of the great epic pictures of the winning of the west. The theme of the picture is the building of the first transcontinental railroad. Early frontier life, the difficulties encountered in building the Union Pacific and the Central Pacific, the terrors of Indian attacks are all faithfully depicted. Not all the old soldiers, the "three musketeers," furnish plenty of comedy situations.

GRADES GIVE PROGRAM WEDNESDAY, THURSDAY

Pupils of the grade schools will give a program Wednesday and Thursday evenings at the high school for the purpose of raising funds with which to purchase picture frames for pictures which were secured a year ago. The program will consist of songs, skits, playlets, etc. and the west-side junior high will give an operetta. The admission will be 10c and 20c. Pupils of a grade will be admitted free when their grade is putting on part of the program.

Dr. Cheney Preaches Here.

Dr. S. J. Cheney of Eugene, district superintendent of the Methodist church, conducted the forenoon services at the local Methodist church yesterday. The first part of the service was devoted to the junior church and communion service was held.
